1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. A member may speak out only once on any one motion until all who desire to speak have done so; and then he may speak only one additional time.
3. The chairperson of an agency (or someone designated by him) shall be allowed to speak last on his report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Speeches shall be limited to ten (10) minutes except by consent of the conference.
5. If any part of these rules conflict with the The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the Discipline shall prevail.

Roll and Pastoral Records of Conference Members in Full Connection: 634, 1980

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. Since the information came from records supplied by each man and includes only service in the North Carolina Conference, the Conference Secretary should be notified of any discrepancies or changes that the members wish to have made. Note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right-hand column only indicate the number of years served under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the North Carolina Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions (Editor).

Honorary Members, Bishop Robert M. Blackburn

Journal of Proceedings (Daily Minutes)

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION Monday, June 2, 1980

The Prelude, "Fantasia" by Samuel Scheidt, was played by Mrs. Charles Davenport, Diaconal Minister and Director of Music/Organist, First United Methodist Church, Wilson.

Conference Convened: Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area, called to order the North Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church at 3:30 p.m., following the singing of the traditional conference hymn, No. 336, "And Are We Yet Alive?" and the asking of God's blessings on the Annual Conference through the prayer of invocation.

The Act Of Calling The Conference Together: Bishop Blackburn convened the conference with these words: "I now have the privilege of calling to order the thirteenth session of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and the one hundred fifty fifth session of the oldest constituent member conference of United Methodism in the North Carolina Conference. This is the 1980 Session. The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church is the successor to:

The North Carolina Conference, Methodist Protestant Church, 1828-1939,

Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, 1879-1939,

Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Conference, Central Jurisdiction, The United Methodist Church."

Introduction: Bishop Blackburn presented the president of Methodist College, Dr. Richard W. Pearce, to bring greetings.

Welcome: Dr. Pearce brought greetings on behalf of the trustees and staff of Methodist College and gave special words of appreciation to returning alumni Ray Gooch and Mike Safley and paid particular honor to Bill Lowdermilk for the hard work in preparation. He gave further special instructions regarding the use of air conditioning in helping the college in its expense costs and also in the conservation of energy. He explained some of the other items mentioned in the Conference Program regarding the times for meals, requesting that the Conference be good stewards of the meal hours.

Introduction: Dr. Pearce presented the Honorable Beth Finch, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, who brought greetings from the city.

Greetings: Mayor Finch again officially welcomed the Conference to the City of Fayetteville, expressing appreciation for the presence of this college and what has become thought of as a headquarters for United Methodism at conference time.

Host District: Mayor Finch was thanked for her gracious words of welcome and then the Reverend Reginald Ponder, Superintendent of the New Bern District, who represented the ministers of that district as host to the Conference, brought greetings and asked the Conference to look to the lay persons and pastors of the New Bern District to provide help during Annual Conference.

Point of Personal Privilege: The Host District Superintendent, Reginald Ponder, asked that Mrs. Jewel Blackburn, the First Lady of North Carolina Methodism, come forward. She was recognized with warm applause and appreciation as a corsage was pinned upon her. Obvious and affectionate appreciation was expressed by the Conference as the ceremony was greeted with applause and good humor.

The State of the Church: Bishop Blackburn brought the annual State of the Church address. He called attention to the fact that because of the tenure system governing the appointment of bishops this would be his last opportunity to address the Conference as its episcopal leader. He spoke with fervor in an important statement on behalf of Methodism and the people called Methodists in eastern North Carolina. (For text of the State of the Church address, see Section V of the Journal.) Bishop Blackburn concluded his address by offering special prayer for the State of the Church and then asked that the Conference since Hymn No. 287 as arrangements were made for the celebration of the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Sacrament of Holy Communion: Bishop Blackburn, assisted by the District Superintendents, celebrated the Sacrament of Holy Communion. Communion was celebrated for the entire Conference assembled in Reeves Auditorium and those packed around outside the door and backstage. An unusual number partook of the sacrament, singing many hymns of praise and feeling a deep expression of the dignity of the occasion. Ushers were ministers from the host New Bern District. At the conclusion of the historic ritual the Bishop called for a few moments for remarks and then recessed the Conference for or ninute to prepare for certain special reports to come before the Conference and the remainder of the afternoon business session.

Conference Reconvened: Bishop Blackburn called for the Conference to be in session. He recognized Secretary Coile.

Organization of the Conference: Rules of the Conference: Coile moved that the Rules of the Conference be those rules printed in Volume II of the 1979 Journal, pages 5-10.

Official Role: Coile moved that the registration cards signed at the registration tables by the lay and clerical members of the Conference be designated and declared the official role of the Conference. It was approved by the Conference.

Bar of the Conference: Secretary Coile moved that the main floor and the stage of Reeves Auditorium be the Bar of the Conference. It was so declared and approved by the Conference.

Official Program: Coile moved that the program contained in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980 and the brochure enclosed in the members' packets as amended by the presiding bishop be designated and declared the Official Program of the Conference. It was adopted.

Property of the Conference: Coile moved that the material printed in and published in The Saddlebag be declared presented to the Conference, when distributed to the members, to satisfy the 24-hour rule. It was approved.

Privilege of the Floor: Secretary Coile moved that all those persons appearing on the program of the Conference be granted the privilege of the floor. He explained that some of those on the program are not members of the Conference. This would enable them to speak without a specific motion for each individual. It was adopted.

Introduction: Bishop Blackburn recognized Dr. Richard W. Pearce to present officers of the committees. Dr. Pearce presented the officers listed on page 3 and 4 for the Annual Conference and they were elected by the Conference. A sheet was distributed to the Conference regarding the committee on Resolutions and References, and committee on Tellers, the committee on District Conference Records and the committee on Investigation. Each group was elected as set forth with the addition of the name of John Maides by the Elizabeth City District for the committee on District Conference Records. Each group was seconded and elected without question.

Announcements of Newly Appointed District Superintendents: Bishop Blackburn expressed appreciation for the entire cabinet and specifically for those who were leaving the cabinet this year. He called the names of Norwood Jones, Paul Edwards, Warren Petteway and John Cline, indicating they would go from the cabinet into pastorates. He then asked that the other eight stand and all were accorded a round of applause in appreciation for their service on the cabinet. He announced the new appointments: Goldsboro District, the Reverend Ernest Porter; New Bern District, the Reverend Malloy Owen III; Rocky Mount District, the Reverend Jack Hunter; the reassignment of the Reverend Reginald Ponder to the Raleigh District; and the Reverend Kermit Braswell, Elizabeth City District.

The Composite Report of the District Superintendents: The Bishop introduced the Reverend R. T. Commander who presented the report.

Mr. Commander spoke with succinct eloquence. The text will be found in Section V of the Journal 1980. Commander ended his report by reminding pastors that their responsibilities for their new appointments would begin on moving day and that the Sunday next after Annual Conference they would preach at their old appointment. He stated that noon of moving day was the time to leave the old parsonage and 1:00 p.m., and no earlier, to move into the new parsonage at the new appointment. Commander then expressed deep appreciation for the leadership of Bishop Blackburn during the past two quadrienniums. The Conference expressed appreciation.

Report of the Conference Lay Leader: Bishop Blackburn introduced Dr. Richard Pearce to address the Conference. Pearce expressed appreciation for the cooperation that he received from the Bishop and the cabinet and all the laity in the carrying out of an effective program. He was gratified by the response and support of the United Methodist constituency. A complete text of the Report of the Conference Lay Leader will be found in Section V of the Journal 1980.

Report of the United Methodist Women: Bishop Blackburn presented Mrs. T. Marvin Vick, Jr., to make the report. By costume and with banner Mrs. Vick laid upon the hearts of the Conference the word for the day which was the word "Mission" and spoke with great effectiveness for the need for a new beginning in Mission in the coming quadriennium. The full text of the report appears in Section V of the Journal 1980.

Report of United Methodist Men: Bishop Blackburn presented Dr. J. Allen Norris, Conference president of United Methodist Men, who gave an encouraging report for growth within the United Methodist Men and the development of a newly emerging Conference identity. Full text of the report appears in Section V of the Journal 1980. As portion of his report Dr. Norris presented the Conference officers of United Methodist Men and then called upon Mr. Grier L. Garrick to come forward for special recognition by United Methodist Men. Garrick was cited and presented with an Honorary Life Membership in United Methodist Men. He was accorded a standing round of applause by the entire Conference assembled.

Report of the United Methodist Youth: Bishop Blackburn presented Mr. Robert B. Jordan IV to present the report. Jordan spoke of the work of the youth and of the strength of youth work within our particular Conference. He expressed appreciation for the countless hours that had been contributed to make the youth program stronger throughout the Conference. He gave a special vote of appreciation to the Rev. Ed Morrison for his work. Jordan asked the other Conference officers to stand and be recognized. The complete text of the report is in Section V of the Journal 1980.

Report of the Conference Statistician: Bishop Blackburn called upon the Reverend D. D. Traynham to present the report which appeared in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980, pages 90-92. Traynham spoke to the reports and to certain modest gains but also indicated the declines in attendance at worship services and the Church School. Bishop Blackburn remarked on the hours of work that the office of the Statistician had to perform to derive these tistics and expressed appreciation as the report was accepted for inclusion in Section V of the Journal 1980.

Special Recognition of a Participant in a Report to be Presented Later: Bishop Blackburn introduced the Reverend Dr. Thomas Langford, Dean of the Duke University Divinity School for his expression of thanksgiving to the Conference for its support of the Divinity School, and recognized him at this time since he was unable to be present for the remainder of the Conference. Dean Langford spoke with humor and dedication about the work of educating the clergy as a process of both intellectual growth and general maturation. His report was received with appreciation and he was accorded a round of applause.

Report of the Division of the Diaconal Ministry: Mrs. Grier Garrick brought the report that is contained in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980, pages 54-58. Certificates of certification were presented to new members of the Diaconate. (See report in Section V of the Journal 1980.) Miss Mary Jane Pierce and Mrs. Lois Hardee Stocks were recognized as two additional Diaconal Ministers to be consecrated. Mrs. Garrick made the recommendation that the Division of Diaconal Ministry have its name changed to the Board of Diaconal Ministries in accordance with the terminology of The Book of Discipline. This was moved and seconded. Reginald Ponder questioned whether this was not a decision of the Council on Ministries. There was no response. The Bishop ruled the motion in order and it was so ordered by the Conference. The report as contained in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980 and as supplemented by the duplicated report distributed was adopted by the Conference as a whole.

Announcements: Conference Secretary Coile made announcements necessary to the Order of the Day.

Call for Executive Session: Bishop Blackburn excused the lay members of the Annual Conference for the remainder of the afternoon so that Ministerial members of the Conference might hold a session.

Personal Privilege: Bishop Blackburn recognized Reginald Ponder for certain matters of personal privilege, recognizing the Reverend and Mrs. R. T. Commander on their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary and Mr. Harvey Lee Jones, member of the Camp Ground United Methodist Church, on the occasion of his nintieth birthday.

Recess: The Bishop called for a five-minute recess for the lay members to be dismissed while urging all ministerial members of the Conference, including Probationary Members, to remain. The Bishop called for singing of Hymn No. 254, "Dear Master In Whose Life I Live."

Conference Reconvened: Following the singing of the hymn the Bishop called for the reconvening of the ministerial members of the Conference to consider and vote upon important matters pertaining to the ministry.

Report of the Division of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Blackburn presented Reverend Herman Winberry, chairperson of the Division for the report. The Reverend W. W. Sherman presented pages 10-13 of the Special Report by the Division, answering Question 24, "Who are elected as Probationary Members?" (For complete report of names see the Condensed Minutes following the Journal of Proceedings.)

Recognition of Probationary Members: The names having been duly read and the Probationary Members having been elected, Bishop Blackburn gave them the historic questions which were then asked and were to be responded to affirmatively by all those seeking admission into Probationary Membership. The questions were read and answered affirmatively.

Continuation of Report of the Division of Ordained Ministry: Questions 33, A, B and 36 C were called, answered and approved for the Ordination into the Diaconate. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 27, "Who are elected as Ministerial Members in Full Connection?" and Question 34, "Who have been elected and ordained Elders?" were called. The lists were read and considered and approved by the Elders assembled.

Question 23 was called, "Who are elected Associate Members?" The two listed were presented, considered and voted approved.

Recognition of Ministerial Members Elected to Associate Membership and Full Connection: The Bishop asked the candidates to reaffirm their sincerity of purpose, which they did. The historic questions were asked. The candidates answered the questions as required with consecrated response and witnessed by other ordained members. Bishop Blackburn presented a printed statement of the questions which they were answering to all the candidates to remind them of the vows they had taken as they were received into Full Connection or Associate Membership.

Continuing the Report of the Division of Ordained Ministry: Sherman again called Question 34 to officially elect those who had just been recognized Elders that they might be ordained in the evening service.

Question 25 A, 25 B and 25 C were called, "Who are continued as Probationary Members and what progress have they made in their ministerial studies?" These were approved. (For names see Condensed Minutes.)

Question 26, "Who are admitted from other denominations?" was called as a matter of information. (For names see Condensed Minutes.)

Question 29 B was read, "Who are readmitted as Members in Full Connection?" This was approved. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 30, "What retired ministers have been made effective?" was read. Under Question 30 B the name was read and approved. (For name see Condensed Minutes.)

Question 31, "Who have been received by transfer?" was read. Question 37, "Who are transferred out?" was read. The names were read as a matter of information. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 38, "Who are discontinued as Probationary Members?" was called. The list was read and approved. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 39, "Who have been granted honorable location?" was called. The list was read and approved by the Conference. (For names see Condensed Minutes.)

Question 40 C, "Who have had their Conference Membership terminated by withdrawal to unite with another denomination?" was asked. The list was presented for information and approval by the Conference. It was done. (For list of the names, see Condensed Minutes.)

Question 21 A, "Who are approved and appointed as Full Time Local Pastors and what progress has each made in the Course of Study?" The list as amended was presented and adopted by the Conference. (For names see Condensed Minutes.)

Question 21 B, "Who are approved and appointed as Part Time Local Pastors and what progress has each made in the Course of Study?" The names were approved by the Conference. (For list see Condensed Minutes.)

Question 21 C, "Who are approved and appointed as Student Local Pastors and in what schools are they enrolled?" The list was examined and approved by the Conference. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Winberry presented Question 42, and called the question, "Who are the ministers on leave of absence and for what number of years consecutively has each held this relation?" The names as amended were put before the Conference and were approved. (For names see Condensed Minutes.)

Question 44 C was read, "What ordained ministers are granted disability leave at this session?" The list was read and referred to a special report on a subsequent day.

Question 45 was called, "What members in Full Connection have been retired?" 45 A, "What members in Full Connection have been retired upon recommendation of the Cabinet and Division of Ordained Ministry, with or without the consent of the minister?" Winberry stated this required action, and since they came without the consent of the minister, it required full discussion and approval by the Conference, even though this was a recommendation of the Division and of the Cabinet. William P. McComas spoke on behalf of himself and against the report, stating that he did not wish to be retired. Winberry responded to McComas's comments with the statement that this was a recommendation and not a trial and stated this had to do with a matter of competence. The motion to retire McComas was before the Conference for further discussion and vote. The Bishop reminded that this would require a two-thirds vote. James Tingle spoke regarding how much investigation had gone into this matter. Winberry answered that it was just as painful for them as it was for all ministers and that this had not been done lightly and had been a matter of three years of discussions with McComas, counseling and other extensive matters. The Reverend Tom House asked that the present District Superintendent or Bishop Blackburn or Norwood Jones speak. Ponder spoke. Ponder stated that this was a matter of long standing ministerial behavior disfunction in regard to his ability to relate to leadership. The Bishop read Paragraph 434.1 of the Book of Discipline. Bishop Blackburn then spoke to the overall issue. The question was called and the vote was taken in favor of supporting the Cabinet in its recommendation to retire William P. McComas, 255; opposed, 19.

The recommendation to retire Robert Burton Storrs, Jr., was put before the Conference. Jan Fogleman asked as to what his current relationship was. The chairman of the Division, Herman Winberry, answered that it was one of leave of absence, but that no method of trying to communicate with Brother Storrs had been successful. Wade Goldston asked just how much effort had been made to contract Brother Storrs and Sherman went into detail as to how they had tried to locate him. He said it was absolutely impossible to locate him. The question was called. The retirement of Robert Burton Storrs, Jr., was approved.

Question 46, "What Associate Members have been retired?" was called by Winberry. Question 46 A, recommendation of the Cabinet and Division of Ordained Ministry, with or without the consent of the minister. The name of Charles Irvin Umstead, Jr., was presented for retirement. He was retired.

Adjournment: There was a motion for adjournment and the session was adjourned.

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION

Monday, June 2, 1980

The Most Sacred Service for the Ordination of Elders: Organist for the evening, Bess F. Edwards, Director of Music, Centenary Church, New Bern, played as a prelude, "Concerto in A Minor" by J. S. Bach. The Call to Worship, "We Thy People Praise Thee" by F. J. Haydn, was sung by the Chancel Choir of St. James United Methodist Church, Greenville, with Stephen Vaughan, Diaconal Minister, Director and Mrs. Frances Cain, Organist. After the singing of the Processional Hymn, "God of Grace and God of Glory," Bishop Robert M. Blackburn gave the invocation.

The choir sang two anthems, "Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence" by Gustav Holst, and "Joy in the Morning" by Natalie Sleeth.

Bishop Blackburn presided over the entire service and preached the Ordination Sermon. Recalling the thirty-seven years since his own ordination, he observed, "If I were young, I would make my preaching clear, simple and pure." He urged the direct proclaiming of the Gospel, personifying and exemplifying great truths and using the language and symbols which have sustained us for a thousand years. He further urged the need to be sincere enough to be genuine, pointing out that it is the central business of every human being to be a "real" person. Concerning the problem of the gap between competency and integrity, he stated that the formula for failure is to try to please everyone — especially from the "slippery floor of a popular pulpit." He then shared with the Conference a memorable prayer from his first few days of training for the episcopal office: "Help us to remember not who we are but Whose we are." He closed with the comment that Christian discipleship begins with an answer to the question, "Wilt thou?" but will surely be concluded with the question, "Hast thou?"

Following the sermon Herman Winberry presented those to be ordained Elders. John Cline led the Collect and read Scripture from Ephesians 3:7-9 and 4:11-13. The candidates for Elder were duly ordained by Bishop Blackburn. (For names see Condensed Minutes.) The Recessional Hymn, "God of Love and God of Power," was sung by the congregation and the evening worship service was adorned with the pronouncement of the benediction by Bishop Blackburn. The choral response, "Blessed Are They" by L. Stanley Harum, was sung by the choir. The organist played as a postlude, "Occata in F" by C. M. Widor.

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION

Wednesday, June 3, 1980

Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated in Hensdale Chapel at 7:30 a.m. under the direction of the Division of Worship.

Conference Convened: Organist for the morning session was Roger F. Searles, Diaconal Minister and Director of Music/Organist, St. Paul Church, Goldsboro. Searles played for a prelude, "Phantasy on Hymn Holy, Holy, Holy" by Piet Post.

Bishop Blackburn opened the Conference's second morning session by calling on H. Langill Watson to present the devotion for the morning. Dr. Watson took as his text portions of the fifth chapter of the Gospel According to St. Matthew. He spoke on the topic, "A Story of Introductions." Dr. Watson requested the singing of Hymn No. 195, "Lord, Speak to Me."

Report of the Committee on Minutes: Robert L. Bame, Chairperson, brought the report and announced that the Minutes for Monday afternoon had been read and were approved. The report was accepted by the Conference.

Special Introduction: Bishop Blackburn introduced Sue Henry, manager of the Cokesbury Book Store in Raleigh, who addressed the conference, indicating that the Raleigh Store was in its sixth year and has been among the top ten Cokesbury stores in the nation. She called the Conference's attention to a program called "The Festival of Books" which would bring a selection of books to each church for opportunities for purchase and providing an extension ministry of inspiration throughout the conference. Sue Henry recognized Bruce Margrove of Raleigh, a member of the General Board of Publication. Miss Henry presented to Bishop Blackburn $12,205.55 as our Conference's share in the distribution of pension funds from the proceeds of the Methodist Publishing House.

Report From the General Conference Delegation: As the delegation assembled on the stage, Bishop Blackburn presented the Chairperson of the delegation, Mrs. Ruth Cade and Co-Chairperson, Rev. Dr. Wallace Kirby. Mrs. Cade spoke for the delegation. The report was presented through slides and sound and then elaborated upon by Mrs. Cade.

Mrs. Cade asked that the entire delegation be part of the report and called upon Mrs. Martha Garrick to present a portion of the information from General Conference. She spoke to the question of the debate over the homosexuality issue and the defeat of the attempt to broaden the Gay Rights issue.

Wade Pierce spoke to the General Conference issue of the Pension Plan. Pierce indicated many of the changes in the Pension Plan and how they would benefit the ministers both now and in the future. He discussed the need to raise our annuity rate to at least $130 per service year by 1985.

Mrs. Cade asked Jack Benfield to present the controversial J. P. Stevens Boycott issue that was passed by the General Conference. Benfield expressed personal dismay at the way this particular legislative matter was handled at General Conference. It ran into some emotionally charged negative reaction which resulted in a narrow passage of the boycott. Benfield felt that this was not representative of the feelings of the entire General Conference by any means and certainly not those in the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

Mrs. Cade presented Reginald Ponder to discuss changes in the structure of the local church particularly pertaining to churches of small membership.

Mrs. Cade spoke to the missional priorities as discussed by General Conference and spoke to the Conference's insistence upon accountability for the realization that Boards and Agencies spoke only for themselves and that the General Conference spoke for The United Methodist Church. Full financial disclosure was to be made mandatory for all Boards and Agencies of the Church to provide information to the local church and the annual conferences. Expanded remarks concerning the report from General Conference by the delegation may be found in the 1980 Journal, Section V.

Work of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council: Bishop Blackburn presented Ross Townes who presented the report for the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council on Ministries. (For complete text see Journal 1980, Section V.)

Report on Lake Junaluska: Bishop Blackburn asked Charles Mercer to present the report for Dr. Mel Harbin who needed to be present at his own Annual Conference. Mercer spoke to the nature of the work of the Conference Center at Lake Junaluska and explained the need for support. He called attention to the issue of the Southeastern Jurisdiction United Methodist which was being distributed. Mercer reported that out of a goal of $6,000,000.00 to be contributed to the support of Lake Junaluska the Jurisdiction had received only two and one half million dollars and the campaign was supposed to be concluded at the end of this year. Mercer expressed concern that the North Carolina Annual Conference had contributed only a little more than 35% of the Conference goal. Mercer urged the reaching of our goal so that we might avoid a $750,000.00 projected indebtedness on the new Terrace Hotel. (For extended remarks see the full report in the Journal 1980, Section V.)

Ballot for Episcopal Nomination: Mrs. Cade was presented by Bishop Blackburn to discuss the background of the reason for taking a ballot

or episcopal nomination and the Disciplinary provisions. Mrs. Cade spoke to the Conference, carefully explaining the issues. Bishop Blackburn called for the Tellers to come forward and distribute ballots so that the single name to be supported by the North Carolina Conference might be endorsed as the official candidate for the episcopacy. Mrs. Cade had already taken note of the fact that Wallace Kirby had been the choice of the straw poll last year and had been endorsed throughout the year and presented that as the committee's general nomination and at the same time noted that the Southeastern Jurisdictional Black Caucus had selected Joseph Bethea, also of our Conference, as their choice. She expressed a genuine appreciation for the endorsement of Dr. Bethea, but urged consideration of Dr. Kirby as the nominee from the North Carolina Annual Conference. The ballot was taken.

Report of the Scouting Committee of the North Carolina Annual Conference: Bill Cottingham was introduced by Bishop Blackburn to present the leaders and young boys of Pack 2, St. Paul United Methodist Church, Goldsboro. He in turn asked the Bishop to present the Bishop's Award of Excellence. The Bishop presented the award explaining its significance in regard to participation and religious activities and studies. The award was received and appreciation was expressed.

Honoring the 200th Anniversary of the Sunday School: The Bishop presented Belton Joyner for a moment of personal privilege to present boys and girls from Campground United Methodist Church to honor the Sunday School Movement as they brought forward an enormous five-tiered birthday cake decorated to honor the Sunday School and came with balloons and appropriate implements of celebration as the Sunday School movement was accorded a round of "Happy Birthday" by the Conference. Joyner called upon the Bishop to blow out the candles on the cake. He appeared to blow them all out but with some hilarity it became obvious that the everlight candles were used showing that the flame could not be blown out which had a certain significance in the fact that the Sunday School lights would never go out. The Bishop greeted the children and expressed appreciation for the occasion.

Continuation of the Report of the Board of the Ministry: Herman Winberry was requested to continue the report. Winberry read the names of certain other appointments beyond the local church for approval. They were adopted. (For names see Condensed Minutes.) Bill Sherman was called to present a special resolution honoring Herman Winberry for his direction as chairperson of the Division of Ordained Ministry. He read the citation and the full text will appear under Resolutions in Section V of the Journal 1980.

Conference Recessed: Bishop Blackburn recessed the Conference for a five-minute break, cautioning that all participants should be back in their place within five minutes.

Conference Reconvened: Bishop Blackburn called the Conference to order with the singing of Hymn No. 93 "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing." This was followed by Hymn No. 87. "Take the Name of Jesus With You."

Personal Privilege: Bishop Blackburn recognized Reginald Ponder for courtesy statements. Ponder asked for the prayers of the Conference for George Eubanks because of the very serious condition he was in because of multiple heart attacks. He also extended congratulations to Rev. Robert Flynn of LaGrange on the birth of a daughter.

Passing of Character and Official Administration of the Pastors: The character and administration of the District Superintendents were passed and each District Superintendent in turn was called upon to move the passing of character and official administration of the pastors within their district. The ministers of each district in turn were found blameless in character and administration and it was so moved and passed.

The Division of Lay Life and Work: Bishop Blackburn asked Donald C. Craft to present the concerns of the Division. For the extension of Brother Craft's remarks and resolutions see Section V of the Journal 1980. Mr. Craft presented the award for Lay Person of the Year. The 1980 award was presented to Mr. W. C. Chadwick of Centenary United Methodist Church, New Bern. Mr. Chadwick was escorted to the podium by his pastor Ernest R. Porter and District Superintendent Reginald Ponder. He was accorded a round of applause by the Conference. "Brother Will" Chadwick was called upon to make a few remarks. He spoke most graciously of the opportunities he had been given to serve within the church at home and in the community and in the greater church. He was obviously moved by the honor and expressed gracious appreciation. Bishop Blackburn asked Brother Chadwick how many Annual Conferences he had attended. Chadwick responded that he thought it was 67 or so, and that he had attended five different General Conferences and nearly all of the Jurisdictional Conferences since there had been a Southeastern Jurisdiction under The Methodist Church.

Announcement of Pastoral Appointments: Two new members of the Conference Program Staff were announced: Rev. Willie Teague, who would replace Bob Baldrige and Rev. Allen Wentz, who would replace Hugh Cameron.

Conference Council on Ministries: Bishop Blackburn introduced the Director, James H. Miller, Jr., who presented the entire staff and introduced them in person and by name. Miller asked Bob Baldrige and Hugh Cameron to remain as he presented special citations to each of them and honored them for their work on the Conference staff. Baldrige and Cameron responded. Miller next presented the secretaries and support staff of The Methodist Building and they stood and received a round of applause from the Conference.

Miller asked that the members of the Conference turn to The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980 page 22. The Supplemental Program Recommendation on page 22 and the top of page 23, labeled A, B and C-1, C-2 and C-3 were moved and adopted.

1981 Program and Recommendations beginning on page 23 were moved. Bill Wells questioned the change in date for Heritage Sunday. Paul Stark asked that an amendment be made to Section C:

"17. That the local church/charge Council on Ministries consider conducting programs and/or studies on the Position Papers and Resolutions offered by the Division of Church and Society. To be implemented by the local church/charge Council on Ministries."

It was seconded and Stark spoke to the issue. The Stark amendment was adopted. Sections A, B, and C were moved and adopted as amended.

Section D on pages 26 and 27 were moved and seconded. They were adopted. Roman numeral II, Sections A and B were moved, seconded and adopted. On page 31, Roman numeral III, Recommendations Directed to the Conference, under section III A, New Programs Which Shall Be Done, these were adopted. Nelson Gibson questioned as to why April was the time to have a special meeting on farming including farmers. It was changed to read November 1981 by common consent. Roman numeral III A was adopted. Roman numeral III B, Items 1-10 were moved. Jim Coile raised a question as to Sections B and D under III on the grounds that there was no authority for implementation. After Coile's parliamentary remarks Miller agreed to change B and D from "shall be considered" to "shall be done."

Bob Wallace made a motion that the word "considered" be changed to "authorized." It was seconded and passed. Section B as amended was moved, seconded and approved.

Section C, Continued Programs Which Shall Be Done, was moved, seconded and passed as corrected.

Section D was moved and seconded. Jack Ruth asked that under 10 a that Hearing Impaired and Vision Impaired be added under a (5) and (6). It was accepted. Section D was adopted.

The agency reports to Annual Conference 1980 were distributed and this completes the report of the Conference Council on Ministries. Miller expressed his appreciation at the reception of the report.

The Division of Evangelism: Bishop Blackburn presented Jack L. Hunter to present the report. Hunter spoke to the special issues, particularly the significance of the past year, referring to the Proclaim the Word event. (For text of the report of the Division see Section V, Journal 1980.) Hunted asked that John Hobbs and Tommy Tyson be approved as Conference Evangelists as recommended in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980, page 36. It was moved, seconded and done.

Recognition of Chaplains: Bishop Blackburn called for all the chaplains to come to the stage to be recognized. The Bishop presented the various chaplains to the Conference. Col. James P. Rickards assisted the Bishop in presenting the chaplains by institution and name. Corbin Cherry and Wesley Aitken were called upon to make specific comments. The chaplains were received with appreciation and given a round of applause.

Announcement of Results of Ballot for Candidate for the Episcopacy: Mrs. Cade came to announce the results of the vote. Mrs. Cade expressed appreciation and introduced Wallace Kirby who was nominated for support by an overwhelming majority of the Conference.

Benediction: Bishop Blackburn closed the morning session of the Conference by giving the benediction.

Postlude: "Now Thank We All Our God" by Paul Manz was played by Roger Searles.

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Tuesday, June 3, 1980

Following the playing of the prelude, "Allegro and Air" from Water Music Suite by G. F. Handel by David C. Yetter, Minister of Music First Church, Roanoke Rapids, Bishop Blackburn called the afternoon session of the North Carolina Annual Conference to order with the singing of Hymn No. 286, "Lord, I Want to Be a Christian." The prayer of invocation was offered by Robert F. Bundy.

Announcements By Conference Secretary: Secretary Coile received two petitions concerning the J. P. Stevens "boycott" matter to be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and References and reported back to the Conference. A further petition from S. A. Chalk, Jr., of Morehead City was also referred to the Committee on Resolutions and References and these will be returned to the floor after appropriate interval.

Call for the Order of the Day: Bishop Blackburn called for the Order of the Day and called upon Richard W. Pearce to present the report. Before the presentation of the report the Bishop asked for nominations for Conference Lay Leader. Richard Pearce was nominated and elected and then he assumed the podium to present the nominations of members for the Boards, Commissions and Committees of the North Carolina Annual Conference, 1980-1984. (These as amended will appear in Section II of the Journal 1980.) Various typographical changes were made and various nominations were made. The votes were taken with all Boards, Commissions and Committees being elected save the Board of Diaconal Ministries, the Committee on Episcopacy, the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, the Division of Missions, the Board of Pensions, and the Commission on Religion and Race, which have minor changes that must await approval before the close of Conference.

Methodist Ministers Credit Union: Maness Mitchell brought the report of the Credit Union. (For text of the report see Section V of the Journal 1980.)

Call for the Order of the Day: Bishop Blackburn asked that Bill Shermar and Mrs. Blackburn come to the stage to assist in the service of recognition of ministers who are retiring. They were joined by the retirees and their spouses. The following questions were asked: Question 45, "What members in Full Connection have been retired?" Question 46, "What Associate Members have been retired?" Question 47, "Who have been recognized as retired local pastors?" at this session of the Annual Conference. The names were called. Each retiree was recognized. Those who had spouses with them had their children pinned on them by Mrs. Blackburn. Each minister was given an opportunity to make a statement concerning his ministry. These were received with appreciation and applause. Bill Shermar presented certificates to each retiree expressing appreciation for their years of service to The United Methodist Church. At the conclusion of the service of recognition of the retiring ministers Bishop Blackburn called for the Conference to join in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Report of the Board of Pensions: The Bishop presented David O. Speir to present the report and the summation of the current status of the Pension Funding Crusade. (For complete text of the report see Section V of the Journal 1980.) The recommendation in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980 on page 82 along with the report as a whole as revised by the Board was accepted.

Dr. Wallace Kirby made a special presentation of the report of the Pension Funding Crusade. All final questions asked by the Board of Pensions regarding Disability Leave, change in status of claimants, ministers or spouses of new claimants and matters of Pension credit were presented for approval and were also approved by the Conference as a whole.

The Ministers' Retirement Fund Constitution was discussed. Bill Sherman moved an amendment to the last sentences at the top of page 85 in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980 to read: "... because they have reached age 65 (or age 62 on reduced retirement benefits); because they have accrued 40 years of approved service (or 37 years on reduced retirement benefits); or in special situations retired on medical disability." This was adopted by the Conference. Questions were asked of Sherman and Conference Treasurer Charles McAdams regarding the payment of Minister's Retirement Fund monies. These questions were answered satisfactorily.

Harvey Johnson moved an amendment to the Ministers' Retirement Fund specifying that payment should be made "in keeping with Paragraph 434.4, 1976 Discipline, to those with 20 years or more service." The Johnson amendment was lost. This completed the presentation of the report of the Board of Pensions. The Bishop expressed appreciation of Speir for his 4 years of leadership.

The Division of Missions Church of the Year Award: Paul Bunn presented T. M. Faggart to present the awards. Two awards were given, one for rural churches and one for urban churches. Gillburg United Methodist Church of Henderson was lauded as Rural Church of the Year. The pastor and lay leader were presented a plaque and award by Bishop Blackburn. The Urban Church of the Year award went to Page Memorial United Methodist Church in Aberdeen. The pastor and lay leader came to the podium to receive the plaque of recognition. Paul Bunn called upon A. P. Hill to speak to Church Extension and the development of new churches. Hill presented Charles Smith, chairperson of the Committee on Church Extension to give the report. Smith called the ministers and a member of the congregation to stand before the Conference. The new churches are Ashbury, Raleigh; Pine Valley, Jacksonville; North Rocky Mount, Rocky Mount; and Lighthouse, Aberdeen. The Conference accorded the churches a round of applause on their discussion of how they came into existence and Smith lauded the Conference for this time of turning of the tide in extension outreach. He discussed the need for new members of the Ten Dollar Club and urged people to become active and help these new churches get started. The Bishop expressed gratification for his report.

Point of Personal Privilege: A. F. Fisher presented a resolution of commendation to Paul Bunn for his service as chairman of the Division of Missions. Bunn received the plaque with graciousness and was accorded an ovation by the Conference.

The Division of Health and Welfare Ministries: Vassar Jones began the report by presenting the report of The Methodist Retirement Homes Inc. Executive Director W. Don Penly introduced the Administrators Dr. Kimsey King, Rev. LaFon C. Vereen and Mr. Frank Bullock as well as Chaplain Kelly Wilson III. He then gave a brief report about the progress of the existing facilities and presented Marvin Barnes, member of the Board of Trustees, Chairman of its Committee on Finance, to present a recommendation to go ahead with a fourth retirement facility in the Greenville area: "That we recommend the Greenville Community be selected as the site for the next Retirement Home provided they meet the site requirements of land and money and provided the N. C. Conference reaffirm its support for a new home. We recommend that we seek to move forward with construction of a Retirement Home in the Greenville area within the next three years without cost or construction expense to the Conference." (For full text of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., report see Section V of the Journal 1980.) The resolution was moved by Vassar Jones. Mrs. Rachel Guthrie of St. Luke Church, Sanford, questioned the wisdom of considering a matter this big with so few people present in a session. Mr. Barnes explained why there had been so little time to get the literature out. Hazel Bryant, of Ahoskie United Methodist Church, spoke in favor of the proposal and received applause. The proposal was approved without dissent.

Report From the Methodist Home for Children: Mrs. Louise Peterson brought the new Director, the Reverend Edward C. Elliot to bring the report to the Conference. (Text of the address will be found in Section V of the Journal 1980.)

Vassar Jones called up Robert L. Wallace to give a report on the Golden Cross program of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries. He referred to the report in the agency reports to Annual Conference 1980 and briefly explained the program. (For elaboration of his remarks see Section V of the Journal 1980.)

Vassar Jones concluded the report by bringing a summary of the program of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries and speaking on Semar and its work. He then called upon Carson Wiggins to present trustees for election. Wiggins referred to The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980, page 66. The Nominations were put before the Conference. Gage Smith, Lay Delegate from Trinity Church Raleigh, brought a question of adding a trustee to the nominations for the Children's Home. He did not wish to make his motion against any given person already nominated. The procedural problems were discussed by the Conference. Langill Watson moved that nominations for a specific class be made against a specific person and Watson's motion was seconded. Reginald Ponder spoke against the Watson motion. Sam McMillan spoke against it. Bishop Blackburn explained that we were speaking of only the specific nominating committee for trustees. The Watson motion was voted upon and failed. The Bishop ordered that a ballot be prepared to take the vote on the next day. A similar nomination was made for The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., for Mrs. Gladys Bunting. The nominations to be oted upon are Mrs. Helen Williams for the Methodist Home for children and Mrs. Gladys Bunting for the Retirement Home. The nominations were closed. Wiggins moved Items 1, 2, 3 and 4 under J on page 39 of The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980 for the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries. They were seconded and adopted.

Point of Personal Privilege: Reginald Ponder told of Milford Grantham's illness in the hospital in Rockingham, reminding people that he had been a lay member of the Annual conference for 37 years.

Announcements: Conference Secretary Coile made announcements.

Benediction: Bishop Blackburn gave the benediction for the afternoon session.

Postlude: Postlude "Toccata in F Major" by D. Buxtehude was played by the organist of the afternoon, David C. Yetter.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION

Tuesday, June 3, 1980

At 7:25 p.m. the organist for the evening, Dale Caldwell, organist/Choirmaster, Front Street Church, Burlington, played the prelude, "Praise the Lord With Drums and Cymbals" by S. Karg-Elert. The Call to Worship, sung by the Chancel Choir of Front Street Church, Burlington, was "For His Name Alone is Excellent" by John Ness Beck. The Processional Hymn was "Heralds of Christ." The invocation for the sacred Service for the Ordination of Deacons and the consecration of Diaconal Ministers was given by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn.

Bishop Blackburn recognized Mrs. D. K. Fry, Chairperson of the Committee on Episcopacy. Mrs. Fry then recognized Belton Joyner to address members of the Conference and guests concerning their presentation from the Committee on Episcopacy. Belton Joyner presented Kate Cooper, a youth delegate, who pinned a corsage on Mrs. Blackburn. Joyner then recognized Dr. Richard Pearce, who presented to the Blackburns a Book of Memories — letters written from across the Conference to the Blackburns for their remembrances in years to come. Joyner then recognized Mrs. Fry who presented them a gift, saying to Mrs. Blackburn and the Bishop that this was a time of giving, a time of awarding and a time of recognizing. She said this was the time to recognize them with a love gift. Mrs. Blackburn responded. Then the Bishop responded with words of kindness for all the things they had been given — especially the extravagant gift of $15,000.00 — which they would accept knowing they were unworthy of it. The Conference gave the Blackburn's a standing ovation with sustained applause.

Bishop Blackburn then presented the preacher for the evening, Dr. Wallace D. Chappell, pastor of McKendree United Methodist Church, Nashville, Tennessee, nephew of Dr. Clovis Chappell, one of the great preachers of the Methodist tradition. Dr. Chappell's text was from Acts 20:22-28 and his sermon was entitled, "Here's the Steeple, Where's the Church?" In the five points of his sermon he asks first,

"Where is the church in its hour of worship?" — emphasizing what we do in that hour we spend with God. Point 2, "Where is the church in its ministry to the young?" He said this is a strong point of the ministry and that all the work around the program of youth is important. His third point was "Where is the church in its stand on issues?" He discussed that we must take the Christian stand needed on current issues of the church. Point 4 was "Where is the church in its witness to the lost?" He said this is the primary objective of the church — that soul winning may not be the only business, but it is the main business and we had best be about it. Point 5 asks "Where is the church in its vision of eternity?"

The choir sang two anthems, "Praise" by Alec Rowley and "If Thou But Suffer God to Guide Thee" arranged by Jody Lindh.

The service of Ordination of Deacons was conducted by Bishop Blackburn after which he consecrated the Diaconal Ministers. (For names of those ordained and consecrated see Condensed Minutes.)

The service concluded with the Recessional Hymn, "O Jesus, I Have Promised." The benediction was pronounced by Bishop Blackburn. The Choral Response "Go In Peace" by Austin Lovelace was sung by the choir. The organist played as a postlude "Sonata on the First Tone" by Jose Lidon.

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION

Wednesday, June 4, 1980

Communion Service: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated in Hensdale Chapel on the campus of Methodist College at 7:30 a.m. under the direction of the Division of Worship.

Conference Called to Order: Organist for the morning session, William J. Weisser, Diaconal Minister and Director of Music at Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, played the prelude "Two Preludes on American Hymns" (Amazing Grace and Nettleton) arranged by Gilbert Martin. Bishop Robert M. Blackburn called the Conference to order and asked Christian White to bring the morning Devotional. White called for the singing of Hymn No. 185, "More Love to Thee, O Christ." The already filled Reeves Auditorium joined heartily in the singing of this hymn. White took as his text the twenty-second chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, the first forty verses. After reading of the Holy Scripture he then led in prayer and spoke on the theme, "Little Children, Love One Another." Hymn No. 126, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," was sung to conclude the devotional period.

Committee on Conference Minutes: Robert L. Bame moved approval of the Minutes for the proceedings for Monday evening through Tuesday. They were approved.

Courtesies: Reginald Ponder introduced Rev. Mr. Strother, retired member of the Tennessee Conference who was visiting with us and he received a round of applause. Ponder reported that we had received greetings from the South Carolina Conference which was also in session this week. Bishop Blackburn asked that we send greetings in response to the South Carolina Conference. It was moved and adopted by the Conference as a whole

Report of United Methodist Musicians: William J. Weisser presented the report for the Musicians. (For complete text see Section V of the Journal 1980.)

Resumption of the Conference Committee on Nominations: Dr. Richard Pearce explained suggested resolutions for the problem incurred in the nomination of five different agencies yesterday. Pearce moved that the rules for the composition of the Board of Diaconal Ministries be changed. It was seconded and ordered changed, and the changes were made, adding names and making changes.

The Committee on Episcopacy was elected with the exception of the ones who had to be approved by ballot. The Conference approved the action.

The Division of Evangelism: At-large Members — Mr. Bruce Hargrove of Raleigh withdrew his name. Dr. Joseph Bethea nominated Mr. Angelo Troy and it was accepted, thus completing the Division of Evangelism nominations.

The Division of Higher Education was perfected. The Commission on Religion and Race was perfected by the change in a name.

All were approved by the Conference and the slate of nominations was concluded.

Rev. Barney Davidson made a correction, putting Mrs. Frances Byrd to replace Mrs. May Hayman on the Division of Higher Education.

One additional correction to the Division of Health and Welfare was suggested by Carson Wiggins, that the name of Mrs. Betty Roberts not be added, but instead accept another nominee. Dr. Bethea indicated that this would be done.

Election By Ballot: Nominees for the Committee on Episcopacy: Charles Sneed was placed against those whose names were presented in the formal report of nominations for the Committee. J. B. Helms called attention to an apparent error in the list of Conference Committee on Nominations. Superintendent Paul Edwards said that, if there was a mistake, the interim committee would correct it. That satisfied the Helms comment.

Vassar Jones came to the podium and directed our attention on page 66 in The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980. He presented additional names for the Children's Home and Retirement Home trustees. For the Retirement Home: Mrs. Gladys Bunting. For the Children's Home: Mrs. Helen Williams. These are to run against the nine already selected. The ballot was distributed so that Conference might elect nine out of ten. The first ballots were collected as the second ballots were distributed. The ballots for election of trustees for the Retirement and Children's Homes were collected.

Resumption of the Report of the Division on Missions: The Bishop presented Paul Bunn to resume the report. Bunn called upon Charles M. Smith who referred the Conference to page 79 of The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980. Smith moved the Guidelines for Establishing New Congregations within the North Carolina Conference. Reginald Ponder rose to request deletion of Section 8 of the report. It was seconded. Ponder spoke to the motion. He felt that the section limited the new congregation in its attempts to forge ahead with the early construction of a church building. He felt the restrictions were unnecessarily restrictive and infringed on the rights of the District Committees on Church Building and Location. Robert McKenzie asked the committee to give rationale for the paragraph. Smith indicated that Ponder was mistaken in thinking that a church building could not be started within the first two years, but it was considered good stewardship to wait until a congregation was soundly in existence regarding its financial underpinnings and its membership. Malloy Owen asked a question. Charles Sparks spoke in favor of the Ponder amendment to delete Section 8. Al Fische spoke against the proposed deletion. Henry Goodwin of Southport lay delegate, spoke in favor of the Ponder amendment. Bryan Gentile spoke in favor of the Ponder amendment. Bishop Blackburn called upon Ponder to summarize his comments before the vote was taken. The question was called. The Bishop pronounced that the Conference vote. The Ponder motion was lost. Smith proposed changes to the wording in Section 5, a, of the report. William M. Jeffries, Sr. proposed the addition of a Section 11 to the report: "Where the need for a new church is found to exist, the feasibility should be explored of establishing a joint parish with other denominations, and the D. S. the Cabinet and the Board of Missions shall seek ways and means to implement support to make such a united church possible." Thomas Smith spoke against the amendment on the grounds that the intent of it was contained in Section 6. The question was called, the vote taken, and the Jeffries amendment lost.

James Auman rose to ask a question and A. F. Fisher responded. The report was placed before the Conference and adopted as amended.

Paul Bunn resumed the podium and called attention again to The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980, page 36, Item G, Division of Missions. The section, as amended, was adopted. Paul Bunn concluded his report for the Division of Missions by expressing appreciation for the honor accorded him the preceding day and elaborating on the need for the participation in the Advance and the great strides that had been made by the churches in recent years. Bunn elaborated on his report, recognized Conference Missionary secretary Clyde Dunn, and moved the approval of Section E concerning the Church Extension Committee of the Division of Missions, also on page 36. Bunn called attention to the death of Rev. Justus Haruyama and asked that a message of condolence be sent to his widow. (Further remarks will be found in Section V of the Journal, 1980.)

He asked the Conference to experience the sense of urgency in regard to the improvement and upgrading of the Sunday School today. (For expansion of his remarks and complete report see Journal 1980, Section V.) Sections regarding the Division of Education on pages 35 and 36 of The Conference Program and Recommendations 1980 were moved and adopted by the Conference as was the report of the Division as a whole.

The Division of Worship: Robert Pullman brought the report for the Division. He called for all members of the Division to stand and they were accorded a round of applause. Fleming presented the report with enthusiasm and his extended remarks will be found in Section V of the Journal 1980.

Fleming then presented the Rev. S. Collins Kilburn to bring greetings from the North Carolina Council of Churches. Kilburn's report will be found in Section V of the Journal 1980.

Methodist Board of Publication, Inc.: Rev. C. A. Simonton, Jr., Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate was excused from Annual Conference in order to attend his son's graduation out of town. He asked Reginald Ponder to make and file his report as editor. Simonton's report emphasized that we must ever increase the number of subscribers. He felt that we should aim for at least 50,000 subscribers statewide. At the present time we have only a little more than half that number. Ponder asked that each church do its best to try to increase and sustain the subscription list and readership of the Advocate.

Mr. Strother, the Bishop introduced Dr. Chappell for the morning worship hour.

Dr. Chappell brought the morning message on the topic "When The Wine Runs Out," basing this on John 2:3. He said that there comes a time, or will come a time in everyone's life when the wine will run out. It is in times like these when Jesus is foremost. The three points of his sermon were 1) that Jesus had a festive faith; 2) Jesus had a sensitive spirit; and 3) His was a devoted dependence. A very warm wave of applause commended Dr. Chappell on his message.

Bishop Blackburn closed the worship service with the benediction.

Dr. Williams's sermon was entitled "Beyond the Sacred Page," from the hymn, "Break Thou the Bread of Life" by Mary A. Lathburg. He stressed that, while the Bible is our most important book, we do not live within the bible. We live beyond the Sacred Page in three ways: (1) From page to power — we must be empowered by the Holy Spirit to live in the area beyond the Sacred Page. (2) From page to person — we must realize that all persons are important and should never put others down but do all in our power to edify one another. (3) From page to God — Williams said that, while he had been taught as a youngster that God was everywhere, he had realized that sometimes we miss God in His dealing with us. In summarizing his sermon, Dr. Williams encouraged us all to be concerned for one another and know that there will be a great reckoning day.

Mr. Donald Bonner of Cedar Grove Church, Rowland, received the "Layperson of the Year" award from Black Methodists for Church Renewal, Inc. Gibson Gray of Chestnut Street, Lumberton, brought the following resolution:

Whereas some 15,000,000 persons in the United States have hearing impairments and some 4,000,000 persons in the United States wear hearing aids,

Whereas approximately 25 percent of the telephones in the United States are incompatible with the use of the telephone switch of any hearing aid,

Whereas the telephone industry in the United States has embarked upon a program of replacing existing telephone instruments with telephones incompatible with the use of the telephone switch on hearing aids,

Whereas, as a consequence, several millions of persons who utilize the telephone switch on hearing aids will no longer be able, in the near future, to hear over any telephone in this country,

Whereas two companion bills in the Congress, H.R. 5022, now before the House Subcommittee on Communications, and S. 2642, now before the Senate Subcommittee on Communications, would require that all newly manufactured, imported, and installed telephones be compatible with the use of the telephone switch on hearing aids,

Therefore Be It Resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church meeting in June, 1980, Fayetteville, North Carolina, hereby requests that the U.S. Congress enact as soon as possible S. 2642 and H.R. 5022.

In Testimony of This Action, the Conference directs that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the chairman of the House Subcommittee, Hon. Lionel Van Deerlin, 2408 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515 and to the chairman of the Senate Subcommittee, Hon. Ernest F. JAMES DAVID JONES

The Reverend James David Jones was born in Cumberland County, North Carolina on February 26, 1921, and left this earthly pilgrimage to journey onward to the Heavenly Father's house of mansions on July 15, 1979. David was serving as pastor for Sunset Park United Methodist Church of Wilmington at the time of his death. His funeral service was conducted at Sunset Park by The Reverend James Auman with interment at Wilmington National Cemetery. David is survived by his wife Mrs. Christine Jobe Jones, a son Robert T. Jones; three daughters Miss Carol Denise Jones, Mrs. Betty R. Walker and Mrs. Frances R. Monroe, his mother Mrs. Carrie Jones; and a sister Mrs. Margaret Dunham.

David received his formal education at Louisburg Junior College, Pembroke State University, and the Approved Pastors School at Duke University. It was while he was attending school at Duke University that David knew that he had been truly called to the ministry. David reflected on this and described the experience thusly, 'A light appeared to me and said, 'David you are my servant.' A feeling of love, joy and peace came over me." It can truly be said that it was at this time that a life as God's servant began. David, after finishing the Approved Pastors School of Duke University was ordained Elder of the North Carolina Conference in June 1965. As an ordained minister of the church he served the following churches: Faymont, Trinity-St. Paul, Sandhill Circuit, St. John-Gibson, Cokesbury at Stedman, and Sunset Park, during his 21 years of service.

David was a dedicated disciple of God. This total dedication was reflected not only in the churches he served and the physical improvements he made on the church properties where he was assigned by the conference, but also in the organizations in which he took part. He served as Secretary of History and Archives for our Conference for several years. He was a Lt. Col. in the Civil Air Patrol where he served as Chaplain for the North Carolina Wing. Every Saturday and Sunday morning he would broadcast a devotional message to people over the Eastern United States. Because of his dedication in this area, he received the National Chaplain's Award for the Middle East Region of the Civil Air Patrol in 1975 and 1976. David was also a member of Masonic Lodge #305 AM & FM in Laurinburg, N.C. and a member of the Shrine at the Oasis Temple in Charlotte,

North Carolina. In addition to these contributions and accomplishments David was an accomplished writer, painter, and a lover of history, all of which he did to the honor and glory of God. Samples of his paintings can be seen in the signs he painted for churches he served, pictures he did, while samples of his writing ability are seen in his pamphlet, "A Portrait of Jesus" and his poem, "Alone? No!".

The accomplishments of a man are but the barest outlines of the man himself. One gets still a better picture of the man as they look back on the day to day activities that led up to the awards received and the assignments given to him during his life. But still, these bespeak of only a part of his life. The private man, the family man, that is where as Shakespeare wrote in Julius Ceasar, " . . . The good that men do is often interred in their bones . . .", not so with David Jones. David was truly a man for all seasons with "malice toward none and charity for all". He moved gently from one person to another among his flock, serving each in his own special way, helping each to see the needs in their life for God's help and infinite goodness. David accomplished this by helping each person look inside themselves with their mind's eye.

David, like the fine woods he sculptured and carved in his wood-working shop, so he did to the lives of those he touched in his ministry winning their souls to Christ. David more than once said, "That when you get involved with God and his work then you are going to get a little hurt sometimes, but at those times you must persevere and do what you know is right."

David, the man will be missed, but the legacy he left behind in the charges he undertook for the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church will be a continuing yard stick of excellence that those who followed where he so quietly and yet effectively led may measure their own efforts and effectiveness building upon the foundation that he, by God's help so carefully and strongly built.

David did not enter this world alone, nor did he leave it, his family nor his friends alone, as he wrote in his poem, "Alone? No!":

"Alone? No, for God was there and we walked hand in hand it seemed, along the sandy beach. And lost in thought I talked with God."

We are grateful that we had an opportunity to know him here and call him friend, and Dad — for he left this world a bit better place than which he found it.

PLINY FOSTER NEWTON

The Reverend Pliny Foster Newton, son of Thomas J. and Marilda Ann Newton, was born December 20, 1897 in Dale County, Alabama. God smiled greatly on Pliny's family, for he was one of five brothers who answered the call to become a good minister of Jesus Christ in The Methodist Church. Dr. O.B. Newton served in the Virginia Annual Conference, the Reverend R.Z. Newton in the North Carolina Annual Conference, and Dr. Coy B. Newton in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. The Reverend John Carl Newton died while attending College.

Pliny graduated from Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky, taught public school for three years, and in 1925 became a pastor in the Saint Louis, Missouri Annual Conference. He entered the Duke University Divinity School in 1932, graduated from there in 1935, and that same year transferred to the North Carolina Annual Conference, where he was a member until his death on July 20, 1979. He served the following Charges in this Conference: Walstonburg (as a student), Kenly, Rich Square, Enfield, Whiteville, Weldon, and West Burlington. He officially retired in 1963. However, so strong was his commitment to serve his Lord that he served as a retired supply pastor of Rock Creek Church for four years and Lebanon Church for seven years.

Pliny was married to Vivian Case Dale of Farmville, N.C., in 1936. They lived and labored together happily and fruitfully in our Lord's ministry until Vivian's death on November 4, 1974. They were not blessed with children.

On August 3, 1975, Pliny was married to Ethel McAdams, a member of the West Burlington United Methodist Church. They enjoyed a happy and meaningful life together in their home in Graham for a period of almost four years.

Pliny continued a very active life in Christian service until necessity required the amputation of one of his legs. Although this was a traumatic experience, through faith in God and the aid of his many friends, especially his wife Ethel, he did recover sufficient strength to preach a few times, to teach Sunday School classes, and lead prayer services. His wife Ethel writes of the last days of his life: "One thing he could do that stands out in my memory is that during the time he was confused, he could always pray with a clear mind. He was never confused in that. He wanted to speak one more time. I invited a group

(any one who would come) to our home for prayer meeting. He made his talk from his hospital bed in our home. I had to stop him. He was getting so weak. That was the last message he preached." The Doxology, which he would break out into singing during his illness, was the last song he sang. During the entire time of his sickness, which often included acute pain, his wife supported him with deep affection and heroic fidelity. She elected to nurse and care for him in their home, carrying him to a hospital only when necessity required.

Pliny died in his home in Graham on July 20, 1979. He and his dear wife had planned his funeral service together, sharing these plans with the pastor of West Burlington United Methodist Church, Reverend R.S. Brodie, and with me. Pliny had requested that his funeral be a triumphant one, as he was assured that his death was a going home to his Heavenly Father. Service was conducted at the West Burlington Church, with the pastor presiding and with the assistance of Reverend B.L. Davidson, Burlington District Superintendent, and by the writer of this memoir. Burial was in the Rock Creek United Methodist Church cemetery. Pliny is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ethel Newton and by one sister, Mrs. Carson Foreman, Midland City, Alabama, and by a host of friends.

It was my privilege to know Pliny from the time he entered the Duke University Divinity School in the fall of 1932. We became bosom friends. Pliny was a good preacher of the Good News of Christ, a servant of God with a genuine pastor's heart, and a deeply committed disciple of Jesus our Lord. His achievements as preacher, pastor, musician, administrator, and church builder (the two church buildings in Whiteville and Weldon were constructed under his leadership) represent services of a fruitful and lasting kind. His works do follow him. All who knew him loved him. Multitudes bless him for his long, beneficial ministry.

HIRAM EARLE MYERS

Hiram Earle Myers, Professor Emeritus of Biblical Literature, Duke University, Chairman of its Department of Undergraduate Religion for thirty years, and Elder of the United Methodist Church died on October 6, 1979, in Durham, N.C. in the ninetieth year of his age. Born on a farm in Anson County near the town of Wadesboro, N.C. on July 29, 1889, he was the son of George Franklin and Nora Florence (Braswell) Myers. In 1901 he became a member of the Methodist Church at that place. While a student in Jonesboro High School, then at the age of eighteen, he was licensed to preach by the district conference of the Methodist Church at its session held in Dunn. He enrolled in Trinity College in 1911 and graduated Phi Beta Kappa four years later. His theological education was undertaken at Boston University School of Theology (S.T.B. 1920 and S.T.M. 1925) with additional studies at Chicago, Episcopal Theological Seminary, and Harvard. He was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Elon College in 1950.

As a loyal and devoted Methodist, he was fully ordained into the ministry of the church in 1918 and served a number of churches during a successful pastorate: Graham, N.C., 1915-17; Trinity, Manchester, N.H., 1917-20; South Main, Salisbury, N.C., 1920; City Road, Elizabeth City, N.C., 1920-23; and Duke Memorial, Durham, N.C., 1923-25, from which church, in 1926, he was called to become a member of the faculty of Trinity College, now Duke University. On October 12, 1926 he married Rose Mae Warren of Durham. On the occasion of her death on July 30, 1970, he wrote the loving memorial tribute published in the Journal (1971). When Professor Myers died, James H. Phillips, a friend and colleague, wrote to his daughter, Martha Rose (Myers) Anderson, that her mother and daddy had shared life "as an oratorio of praise and devotion."

As a member of the staff of Duke Divinity School connected with the departments of homiletics and New Testament, Director of Graduate Studies, and as Chairman of the Department of Undergraduate Religion, Professor Myers rendered inestimable service to the University. His administrative oversight and direction of the Department of Religion was particularly noteworthy. A colleague of those early days has remarked with candor, "What I remember best is his strong predilection for order, peace and concord - in a department where the odds were all against any of that. We were a maverick lot . . . He presided over our motley crew with dignity, and with a sort of inner serenity that I understand better now than I did then . . . And, as we move into the age when academic administrators become more and more like their matching numbers in the business world, I'm pleased to have had my start in Academia under a man for whom 'courtesy' and 'fair play' were lived-out virtues."

In the academic sphere, he was an associate member of the American School of Oriental Research, a member of the American Association of University Professors, the National Association of Biblical Instructors, and the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis. He took an active part and held high office in one or more of these. None of these distinctions, however, adequately define his essential role. Another faculty colleague comments with keen perception, "He was perhaps, after all, the Preacher and about his Father's business . . . Two things stand out in my recollection-his distinguished presence and manner in ecclesiastical settings, his splendid command in reading the Scripture, the authenticity of his public prayers, and the quiet self-possession but with grace to communicate condolence when he presided at funerals of friends or colleagues . . . H.E. Myers was a wholly devoted, wholly honorable, reserved, but good man and of uncommon self-possession in fulfillment of his first calling-the pastorate." A review of University Records confirms this impression. More than any other person he was the presiding minister of the University Chapel Service of Worship over its initial decade. The Chapel Register which records over ninety weddings and more than twenty infant baptisms he performed attests the value of his role as trusted friend and counselor of many students.

It would be almost impossible to evaluate accurately the influence which he exerted upon the life of the Methodist Church and its members. He represented this conference as a delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 1940 and the Seventh Ecumenical Conference in 1949. For nearly thirty years he was in charge of one of the most important phases of church and conference work, that of looking after the candidates for the ministry and striving to set a high standard for them and seeing to it that they lived up to that standard. For many years he was chairman of one of more of the most important committees dealing with that work. He served as Chairman of the Committee on Admissions, the Committee on Ministerial Training, and the Committee on Ministerial Efficiency. He also served his church in less prominent and more limited ways such as preaching, teaching in training schools and Sunday Schools and helping in other capacities. On May 1, 1977, the H.E. Spence Class of the Duke Memorial United Methodist Church in Durham celebrated a special day, designated "H.E. Myers Sunday" to "offer thanks to God for the faithful ministries of Dr. Hiram Earle Myers, teacher of the class, 1926-1930; counselor of other teachers; friend of all members for more than forty years; and effective witness to the abiding reality of the life of faith." Retirement from the University Faculty in 1958 allowed a redefinition of his ministry. For a period he was interim pastor of Brooksdale Methodist Church in Person County and the Oxford Methodist Church. One associate writes, "I honor him for his habitual pastoral calling upon the sick and the aged. Up to the very late years he was a regular visitor to aged persons at the Methodist Retirement Home. I do not know how frequently I would notice his visitations on Sunday afternoons. At heart and spirit he was a pastor of souls."

To some of his colleagues H.E. Myers was a reserved, "private" man. Others who knew him best found him ever so approachable and understanding. Writes one, "I would describe him as one who was modest and gentle in spirit, but strong and firm in character, and sincere in Christian witness." Another friend, a long-time Duke administrator, described Professor Myers as "a gentle, quiet, clam and sweet spirited man. He was to me a gentleman of the old school. He was a family man first and always. He shared in all things that happened to his family as if it happened to him . . . Professor Myers was fortunate that he found pathways and relationships that enabled him to use his talents and special qualifications to the fullest and to the greatest good for the Church, education and society."

On October 9, 1979 a Service of Worship and Praise and Thanksgiving for the life of H.E. Myers was conducted by The Reverend Edward F. Smith in the Duke Memorial Methodist Church in Durham. Interment was in Maplewood Cemetery, Annex B. Surviving Dr. Myers are his daughter, Mrs. Martha Rose Anderson of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and a granddaughter, Miss Martha Christina Anderson. More complete biographical data are available in the Duke University Archives and in "A Series of Sketches of Durham and Her Citizens," written by Wyatt T. Dixon, published in the Durham Sun, October 27, 1972.

DANIEL MONROE SHARPE

I'll praise my Maker while I've breath:
And when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler powers:
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and though, being last,
Or immortality endures.

(Isaac Watts, 1674-1748)

The Reverend Daniel Monroe Sharpe, a Retired Methodist Minister, of 1004 Urban Avenue, Durham, North Carolina, died on Monday morning, December 3, 1979 at his home.

Mr. Sharpe was born in Alamance County, North Carolina, on November 27, 1884. He had just celebrated his 95th birthday.

He attended the Alamance County public schools, and, graduated from the Asheboro High School, Asheboro, North Carolina. Following High School, Mr. Sharpe worked briefly at several jobs, but in 1909 he entered the U.S. Postal Service as a Rural Carrier. He continued in this position for ten years.

Until this time, Daniel Monroe Sharpe worked diligently as a devoted Christian layman entering enthusiastically into every phase of the church's life. It was during this period that he began to feel a sense of vocation to the pastoral ministry. He responded positively to this call, and accordingly entered old Trinity College in the Fall of 1919 to train for the Methodist Ministry. He earned the B.A. degree in 1923 and went on to the M.A. degree in 1925.

While still a student, Daniel Monroe Sharpe was admitted as a Probationer to the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. He later transferred to the North Carolina Annual Conference where he served his entire ministry.

This notable ministry involved the following appointments: Pearl Mill-Eno-Palmer's Grove (Durham District); Gregson, Durham; Edgerton Memorial, Selma; Rosemary, Roanoke Rapids; First Church, Morehead City; Hertford; Mount Gilead; Trinity, Raleigh; Nashville; Roseboro; Creedmoor, and Haw River.

Following these appointments, Mr. Sharpe retired in 1953 and moved to his home in Durham. But he was called out of retirement to serve the church and was assigned the task of creating a new congregation, today's Epworth in the Hope Valley section of Durham. Beginning with only a vacant lot and conference permission, he built a strong congregation which is Methodism's stronghold in Durham.

After Epworth, he served the St. John Church in Durham, and then returned to Palmer's Grove to close his ministry in the very place he began it.

In retrospect this minister and ministry calls for a critical evaluation. But who can make it? Some critic has said: "The minister is to be a real man, a live man, a true man, a simple man, great in his love, in his life, in his work, in his simplicity, in his gentleness." Surely, these dimensions apply to Daniel Monroe Sharpe, the man and the minister.

Daniel Monroe Sharpe's success story certainly includes the role of his faithful family. In January of 1908 he was married to Miss Ella Lydia Hendricks of Asheboro, North Carolina. They became the parents of two children — a daughter, Frances (Mrs. Vergil E. Queen of Durham), and a son, Daniel Monroe Sharpe, Jr., of Raleigh, North Carolina. He is also survived by two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Daniel Monroe Sharpe carried on the arduous responsibility of full-time college studies while caring for a growing family. Ella Hendricks was a quiet heroine in sharing this heavy responsibility. She died in January of 1965 after 57 years of marriage.

A long companionship interrupted by Ella Sharpe's death left Mr. Sharpe with a loneliness he did not share with many. This seemed to be a time for new beginnings; so, in 1967 he remarried — this second marriage was to Mrs. Margaret Davis Chandler of High Point, North Carolina. This proved to be a happy venture for both parties.

Both credit and recognition must be given to Margaret Chandler Sharpe for her role in this story. She gave up her home in High Point and moved to Durham into the Sharpe home. She was a faithful helper and companion. She made many friends in Durham, especially in the Epworth United Methodist Church. Active in all the church's work, she gave loyal support to the project dearest to her husband's heart. This support is attested in her sharing in the establishment of the Sharpe Scholarship Fund through the Epworth Church. She survives her husband's death.

This faithful servant of Jesus Christ served 34 years in the travelling ministry before retiring, and, 13 years as a Retired Supply Pastor — 47 years in all.

Any adequate summation of this good man's life and work would call for more than this space. His death was a triumph of faith, and his influence will surely survive in the many lives he touched and blessed. Speaking of his own ministry, Mr. Sharpe once said modestly, "My greatest satisfaction in life has been seeing many come into the church and develop their spiritual life there."

Funeral services were conducted from the Epworth United Methodist Church, Durham, North Carolina, on Wednesday morning, December 5, 1979. The Pastor, the Reverend William D. Sabiston, III was in charge. Dr. Charles H. Mercer, District Superintendent of the Durham District, gave the tribute, and the Reverend F. Owen Fitzgerald, Minister of the Hayes-Barton United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, participated in the grave-side rites.

The interment was in the Raleigh Memorial Park, Raleigh, North Carolina.

O Lord, we most humbly beseech Thee to give us grace not only to be hearers of the Word, but also doers of the same; not only to love, but also to live Thy gospel; not only to profess, but also to practice Thy blessed commandments, unto the honor of Thy holy name. Amen.

"Solid as the rock of Gibraltar" was said in praise of financial dependability years ago. David Milton Lewis is well described by this memorable phrase. Both his friends and his Lord could depend upon his faithfulness.

Several things he loved passionately: his family, a few choice acres of land in Perquimans County, his Democratic Party, and his Lord. With humor and enthusiasm he was constantly ready to boast of each, not necessarily in the order listed.

He was proud of the Lewis family which he wanted remembered in a significant manner by establishing the Lewis-Smith Scholarship at North Carolina Wesleyan College. His particular source of pride was in two fine sons, David M. Lewis, Jr. of Charlotte and Samuel F. Lewis of Rockingham. He always had time to boast with sly humor and justifiable pride, of their latest accomplishments to friends in whom he confided.

He loved the acres he trod behind a mule as a boy, and he looked forward to retirement on the "rich soil of Perquimans County." He was not in any hurry to retire for no one loved the work to which God called him more than David Lewis.

He was a devoted Democrat, and loved to chide the uncommitted or the so-called Independent voter, with the words of our Lord on the sa of Galilee, "Unless we stay in the ship, we shall all perish," and urged all to remain in the ship of state called the Democratic party. As much as he loved all of these, his greatest love was reserved for the Lord who saved a farm boy, inspired his laborious years of study, and granted authority to "preach the Word". His love for The Methodist Church and the Christ it affirms was the highlight of his life and ministry.

He sought to emulate his Master by loving all creatures and I never knew a person or a living being he did not love. He found the delight of St. Francis of Assisi in feeding the birds, squirrels, and chipmunks. He lived this so effectively that his son requested the words, "Service through Love" be carved on his epitaph.

David Milton Lewis was born December 26, 1911 in Hertford, North Carolina. He was reared in the shadow of Oak Grove United Methodist Church. He completed his education in the public schools of Perquimans County. He then enrolled in Atlantic Christian College and was graduated in 1938.

Loyal to the core, he volunteered for service in the United States Navy and served for 3 years, 4 months and 22 days, taking pride in each day of service he counted. He then entered, and was graduated from, Asbury Theological Seminary of Wilmore, Kentucky, in the Spring of 1948, and joined the North Carolina Annual Conference that same year.

He was admitted to the Conference in Greenville in October, 1948, and was ordained an elder in October 1949. In 1948 he was appointed to serve Aulander Methodist Church. He then served at Swan Quarter until 1954, the Stonewall Charge until 1958, the Atlantic Circuit until 1960; the Hubert Charge until 1965. He served the Asbury-Pineview Charge near Lumberton, Glenwood Methodist Church of Rockingham, and Fairview Methodist near Burlington. In 1972 he returned to his home district to serve the Currituck Circuit, went to Zion Methodist Charge in Chatham County in 1974, and anticipated serving until his retirement at the Troy Circuit.

He suffered an aneurism on Sunday morning, December 16, 1979, and after intensive surgery he was transferred to the hospital in Winston-Salem where he succumbed to the Lord's ultimate call Sunday, December 30, 1979.

His funeral was held at Oak Grove United Methodist Church in Perquimans County and he was buried in the oak shaded cemetery of the churchyard. Services were led by the Reverends Virgil L. Free and Arthur Wall of his home county.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Maude Winslow Lewis, two sons, by Mrs. Doris Lewis Kemp and Mrs. Ruth Robbins, sisters, and Almadge and Carl W. Lewis, his brothers, all of Hertford.

He placed strong emphasis on evangelism and Christian education. Some of us who shared revival services with him knew he was happiest when God's word was enthusiastically and effectively proclaimed.

His interest in Christian education did not cease with his own or that of his sons, but will be perpetuated through the Lewis-Smith Scholarship which he initiated. He requested that first priority be given to youth preparing for Christian ministry in the United Methodist Church.

Special treasured events included the groundbreaking and construction of the new Queen's Creek United Methodist Church beginning February 5, 1952; the Centennial Celebration of Stonewall United Methodist Church on August 29, 1957; and the dedication of a new educational building for Sharon United Methodist Church on the Currituck Charge on May 14, 1974, and the dedication of the First United Methodist in Troy.

David was loved by his members and friends as he richly loved them. He will be missed, but long remembered by the many friends he accumulated through his years of active ministry.

With Helen Steiner Rice we might say of David Milton Lewis,
"So rest and relax and grow stronger,
Let go and let God share your load,
Your work is not finished or ended,
You've just come to a bend in the road."

1916-1980

George Alson Davis was born into a Methodist family in the Phillips Chapel community of Alamance County June 21, 1916 and went to his eternal home March 15, 1980.

He was the son of the late George Craven Davis and Mamie Riley Davis and the third of six children.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Register Davis of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Frances Johnson and Mrs. Jayne Carlyle; two sons, Kenneth Alson Davis and David Michael Davis; three sisters, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Shore and Mrs. Harry E. Thomason; one brother, William Homer Davis and eight grandchildren.

As a child George was trained in a Christian home where there were family devotions. His parents took him to Sunday School and church regularly. Phillips Chapel Methodist Church was the first church that nurtured his faith. George often spoke of the experience he felt as a young lad when he made his profession of faith in Christ and joined the church. He said even at that tender age he felt that God had laid a claim on his life. He had been preaching several years before he was told by his father that his mother had dedicated him to the Lord for a minister. The mother of the family had passed away in 1931.

George often said he was never more sure of anything than he was of his calling to the ministry. He recently mentioned in a sermon that he never allowed the Devil for one minute to cause him to doubt his calling to preach the Gospel.

Preaching came natural for George, he preached to his brothers and sisters as a little boy while they worked on the farm. He was good at imitating the preacher he had heard the Sunday before at church. He could relate most of the sermon the following week.

It was in later years that George entered the ministry. He was married and had two children when God renewed the call. At this time he felt compelled to prepare himself to become a minister. He left his employment and moved his family to Greenville, South Carolina and entered Holmes Bible College where he studied for five years and graduated in 1950. During this time he served small rural churches and worked for a dry cleaner to pay for his education and support his family. Elizabeth shared gladly and faithfully in the ministry with her husband and enrolled in Holmes Bible College to improve her own life as a minister's wife.

In 1956 George joined the North Carolina Conference. He felt the need for more education and enrolled in Louisburg College where he graduated in 1960. He then attended Duke University.

George loved the Bible and read it daily; he was a scriptural preacher and of the evangelistic type. He was one among few who could preach a good scriptural sermon without notes. He had a good knowledge of both the Old and the New Testament and drew heavily from both to illustrate a point in his sermons.

He was a person who could keep going when the going was rough and endure hardships with a sense of purpose.

His love and concern for people won for him a wide circle of friends. George was a person who lived life to the fullest and was a real inspiration to all who knew him. His cheerful attitude and words of whist made a bright spot in the day for those he came in contact with.

George made it a practice to start his day with Bible reading and prayer. He often challenged his congregation to start every day with God. He lived with a song of praise on his lips. Recently when the writer visited with him, he mentioned that he was committing the 8th Psalm to memory.

George loved his work as a minister and tried to do his best where ever he was sent. After joining the North Carolina Conference he served the following churches: Wayne Circuit,, 1956; Bladen Circuit, 1958; Calendonia Circuit, 1963; Central — Johns, 1965; Glendon, 1966; Friendship, 1968 and Phillips Chapel, 1976 to 1980.

During his ministry of five years on the Bladen Circuit, George led his congregation in the building of a beautiful new parsonage.

Several goals were reached during his ministry at Phillips Chapel United Methodist Church. The church membership was increased, land was purchased for both the church and cemetery, the sanctuary was painted, storm windows were installed on the sanctuary and Sunday School rooms, a new heating and air conditioning unit was installed, and a picnic shelter on the church grounds is under construction. The picnic shelter was in the idea of the pastor. To see a need was to act and apply himself to the task of getting it done.

George delivered his final sermon December 2, 1979 at the 11 o'clock worship service. He preached with as much enthusiasm as he did in his early ministry. Again at 7:30 p.m. he taught the regular Bible Study on the Book of Acts. He surprised some of his church members with his ability to teach the scripture.

On Wednesday morning December 5, 1979 he suffered his second major heart attack and stayed in Alamance County Hospital for twenty-one days and returned home December 26. He seemed to be making progress everyday and had started visiting among the church members. He had visited a member in the hospital who was facing surgery and had prayer with him.

On Saturday morning, March 15, 1980 he suffered another heart attack that proved to be fatal. I think one of his greatest desires when his years of service were ended was to depart this life and go to meet the Christ he had given his life to represent. He often said he did not mind dying when his time came.

The funeral service was held Monday, March 17 at 3:00 p.m. in the Phillips Chapel United Methodist Church by the Reverends Barney L. Davidson, Burlington District Superintendent; W. Hoyt Cheek and Jeff W. Davis. The church was filled and every available seat was taken in the Sunday School rooms. The P.A. system was set up to accommodate those who could not be seated in the sanctuary.

Internment was in the Phillips Chapel United Methodist Cemetery where the officiating ministers were the Reverend Barney L. Davidson and Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, who committed him to God's eternal care.

WORTH BAGLEY COTTON

Worth Bagley Cotton was born in Red Springs, North Carolina, on December 20, 1910, the youngest of six children of the Reverend and Mrs. S. A. Cotton. He spent his childhood in Methodist parsonages in North Carolina, the recipient of a disciplined, Christian up-bringing. Early in his life he felt the call of God to the Christian ministry.

He was graduated from Rutherford College and attended Wofford College, before graduating from Duke University. He did his graduate work at Duke Divinity School, while working as a student pastor on the Oxford circuit.

He was admitted into the North Carolina Methodist Conference in 1936, and served the following pastorates: West End, Garland, Newton Grove, Mount Hermon Circuit, Parkton, Rose Hill, Snow Hill, Richlands, Longview (Raleigh), Trinity (Troy), Wesley Memorial (Wilmington), Ahoskie, and Wesley Heights (Fayetteville). While he was serving Wesley Memorial, the church undertook a large building program, the construction of a new Educational building.

Worth retired in 1974 to Mount Gilead, North Carolina, where he lived the remainder of his life.

In 1935 Worth married Alice VonCanon of West End. To their union were born five children: Worth B. Cotton, Jr., of Greensboro, Margaret Cotton Harriss, of Fayetteville, Solon F. Cotton, of Unionville, David Lee Cotton, of Mount Gilead, and Paul F. Cotton of Fayetteville. He is survived by all of these family members as well as a brother, Joe G. Cotton, of Danville, Virginia, and ten grandchildren.

Presenting the facts of his life and ministry say little of the person. Those who knew him well knew a stern but loving man, with a grand sense of humor. He regarded honor, truth, and personal integrity as important attributes of a Christian, and felt that those who claimed to be Christian and did not show integrity in their personal dealings hurt the cause of Christ and His Kingdom.

He had a great love of and reverence for God's natural world. He saw beauty everywhere and was fascinated by animal life and growing things. He had an even greater love of people, and was interested in the spiritual, mental and physical growth of those around him.

This love of people flowed over into his love of small town life. There he could get to know people better, sharing in their lives and bringing Christ's reconciling love into others' everyday experiences.

In his "Final Testimony" he wrote, "It has been good to have been involved in a vital way with Christ's church and its mission. Through that involvement, I have been strengthened, at times disciplined, but thoroughly happy. It has been my privilege to have known the best people in each community in which I have served. This fellowship in Christian service has made a large contribution to the happiness I have known."

He was a loving husband and father, able and willing to show affection, while setting high standards of character for his family. For him "the law" was no measure of righteousness, and the only acceptable standard was Jesus Christ. This deep faith sustained him in life's difficult experiences, and he wrote of them, "Some of these experiences were heart breaking, but only because I could not know God's immediate plan for me. Sometimes the experiences we call 'chance' experiences have the finger marks of a provident God upon them to those who have eyes to see."

Worth Cotton passed through the doors of eternal life April 7, 1980, from his home in Mount Gilead. Funeral services were conducted April 9 at First United Methodist Church, Mount Gilead, by Reverend Arthur Winstead and Dr. Clyde McCarver. Burial was at Sharon Cemetery, Mount Gilead.

His many friends can join with his family in saying, "Thanks be to God for his life!"

JOHN ARMSTRONG RUSSELL
1888-1980

The home of Jacob Harris Russell and Eliza Ellen Beaman of Montgomery County, North Carolina, was made glad by the birth of a baby boy on July 21, 1888, the fourth child of the family, whom they named John Armstrong. When he was twelve, his father died, but he remembered hearing him read the Bible at Shiloh Church. John said, "He would have made a good preacher".

After grammar school at Shiloh, John spent his teen years and early twenties in a variety of schools: Ether Boarding School, Why Not Academy, Trinity Park School in Durham, and, finally, Rutherford College, where he was a classmate of Ed Earnhardt. He worked his way through; sometimes cutting wood, but always waiting on tables. Later he completed the Conference course of Study.

1914 was a year of destiny: on September 9, down near Norman, a Methodist Protestant preacher, The Reverend J. H. Stowe, united him in holy wedlock to Leslie Graham "Polly", as he affectionately named her. On their wedding day they rode the train up through Candor and Biscoe to honeymoon at the hotel in Star. That evening they walked to a local church to attend a revival service. They embarked on a lifetime of devotion and love.

When the fall had fully come, they traveled to Washington, North Carolina, where John became a member-on-trial in the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Thus began a romance with the itinerant ministry which took them over the Conference and to every type of ministry.

1914	Chowan Circuit	3 years
1917	Brooksdale	4 years
1921	Four Oaks	2 years
1923	Snow Hill	5 years
1928	Carr-Durham	5 years
1933	Divine Street - Dunn	4 years
1937	First Church - Hamlet	2 years
1939	New Bern District	6 years
1945	Grace - Wilmington	6 years
1951	Centenary - New Bern	6 years

This long record covered forty-three fruitful years. Everywhere John went he built something: a Church, an Education Building, or a parsonage. Where he did not build, he paid off the debt where someone else had built.

John served a quadrennium as Chairman of the Board of Ministerial Training on various committees of the Conference. He was host to the Annual Conference. After retirement, he continued to attend the sessions. There is a minute in the 1979 Journal which reads: "Bishop Blackburn recognized Dr. John Russell, ninety-one years of age, who has a long record of attendance at Annual Conference". That long record covered sixty-six years - missing one year because of illness.

"Miss Polly" survives, and two daughters, Miriam Lane Russell of Troy and Mildred Russell Smith of Raleigh; a granddaughter, Miriam Elizabeth Jicha of Chapel Hill, and two great grandsons, Gregory Russell and Karl Armstrong Jicha.

John Russell's shadow has fallen like a blanket of blessing across the length and breadth of our Conference: from Richmond County up to Person, from the Chowan River toward the Cape Fear, from the Atlantic Ocean up to where the Uwharrie Mountains stick their stubby fingers toward the heavens. How do you look at a man whose ministry looms large, covering both half of a state and half of a century?

In the fall of 1943, when the Annual Conference met in Rocky Mount, a middle-aged man from another denomination applied for membership. He was turned down by the Board because of his lack of a formal education. When John Russell heard of it, he went before the Board and asked for reconsideration. He said he had known the applicant twenty years and described how effective his ministry had been. The Board reversed itself and the applicant came into the ministry of the North Carolina Conference, bringing with him six sons, who later became Methodist ministers.

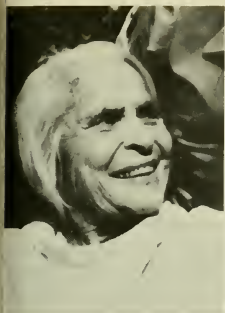

In 1957 John retired, and he and Miss Polly returned to the farm where his early years were spent. He had come home to spend the remainder of his life in Shiloh Community. A short time ago John sat with a friend in the grove where the family is buried, on land deeded a hundred and fifty years ago. He pointed out where the school once stood. Inside the sanctuary he indicated the place where he knelt with the pastor in prayer. When he rose the pastor told him to come back next morning prepared to preach. The first and last sermons of John Russell were preached at Shiloh. "The Lord revealed himself to Samuel at Shiloh", and so the Lord revealed himself to John at Shiloh.

John died on April 19, 1980. Two days later, on a lovely April morning, the family came to Shiloh for the internment of the body of the old veteran who had finished his course in faith. A Memorial Service was held that afternoon, April 23, at Trinity Church in Troy, by three of his brethren: Clyde McCarver, Langill Watson, and Vernon Tyson.

A poet once wrote:

"None knew him but to love him;
None named him but to praise."

Mrs. Lela Locklear Smith, a cheerful lady known to her friends and neighbors as "Mrs. Lela", loved her God, her family, her church and her fellowman. She dedicated a lifetime to loving service as a wife, mother and grandmother, a caring neighbor, and as a faithful laborer in her church and in the churches served by her preacher husband.

Born November 11, 1893, near Lumberton, NC, she was reared by an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Locklear. Though poor in worldly possessions, they provided her a home filled with love. They were devout members of a Baptist church where she attended regularly, growing in knowledge and understanding and experiencing conversion during her early teens.

Some years later she met James Walter Smith, a young Christian student on vacation from the Methodist Institute at Athens, Tennessee. Upon completion of his studies, they were married in her home in Lumberton on December 23, 1914, and moved to the Ashpole Center community near Rowland, NC, where her husband began his teaching career of thirty-nine years. Mrs. Smith re-entered school as one of her husband's students. The next ten years they spent at schools in the rural communities of Magnolia, Wakulla, and Prospect, moving to Pembroke in December of 1925 when her husband was invited to teach at the Indian Normal School.

Mrs. Lela's Christian service had expanded the month before when her husband was licensed as an Approved Supply Pastor by the Blue Ridge Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Church. Their first pastorate sent them back to Ashpole Center. She accepted the challenge to serve God as co-worker and helpmate, feeling her greatest obligation was to keep the home and family so that neither would hinder her husband from answering every call to duty. A hard task, but one Mrs. Lela came as near to reaching as any human could. An efficient, industrious homemaker, she first supplemented the family income as a governess, then stretched it by gardening and canning, and by sewing and remodeling "hand-me-down" clothes, habits which were to see her through twenty-four years of widowhood.

A charter member of the First Methodist Church of Pembroke, Mrs. Lela was a member of the Women's Missionary Society, Chairman of the Commission on Missions and a member of the Official Board. She was instrumental in setting up the nursery and establishing a mission in West Lumberton, now the Branch Street Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lela's neighborliness was a trademark, and her interest in homemaking and education kept her in touch with the Pembroke community on many levels. She took extension courses at the college, served as president of the elementary school PTA, joined the Tuesday Club (a community service organization) and was active in the VFW Auxiliary. So intense was her thirst for knowledge and service, she became a certified Laubach teacher at age sixty. Her proudest moment was seeing the last of six children and their spouses with college degrees.

Widowed in November of 1955, Mrs. Lela continued her ministry to the sick and the needy of the community and to the churches they had served for thirty years. As the Reverend Robert Mangum, her pastor, co-worker and close friend, said in the eulogy, "Mrs. Lela was constantly involved in providing clothes, household furnishings and food to the needy. She demonstrated greatness in her loving service to others as Jesus described it in Matthew 20:26-27: '... but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant.' And in Matthew 25:35-36: 'For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink; naked and ye clothes me. I was sick and ye visited me.' With her husband she rejoiced when they ministered to those in need of physical, emotional or spiritual help. Her laughter was often the 'best medicine'."

Living alone for the next seventeen years, she opened her home to young people. Deaconesses and college students found more than shelter at Mrs. Lela's. Like her children's friends and neighbors' children before them, they found a personal friend; one whose honesty, integrity and fierce independence endeared her to them and enriched and challenged their own lives.

In August, 1974, Mrs. Lela moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham where she resided until her death. On July 3, 1979, at 2:00 A.M., her Savior and Master gave the call, "Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you." Mrs. Lela answered His summons quietly and gladly, we believe, assured that there would be no disappointments in the heavenly realm to which she was borne.

Mrs. Lela and her husband were the parents of seven children, one of whom died at twenty-two months. She is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Frank Epps (Grace), Lumberton, NC; Mrs. Delton Lowry (Shirley), Pembroke, NC; and Mrs. David Ransom (Vickie), Bethesda, MD; and by three sons: Roger M., Millis, MS; Joseph W., Cary, NC; and Henry W., Pembroke.

The funeral services were held in the First United Methodist Church of Pembroke, where she held membership for fifty-four years. The Reverend Ray Sparrow, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Reverends Simeon Cummings, Robert Mangum, and Lafon Vereen. A beautiful service of thanksgiving for Mrs. Lela's life of Christian ministry was offered in Scriptures and prayer; special music, by Mr. and Mrs.

Langford Godwin. Mrs. Lela's preference for joyous and gladsome music was expressed in the congregational singing of "When We All Get to Heaven". Eight grandsons were pallbearers; burial was at the Ten Mile Church cemetery on Highway 301, north of Lumberton, beside her beloved Walter and near her dear foster parents, Joe and Mary, and her baby, Neil Archie . . .

The influence of a Christian mother is a lasting one. We still hear Mama's words of wisdom and admonition as we face the continuing challenge of her personal example. The imprint which her Christianity made on our minds and spirits is yet a major influence in the conduct of our lives. We thank God for Mama and pray that we shall never stray beyond recall of her exemplary life as a Christian mother.

DENA THOMPSON CHAMBERS

Dena Thompson Chambers was born at Stagville, North Carolina, on July 20, 1896, the daughter of John A. and Ollie Vaughn Thompson. She attended the Durham County Schools, and was a graduate of East Carolina Teachers College at Greenville, North Carolina.

After beginning a career as a teacher, she met Martin R. Chambers, a young minister studying at Trinity College and doing pastoral work in Northern Durham County. They were married on September 12, 1922. She continued to teach in the public schools during a part of her years as the wife of a minister. She worked as a Home Demonstration Agent at one time, and was employed as a Home Economist in the Federal Rural Rehabilitation Program of the FSA in the mid-1930's.

Dena was a faithful and good minister's wife throughout the years of their itineracy together, which took them not only to several places within the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, but to the Holston and North Georgia Conferences as well.

Besides being a devoted and supportive minister's wife, Dena made her own contributions to the work of the church. She was an honorary life member of the United Methodist Women. Her chief interest, however, was work in the Church School. She taught classes in the local churches, and was an instructor throughout the Conference for the Methodist Board of Education.

Following upon their retirement in 1959, Martin and Dena went to Winston-Salem, North Carolina, to make their home. She died in Winston-Salem on August 17, 1979, following a lengthy illness. She is survived by her husband, Martin R. Chambers, and two sons, John Allan Chambers, Huntsville, Alabama and Dr. Robert T. Chambers, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, two grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. J. B. Anderson of Durham, North Carolina and Port St. Lucie, Florida.

The funeral service for Dena Thompson Chambers was conducted on Sunday afternoon, August 19, 1979, from the Mount Bethel United Methodist Church at Bahama, North Carolina, by the Pastor, Rev. Grady L. Kinley, and the Reverend Dr. William Dyar, an Associate Minister of Centenary United Methodist Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Burial followed in the Mount Bethel Church cemetery.

Dena had now been brought back home to the community she had known and had been a part of in the early years of her life. We are thankful for her productive and fruitful life, and saddened by our loss. We believe that she has now heard those rewarding words: "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your Master." (Matt. 25:21).

OLIVIA J. WARREN

The life and Christian effort of Mrs. Fred F. (Olivia) Warren, known to her many friends in Faison as "Miss Livvie", ended on Christmas Day in Dover, Delaware, where she had resided in the home of her son, Melville, for the past few years.

Mrs. Warren, one of Faison's beloved citizens, has been missed when she was away. We remember her yard at her lovely old home on West Main Street, and her working in it from spring until fall. In her younger days she was an active member of Miller's Chapel Church and a Sunday School teacher in the Faison United Methodist Church. Her devotion to God and the church were admirable. She was a music lover and with Mrs. B. F. McColman formed the Nevin Music Club for adults. She was a volunteer librarian for the Hill Memorial Library in Faison for a number of years and held an office in the Sesame Club. She was president of the Faison PTA and a room mother for her three children, Helen, Virginia and Melville.

Mrs. Warren was buried in Wayne Memorial Park but will remain in the memory of Faison residents for a long time.

She was married to the late Fred F. Warren of Faison who died in 1951, while serving the Clinton Circuit churches in Sampson County, as their minister. Reverend Warren was loved by all who knew him and local residents remember his funeral as being the largest for eastern North Carolina.

Helen Earnhardt Lance was born July 6, 1889, in the Methodist Parsonage in Leasburg, North Carolina, daughter of Rev. Daniel Luther and Ellen Ayers Earnhardt. From early childhood she displayed a quick mind, eager curiosity and great energy. She attended Littleton College at the age of 17, and received two years teacher training. Many years later she graduated from Duke University with a B.A. degree.

As a teacher following Littleton College, Helen met a young Methodist minister Hicks Edward Lance, with whom she had a June wedding in front of Southgate Hall on the Trinity College Campus, with other ministers attending.

To this couple were born three daughters, Helen Chambers, Ava Clendenon, and Edna Ruth. A devoted minister's wife Helen Lance was an enthusiastic and energetic worker in all activities of the church; visiting members, visiting the sick, teaching Sunday School classes, playing the organ and singing in the choir. She had an amazing knowledge of the Bible, and could lecture extensively on the scriptures. She organized meetings, both in and out of the church. While at Fairfield, for example, she helped organize in 1912, the Women's Book Club of Fairfield.

As the years went on, there were three daughters to educate, and Helen Lance began again her teaching career, in communities near her husband's pastorates: Roxboro, Semora (Principal), Bunn (Principal) and Durham. Her teaching was an exciting experience for her pupils, all of whom admired her, and many of whom visited her in later years to express appreciation. At Semora, calling upon all her organizing and persuasive skills, she was eager to give this rural community something to remember, the Great Depression notwithstanding. Hearing of Thor Johnston's small symphony, the Carolina Solon Ensemble, at Chapel Hill, she persuaded him to bring the group to Semora for expenses only one winter night in 1932. As the group approached the school grounds they were amazed at the walking families, the tethered horses and wagons, buggies, trucks and autos. Never was a musical program more enthusiastically received. Helen Lance wrote of it to Dr. Frank Graham, the University President, who was alerted to the group and helped popularize it to the extent that they couldn't fill prospective engagements, for lack of time. In later years Dr. Johnston, then the director of the Cincinnati Symphony, told me that of all the applause and recognition in his career those people at Semora were the greatest tribute he had ever had.

Not willing to be idle, following the school years, Helen Lance decided to venture into the business world. She opened a gift shop in Durham, and seasonally in Bradenton, Fla., Southern Pines and Waynesville; later she operated only a summer shop at Lake Junaluska. A great lover of the Smoky Mountains which she called "My Mountains" she roamed far and near collecting art and craft items that were products of this area. Her shops were filled with items by the Cherokee Indians, Berea College Students, Stewart Nye's silver, John Campbell School, Pisgah Pottery, and others. Her trade mark "Goose Creek" is now valuable collector's item on ceramic pieces.

Throughout the years Helen Lance displayed a great love of learning, a tremendous love and respect of nature and a never-ending desire to aid her fellow man. Her life was fully dedicated to the betterment of all she knew and she richly earned a heavenly reward.

On January 3, 1980, Helen Lance passed away in Sylva, North Carolina, where she had been living for three years. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Helen Lance Ross of Summitt, New Jersey, one granddaughter, eight grandsons and 13 great-grandchildren. Two daughters, Ava Lance Kaplan, and Edna Lance LaFontaine had died a few years before her.

The memory of her life will always be called blessed.

The funeral services were conducted by Bishop Paul Hardin in the Memorial Chapel at Lake Junaluska on January 5, 1980, and final burial was in the family cemetery at Avery's Creek, North Carolina, where her husband was buried in 1964. On the tombstone is the following inscription:

A MOST HOLY WALK.

Helen Lance Ross

Favorite prayer (Read at Helen Earnhardt Lance's funeral)

Lord make me an instrument of peace
Where there is hatred - let me sow love
Where there is injury - let me pardon
Where there is doubt - let me be faithful
Where there is despair - let there be hope
Where there is sadness - let there be joy
Oh Divine Master
Grant that I may seek
Not so much to be consoled as to console
Not so much to be understood as to understand
Not so much to be loved as to love
For it is in giving that we receive
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
That in dying we are born to eternal life.

UNA MAE MEASAMER

Mrs. E. H. Measamer of Pinetops, North Carolina died on Monday, February 4, 1980 at Wilson Memorial Hospital. She had been in declining health for several years, and on January 3 she fell while in her home and broke her hip. She was a patient in the hospital four weeks prior to her death. She was 72.

Mrs. Measamer was a native of Kansas. She attended John Brown University in Sulphur Springs, Arkansas and Weaver College, Weaverville, North Carolina. For five years, she was employed as a public school teacher serving for two years at Efland and three years at Arelian Springs. Following her years as a teacher, she worked for Doctor J. H. Cutchen of Whitakers as a receptionist and bookkeeper.

In 1928 Miss Una Mae Elder and Elwin H. Measamer were joined in holy wedlock and for 52 years they walked life's pathway together through sunshine and shadows. God blessed their home with two lovely daughters, Ann and Nancy. Mrs. Measamer's husband was admitted to the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church in 1930. She and her husband gave 41 years of their life serving Methodist Churches within the North Carolina Conference. They retired in 1970 and made their home in Pinetops. In addition to her role as a minister's wife, she taught a Sunday School Class in most of the Charges they served. She was also a very active member of the Women's Society of Christian Service having served as Spiritual Life Leader for the Rocky Mount District five years and Treasurer four years. Her beautiful life of Christian service and her deep concern for the needs of others will cause us to remember her as one of God's dearest saints. In the last years of her life, she experienced a great deal of suffering, and yet she tenaciously held on to hope, faith, and courage. In spite of her adversities, she could smile and through the window of that smile you could see the joy and peace that lay deep within her soul. Her life of humble Christian service endeared her to all who knew her and the memory of her life shall be an inspiration to us until the Lord calls us to be with her in a land where death shall be no more.

The Measamer's served the following churches within our conference: Town Creek, Newport, Rougemont, Fairfield, Dover, Laurel Hill, Orange, Littleton Circuit, Whitakers, Kenly, Gaston, Aulander, Spring Hope, Associate at First Church, Wilson, Middlesex, and Pinetops.

Survivors include her husband, The Reverend E. H. Measamer of Pinetops; daughters, Mrs. Ann Thompson of Chesapeake, Virginia, Mrs. Nancy Hitchcock of Miami, Florida; sisters, Mrs. Annie Joy of Honda, Texas, Mrs. Louise Steward of San Leandro, California; brother, Alvin Elder of Kenton, Tennessee; and five grandchildren.

A Memorial Service was held at Pinetops United Methodist Church on Wednesday, February 6 with Reverend Lloyd Edge, Reverend John Cline, Reverend Wade Goldston, and Reverend D. T. Goodwin officiating. Mrs. Measamer willed her body to the Research Center at Duke University.

JAMES MARVIN CARROLL
1891-1979

Reverend James Marvin Carroll, known with affection as "Jim" was born in Columbus County March 1, 1891 and completed public school at Bolton, N.C. He died Wednesday May 9, 1979 at Southeastern General Hospital in Lumberton, N.C. Funeral services were held at Peacock's Chapel in the Pines, Whiteville, N.C. Three ministers participated in the service, Revs. LaFon C. Vereen, Herman Vinberry, and James Auman. Rev. Auman was in charge of the service and spoke of Jim's dedication to the task of ministry, his courage as a Christian, his warm sense of humor, his gifts as a preacher, and his zeal as an evangelist. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Hinson Carroll of Wesley Pines Retirement Home.

Pallbearers for the funeral service were six ministers: Revs. Al Morris, Bruce Taylor, Graham Royal, Sam Dickson, Frank Alexander and Paul Boone. A special section in the chapel was reserved for an honor guard of ministers present at this service.

One of the outstanding periods in Jim Carroll's life as a Methodist minister was 1945-1953, when he served as pastor of the Scotts Hill Charge, Wilmington District. The year 1946 is known as the year of "The Great Revival" in the Methodist Church at Sneads Ferry. Rev. Carroll launched a two week revival which resulted in sixty-one new members coming into the church. Rev. "Zeb" Cowan was the preacher for these services. "Jim" and "Zeb" were life long friends in the ministry. Following the revival, the members undertook a new church building project. Under Carroll's leadership the men of the church did all the work themselves; with the women serving them hot meals every day. Carroll designed the unique chancel, pulpit and church pews and did much of the delicate woodwork himself. The church was dedicated in 1948 and named "Carroll's Chapel" to honor one who had worked so hard to make it a reality. Jim Carroll was an evangelist and the events at Sneads Ferry demonstrate his emphasis on winning men and women to Jesus Christ and his Church.

Jim Carroll started preaching at the age of 17. There were interruptions in this calling but Jim preached for over forty years. His first appointment was in 1921 at Currituck. In a few years Rev. Carroll came home near Bolton to live with and take care of his aged mother and father. He went back to preaching in 1943 and served in Wilmington, Charlotte, and the Waccamaw Charge in Columbus County composed of Bethel, Lebanon, Pireway and Bethesda Churches. He then served in Columbia, N.C. and the Wanchese church on Roanoke Island. From the Halls Creek Charge in Elizabeth City District, Jim was to retire in the Bethel Community near where he grew up, but he was not to actually retire for many years. On the very first day of his retirement, the bishop asked him to supply at Bolivia, where the pastor was away in college for study. Nine months later the pastor returned from his studies and the very next day the bishop asked Jim to supply at Peace Methodist, then Bethesda, then Bethesda and Pireway. Rev. J. M. Carroll, with a glint in the eye said, "I thought I was going to retire and go fishing, instead I inherited a full time job." He said it in such a way that all knew he was glad to continue in the work of the Lord. A happy word needs to be said about the retirement plans of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Carroll. The people of Bethel Church fell in love with this family when they served there, and the people of the church built Jim and Emma Reu a retirement home. When not busy in their churches, the Carroll's worked in their garden, in their yard, and took part in Bethel Church and the community. These were beautiful and busy years. Jim, always a builder, constructed cabinets and did much finishing work in the home. Folk at Bethel called Mr. Carroll a wonderful neighbor, a good advisor, and a faithful friend. In June of 1977, the Carroll's moved into a lovely apartment in Wesley Pines Retirement Home. They joined the Chestnut Street United Methodist Church right away and became active members. The writer of this memorial was blessed by Jim's presence and prayers in the congregation until his death on May 9, 1979, and Jim's wife, Emma Reu Hinson was a devoted and active worker with him every step of the way, a "Queen of the Parsonage." She still lives at Wesley Pines. I wish to declare what a blessing it is to be her pastor. Rev. James Marvin Carroll was given his middle name for a Methodist Bishop, but that middle initial could just as easily stand for "Methodist!" The words by Charles Wesley seem so fitting to close this tribute:

Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past
The battle's fought, the race is won, And thou art crowned at last.

With saints enthroned on high, Thou dost they Lord proclaim, And still to God salvation cry, Salvation to the Lamb!

O happy, happy soul! In ecstasies of praise,
Long as eternal ages roll,
Thou seest thy Savior's face.
Redeemed from earth and pain, Ah! when shall we ascend,
And all in Jesus' presence reign Through ages without end?

CONFERENCE REPORTS, LEGISLATION AND RESOLUTIONS

STATE OF THE CHURCH

SECTION V

SEC V

Because of the present laws of our church this will be my last opportunity to preside over the North Carolina Conference and to have the privilege of making a statement

As I come to make this State of the Church report, many emotions well up within me, the chief of which is a deep sense of appreciation for the privilege of having served the North Carolina Conference for eight years. To have served as the presiding bishop of this great conference is the highest honor that has ever been accorded me. The generosity and support of individuals, pastors, and congregations has been more than I shall ever deserve. As I prepare to receive another assignment later this summer, I will be storing in my heart a thousand memories of beautiful and wonderful experiences received during these years. You have been so very kind and supportive in every conceivable way, and I shall long be indebted to you. These have been years filled with joys and sorrows, with achievements and a few failures, with accomplishments and with mistakes. I pray that the Lord will use whatever may have been accomplished to His Glory and will be forgiving of the mistakes that have been made.

As we look to the state of the church in the middle of 1980, we must first acknowledge the high visibility of religion in our modern day. The forces of Islam are on the rampage, all in the name of a "holy war". There is hardly a day that Iran and the Islamic nations are not on the front page. So-called religious cults have arisen all about us. "Prime time preachers" have won their way into millions of homes through radio and TV. Amidst this kind of climate we need to ask ourselves, "Where is our place as a major body of Christendom? What is there that is genuine and authentic about our particular branch of God's people? Where is God calling us to serve in these last two decades of the tumultuous Twentieth Century?" Peter Berger represents my attitude when he calls for a new bold thrust, with an unapologetic and authoritative stand on the part of the church. He says that we need to turn from our morbid preoccupations and sound a note of confidence and hope. This indeed we need to do.

One means of this affirmative expression is to acknowledge where we have been, what have been our happy and productive experiences of the immediate past. The high mark of the 1979-80 year was the effect of the "Proclaim the Word" event this past spring. Almost unanimously the churches have reported lasting benefits from this experience. Hearts were warmed, lives were changed, new programs were instituted, 535 new members and new vitality was stirred within the congregations. The universal response was, "We ought to do this more often." Let us hope that a spark was ignited that will launch a new religious fervor in the United Methodist Churches of eastern North Carolina in the 1980's.

Our statistics will reveal that 1979 was another year of net growth for the North Carolina Conference. In fact, during the decade of the 1970's we had a net gain for eight of the ten years. Few conferences in United Methodism have been able to match that.

One of the most encouraging things I can report to you is that the North Carolina Conference is now launched upon a new thrust in church extension. During the past twelve months we have organized four new congregations: (1) Asbury Church in Raleigh, (2) Pine Valley Church in Jacksonville, (3) Lighthouse Church in Aberdeen, and (4) North Rocky Mount Church in that city. The total membership of these four churches is now 222. It is our hope that the 1980's will be a period of significant development of many more new congregations in this rapidly growing state of North Carolina. Located as we are within the acclaimed "sunbelt", this should have top priority within the next few years.

Christian education and youth activities need our attention. The message of the Bishops to the 1980 General Conference called for "a great new study of an emphasis upon the Holy Bible." This should take place in the Sunday School, in home study groups, and in youth gatherings. Those who will carry the greatest responsibility will be the pastors. We urge each pastor to become a careful Bible student, a Bible preacher and teacher.

Christian stewardship is another area where our churches have responded well. Though we have not kept up with the rate of inflation, and have experienced new financial strains upon church budgets due to drastically increased heating and cooling expenses, our Methodist people have responded generously in matters of ministerial support, world hunger causes, and many other benevolent concerns. During the first quarter of this year our giving to the Ministerial Education Fund has increased 20%; One Great Hour of Sharing, 56%; the Black College Fund, 34%; General Advance Specials, 38.7%; and the Youth Service Fund, 39.4%.

Our ministry to the aging is a significant one. We have two beautiful retirement homes and nursing facilities filled to capacity. Our children's home ministry is undergoing transition and expansion, which we hope will broaden and enrich our service in this area.

The progress our three colleges have made in the last five years is phenomenal. It is most encouraging to know that enrollment has greatly increased and that at one of them the dormitories are filled to capacity. Along with increased enrollment and improved financial condition has come a welcomed upgrading of faculty salaries resulting in a higher caliber of instruction. We are proud of our accomplishments in higher education.

Our youth camps are thriving. We now have a full-time director and program at Camp Rockfish, located here on the edge of Fayetteville. Don Lee and Chestnut Ridge continue to be places with teeming activity for the children and youth.

For the first time in several years it appears that we will go away from Annual Conference with a pastor appointed to every single charge. Our supply of dedicated and well prepared ministers has increased, and our loss of ministers for various causes has decreased. We need, however, to concern ourselves with the whole matter of the itinerant ministry. The appointive system can thrive and survive only as our ministers make themselves available to go where the church sends them and where they are most needed. With the increasing complexity of making appointments to suit particular personal and family needs, or geographical and economic needs, this creates a serious problem in the whole matter of the itinerant system. If we are to preserve itineracy as a genius of American Methodism, there must be a re-examination on the part of our ministers to respond to the opportunities to serve wherever they may be.

The North Carolina Conference has a great future. That future will hinge upon the devotion and zeal of those who are gathered in this hall today. On Thursday let us go from this place with a new sense of mission and a deeper commitment to the calling that is ours in Jesus Christ Our Lord.

Bishop Robert M. Blackburn

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Annual Conference Committee on Church Architecture was established to be of service to local churches. The committee is composed of representatives from the Conference Agencies, the District Superintendents, ministers, architects, and lay persons interested in the building process and church architecture.

For a number of years the Rural Church Section of the Duke Endowment sponsored periodic meetings of the North Carolina Conference and Western North Carolina Conference Committees appropriately called the Annual Meeting of the Joint Committee on Church Architecture. On Wednesday, December 12, 1979, the Joint Committee met at the Searle Center in the Sealy G. Mudd Building at Duke University for a program centering on landscape design for churches presented by a Raleigh landscape architecture firm. Meetings of this nature afford the committees the opportunity to talk about significant church building in North Carolina. The Reverend Al Fisher and members of the Rural Church Section are to be commended for their support of programs for the Conference Committees.

Whenever local churches are involved in planning building or renovation programs, they are encouraged to turn to members of the Committee for assistance. Each architect member is encouraged to give a day of service to the church when called to assist local churches through on-site consultation. The Committee cooperates with the District Boards of Church Location and Building in developing procedures and requirements and is prepared to offer education about essential steps involved in local building projects: discovering needs, developing a program, creating design concepts, and execution of planning.

New Book

"To Be Faithful To Our Heritage — A History of Black United Methodism in North Carolina" by Mrs. Linda D. Addo, Greensboro, N.C. and the Reverend James H. McCallum, Raleigh, N.C., will be for sale June 2, 1980. This book has been published through the cooperation of the Western North Carolina and the North Carolina Conferences. Our conference was represented on the publication committee by Mrs. Rufus E. Hackett, Dr. Ross Townes, Dr. Joseph B. Bethea, the Reverend Frank Gill, Mr. Joseph Watson and the Reverend Lawrence E. Lugar. Your commission appreciated the work of love done by the authors and the committee.

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION

Church Finances Interpreted

The committee developed and distributed the "Budget News Sheet" (interpretive tabloid). This was mailed in bulk to local church pastors in 1979. We received positive feedback about the piece and the distribution. Interpretation Rallies were held in more than one-half of the districts in 1979. Innovative ideas and designs created interest. Our goal is to have an interpretation Rally in each district in 1980.

Television Consultation Held

A TV Consultation was held in Durham on October 16 with 17 persons present. Leaders for the event were Cathy Carlson of Durham and Tom Nankervis of Nashville (United Methodist Communication). This was a very informative workshop with the opportunity to learn how to produce and utilize TV programs in the local church, district, and annual conference.

Advocate Promoted

A subscription campaign for the North Carolina Christian Advocate was conducted in the conference resulting in more than 2,000 new subscribers. New ideas are being considered for next year's campaign.

General Conference

Barbara Wilkinson attended the General Conference and provided excellent coverage of the conference for our North Carolina news media.

"Connection" On Radio In N. C.

We now have placed "Connection", the United Methodist Church weekly radio program, on 17 stations throughout North Carolina.

Proclaim The Word Media Campaign Coordinated

The "Proclaim the Word" publicity for the annual conference was coordinated through the Committee on Communication. Respective districts funded most radio and newspaper advertising, while the conference covered the expense of television and billboard publicity. Favorable response has been heard concerning the publicity.

"Saddlebag" Published

The "Saddlebag" keeps the annual conference informed daily concerning issues and items of interest. Doug Fox does an excellent job as editor.

Reginald W. Ponder, Chairman

United Methodist Communications

I suppose that most of you, like me, are too young to remember this — but I have been told that years ago the WPTF radio station in Raleigh would send staff to the Annual Conference, wherever it was meeting that year, and would broadcast live the reading of the ministerial appointments by the Bishop. In those days, the appointments were much more secretive, and I am told that folks all around eastern North Carolina would huddle by their radio to listen to who their new pastor was, or where their minister was going!

Well, we have come a long way since those bygone days — but do you know that in 1979 the biggest news story of United Methodism in eastern North Carolina, was still the appointments of our ministers. According to my count of newspaper column inches, stories of ministerial appointments head the list. Second come stories about the actions of the Annual Conference—for which there are hundreds of column inches in newspapers and several minutes of broadcast time on both radio and television.

Other stories covered by the media in 1979 were our Pensioner Crusade, our disaster aid to Cambodia and other stricken areas, United Methodist Women's Annual Meeting, and several conference training events. Added to this are the numerous articles sent in by you in the local church about news items from your congregation.

Here in 1980, we as United Methodists have made our presence known very well through the Proclaim the Word media campaign. In my opinion, it was an outstanding media campaign, with excellent materials. You are to be thanked for helping us spread the Gospel in this way. News articles on Proclaim the Word in newspapers in the conference area totaled 1500 column inches, not counting the space purchased in advertising. The campaign story made the front page of a major daily paper and thus was transmitted to numerous outlets through the wire services.

I have heard of several broadcast news stories by television and radio stations on the campaign, also. The Division on Evangelism has already reported to you the statistics on the billboards, and radio and television spots.

I know that many of you—like me—hope this campaign is just a beginning for further creative ways of using the media to share our faith and our witness of Jesus Christ. United Methodist Communications, the news service of the Conference, is just one of many ways of doing this.

COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

Function

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is concerned generally with helping persons hear, understand, and respond to God's call to ministry. There is also a specific and primary function of helping persons understand more fully the call to professional ministry in the United Methodist Church. Secondly, our responsibilities have included assisting persons in development of a concept of Christian vocation.

Bibliography of Resources

We have, therefore, provided for pastors and local church secretaries of Career Planning and Counseling a bibliography of resources that might be used in counseling persons. It is our hope that local pastors, youth coordinators, and coordinators of Career Planning and Counseling will use these resources in presenting discussions to youth groups about professional ministry as well as in counseling with persons as individuals who might be considering ministry.

Challenge

The Committee continues to remind pastors of their responsibilities to encourage talented persons within the congregations to be open to God's call and to respond affirmatively to it. Therefore we call upon each pastor to present the professional ministry in a favorable light before their congregation. Ours is the noblest of callings and it should be presented as an opportunity and a challenge. We should endeavor to pattern our ministries in such a way as to appeal to persons within our congregations who will respond to our contagious excitement about Christian ministry.

Special Days

We urge each pastor to emphasize the call to full time professional ministry on Ministry Sunday (September 21) and the importance of involving Christ in our vocations on Labor Sunday (August 31).

DIVISION OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Our Task

The work of the Division of Church and Society is roughly divided into two categories; (1) to uphold the Social Principles and (2) to examine the social issues of the day and make recommendations for individual Methodists and churches to use in confronting these issues. We have attempted to carry out these assignments in two ways: (1) the preparation and presentation of study papers and resolutions and (2) the formation of program recommendations. Careful consideration was given to each of the five suggestions we received from local churches and districts.

Study Papers and Resolutions

With hopes that we have recognized the true desire of this Annual Conference, we have called our papers "study papers" so that the Conference may vote on all work of this Division. The subjects of our papers are: our energy problem and the Christian life style, on the PLO, international developmental aid, and abortion: pro-choice. Four resolutions have been prepared and they are entitled: Repeal of the Food Tax, Support for the United Nations, the Equal Rights Amendment, and Against Reinstatement of the Draft in Peacetime. In each paper or resolution we have carefully upheld the position of the general church as stated in The United Methodist Social Principles.

Program Recommendations

Our program recommendations are also carefully coordinated with the position of General Conference. The Yokefellow Prison Ministries remain a major on-going recommendation to the local churches and districts, and even very small churches can serve beautifully in this program. The Adult Study Tour to the United Nations and Washington, D.C., continued to be a highlight of our year with thirty participants. North Carolina continues to shame us by being on or near the bottom of the wage scale for industry, and our major new recommendation for the year was a conference-wide seminar on labor-management. The Human Relations Committee of the Division decided to pool resources and energy with the Labor Committee of the N.C. Council of Churches and they worked with that group in the Labor Management Seminar at Front Street Church in Burlington at the end of May. The funds you allocated in our budget for this seminar were used to help with travel expenses for United Methodists.

Other Activities

The Division has continued its promotion of subscriptions to our social concerns magazine engage/social action; has supported and cooperated with IMPACT, the State Council for Social Legislation, the N.C. Social Ministries Commission, North Carolinians United for the ERA; and this year joined the state level of the Religious Coalition for Abortion Rights. Hearings and workshops have been attended on urban ministries and nuclear energy and these issues will be addressed in the Conference Leadership School class on "National Priorities and Military Preparedness" in August.

Catherine Watson, Chairperson

Standards

Diaconal Ministry signifies that a person is prepared and called of God to full-time ministry in the administration of church programs. They have met required educational and personal standards and have been certified in their field of work. These persons may be Directors of Music, Directors of Christian Education, Business Administrators, Evangelists, Health and Welfare Workers, Church and Community Workers, or Deaconesses. They are dedicated to a life-time ministry to the church.

They must have worked in the conference for a year and be recommended by their Pastor-Parish Relations committee and the Charge Conference before they can become certified and must be certified for a year, according to the rule of the North Carolina Conference, before consecration as a Diaconal Minister.

Benefits

A plan of retirement is established for them with the employer contributing 6% or more of the salary and the employee contributing 3% toward this retirement fund. Up to a total of 12% of the salary may be contributed. Dedication, preparation, and ministry are met with retirement and insurance benefits.

They are also eligible to join the Health Insurance Program provided for Ordained Ministers. Other benefits accorded to the Ordained Minister should be considered as the church is able to provide them.

Martha Garrick, Chairperson

MUSICIANS

Bishop Blackburn, members of the cabinet, and delegates to the 1980 Annual Conference Session of the North Carolina Conference, it gives me great pleasure to stand before you today to report to you about the activities of the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and other related arts.

We are a self-sustaining body deriving our funds from fees collected or budgeted amounts from Annual Conference agencies, specifically the Division of Education. Activities which we sponsor include: Youth Music Workshop, The Conference Handbell Festival, Children's Choir Camp, Annual Conference Music, and Conference-wide Workshop meetings three times a year.

As President of this group, it is my duty to see that each of these activities are planned and successfully carried out.

First, Youth Music Workshop was held for the ninth year last June, 1979. Mr. Marvin Burke, Professor of Music at Pfeiffer College was guest Conductor. We met for 4 days on the campus of Methodist College and then embarked on a 4 day tour to Pennsylvania where we sang at Methodist and Lutheran Churches in York and Wrightsville, Pa. We toured Hershey Park and Gettysburg Battlefield and at in a Pennsylvania Dutch Restaurant. We stayed on the campus of York College for three days and then returned to North Carolina for our homecoming concert at Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church where more than 800 attended our final program. Leadership was provided by members of our conference chapter with Roger Searles as Chairman. Reverend Ed Morrison provided special leadership for this and all conference events.

Second, the Conference Handbell Festival was again held on the campus of Methodist College on March 28-29. For the first time we scheduled the event for two days which proved to be very successful. Mr. David Hines and Mr. Alan Porter were co-guest conductors. Recreation activities were provided by Mrs. Lou Wells. There were 15 choirs from churches in our conference and as far away as Charlotte. Parents and friends attended the final concert of massed ringing selections and solo pieces played by individual choirs. Leadership was provided by members of our conference chapter with David Hines as Chairman.

Third, Children's Choir Camp was held for the second year at Camp Don-Lee in August, 1979. 35 children from our conference churches came to Don-Lee to learn about Handbell Ringing, Orff Instrument playing, and singing anthems in a choir. All the fun activities of Don-Lee were used to their fullest and a special "Thank You" to Rev. John Farmer and the Don-Lee staff for providing leadership for these activities. Parents and friends attended a final concert at Don-Lee. Leadership was provided by members of our Conference Chapter with Dan Holland as chairman.

Fourth, all the music at the 1980 Annual Conference Session has been provided by Diaconal Ministers of Music and members of our Conference Chapter. All organ music, choirs and soloists were scheduled by Bill Hildebrandt who is chairman of this event.

Again this year we scheduled three meetings of our chapter. Last fall we met at Rocky Mount with Rev. Paul Boone as host. We are trying to schedule these meetings as Workshop meetings to cover areas of selecting childrens, youth and adult choir music, appropriate organ or piano music, voice production, conducting, choral diction, handbell ringing techniques to name a few. We are trying to gear these meetings to meet the needs of the small-membership churches. We hope that more persons will take advantage of these meetings.

Our winter meeting was held in March at Edenton Street United Methodist Church and our third meeting will be held on Wednesday of Annual Conference when officers will be elected for a new two-year term.

In addition to our conference program, 11 members of our chapter and the Division of Worship attended the 1979 Convocation of the Fellowship of United Methodist Musicians at Albion College, Albion, Michigan in July 1979. Design '79 as it was called was an historic occasion when the Fellowship and the Society of Worship merged to form the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and other related arts. Special emphasis was on the liturgical seasons and special worship services designed by Rev. Eugene Holmes carried us through the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Pentecost, and Easter. Holy Communion was celebrated on the last day. Emphasis was also placed on liturgy as worship. It was a very rewarding experience and we hope that more members of our conference will attend the 1981 Convocation at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana.

Of all the activities which our chapter provides, however, the most important is service to the local church. 52 weeks a year our churches are served by dedicated Christians who serve as Directors, Organists, singers, ringers and instrumentalists and strive to inspire our worship services through the ministry of Music.

When the morning stars together their creator's glory sang; and all people, O God, all shouted till with joy the heavens rang;
Then thy wisdom and thy greatness their exultant music told. All the Beauty and the splendor which thy mighty works unfold.

When in synagogues or temple, voices raised the psalmist's songs offering the adoration which to thee alone belongs. When the singers and the cymbals with the trumpet made accord, Glory filled the house of worship and all knew they presence Lord.

Voices and instrument in Union through the ages spoke they praise,
Plainsong, tuneful hymns or anthems told they faithful, gracious ways.
Choir and orchestra and organ each a sacred offering brought while inspired by thine own spent, Poet and composer wrought.

Lord we bring our Gift of Music; touch our lips and fire our heart; teach our mind and train our senses; Fit us for this sacred art. Then with skill and consecration we would serve thee. Lord, and give all our powers to glorify thee and in serving fully live.

William J. Weisser, Presidnt Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and other related arts

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The report of the Committee on District Conference Records is as follows:

We have examined the District Records and noted only slight discrepancies.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S COMPOSITE REPORT - 1979

Our composite report of the district superintendents makes me think of the experience of the Israelites approaching the promised land. They had prospered under God's guidance. There had been some troubles and difficulties along the way, but as they looked back, they realized that God had been good to them. God had brought them to a fertile land of wheat and barley and grapevines and fig trees and pomegranates and olive oil and honey. It looked as if they had everything that their hearts could desire - but Moses was concerned. So he called his people together and noted the abundant providence of God. Then he said: "When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God. . . and thou say in thine heart, my power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth. But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God, for it is He that giveth thee power to get wealth.

It is so easy for us to get involved in doing good things that we forget the purpose for which we do the good things — which is, to honor our God who has revealed Himself through Jesus Christ, and to express our love to Him. And so, as we note our accomplishments, I ask that you keep in mind the over-arching reason for our zeal and fervor and activity — to honor and praise our unchanging and everlasting God.

Here is our shared report: New parsonages were initiated at Vendell and Burlington: Davis Street. Parsonages were completed at Ocean View and Hamlet: St. Peter. Extensive renovations were made at Shallotte Circuit and Belhaven: Trinity. Parsonages were dedicated at Pleasant Hill (Sa), Millbrook, Angier, and Hebron (BU). A beautiful parsonage was both built and dedicated at Cary: White Plains.

New church buildings were built at Clinton: Grace, costing 150,000 and one at Friendship (BU) at a cost of $400,000. The church at Angier was consecrated, and dedications were held at Laurinburg: St. Luke, Clarkton, Old Dock, and at Dixon Chapel on the Shallotte Circuit.

Educational buildings and/or fellowship halls were built throughout our conference during 1979 with a cost of more than $1,500,000. They were built at Trinity (GO), Indian Springs (GO), Webb's Chapel (GR), Moyock, Bethesda, Asbury and Mt. Olive Churches in Lumberton, Philadelphus, Maxton: St. Paul, Tabernacle (RO), Flat Rock on the Vance Charge, Asbury (NB), Union (BU), Shiloh, Center (SA), and Crown's Chapel (SA). Trinity in Jacksonville built a $225,000 educational plant, and Cotton Church saved thousands of dollars by the members furnishing the labor for an educational building that cost 50,000 just for the materials. Hay Street Church accomplished a renovation of their educational building which cost almost a half million dollars. Roxboro: Grace likewise had an extensive renovation program. Duke's Chapel dedicated a half-million dollar educational building; Faison and Broad Creek also dedicated new additions. Jarvis Memorial built a Music and Media Center addition. Snow Hill: Calvary initiated plans for a lovely fellowship hall and office complex. Salem (GR) has gone a long way toward completion of their fellowship hall.

Many innovative programs in mission outreach were entered into among our churches. At least eight of our churches have adopted refugee families during the year: LaGrange, Edenton Street, Hayes Barton, Asbury (RA), Oxford, Hope Mills, Washington: First, and Durham: Trinity. Others are in the process. Hayes-Barton likewise sponsored a work-team to Chile. Yokefellow and prison ministries were entered into by Highland, Westover, Wake Forest, and Epworth, Duke's Chapel, St. Paul and Aldersgate Churches in Durham.

Two novel programs were initiated in the Rockingham District: first, a PAL program, which stands for "Pastor as Leader." Participating pastors will each develop his/her knowledge, skills, and attitudes by Jan. 1, 1981, through taking part in leader development training events. Second, a program in Black Church Development was begun with the appointment of a Black Church and Community Worker and Christian Educator. A continued program in the Rockingham District was the intentional effort to upgrade property and facilities, especially in ethnic minority local churches.

Our districts and churches had many other meaningful programs including Operation Understanding, lay speaker training, "no-silent pulpits," and the formation of new young adult church school classes. Worthy projects for the elderly and handicapped were also undertaken, such as wheel-chair ramps and the decoration of sun-orchards at the Methodist Retirement Home.

We had a banner year in evangelism with the beginning of four new churches: North Rocky Mount, Lighthouse in Aberden, Asbury in Raleigh, which now numbers more than 100 members and has acquired a ten acre site on Creedmore Road, and Pine Valley in Jacksonville with around eighty members. Membership growth was 373 in our Conference - one of the few conferences in Methodism with a growth record. We especially wish to commend the Raleigh District with an increase of 570, the New Bern District with an increase of 280 and the Elizabeth City District with an increase of 116. 161 more persons were baptised this year than last; 55 more persons were received on confession of faith during 1979 than the previous year.

In finances, we raised $4.4 million for our main benevolence fund: the Outreach Ministries Fair Share. This was an increase of $238,000 over the previous year, and 95.6% of our expectancies — the best we have ever done. With the addition of the Pension Funding Crusade which brought in the unbelievable amount of $1.1 million, we raised $1½ million more in benevolences than in the year before. Likewise we raised $123,000 more in advance specials than in 1978 — which is our plus giving to missions.

No report from this Conference will be complete without two expressions of gratitude. First, this will be the last annual conference that Bishop and Mrs. Robert M. Blackburn will be with us. We are grateful to Bishop Blackburn for his eight years of consecrated, conscientious, wise and friendly leadership. He has demanded our best capability. But never, at any time, has he demanded any more from each of us than he demands of himself. He must make many decisions, but those who know him well know that he agonizes and prays over each decision that is made.

Though Jewel has not been with us long, she has impressed us all with her warm personality, her great sense of humor and her loving acceptance of each of us. This has endeared her in a short time to a most special spot in our hearts.

In a few months we must say "bon voyage" to Bishop and Jewel. We bid them Godspeed coupled with our love and lasting friendship. Bishop and Jewel, it has been a joy to have you as partners in Christ. It has been a deep pleasure to have you as friends and leaders.

Secondly, my fellow Christian Methodists, we want to thank God for the progress our N.C. Conference has made this year. This report is a record of our labor for God. God is the reason behind our report. So let us praise Him for His goodness. Praise Him in the language of youth. Praise Him through this paraphrase of the 117 Psalm. Carl Burke gives it to us in the street language of youth:

"Everybody give the Lord a cheer

Everywhere in the world.

Tell the good things about Him

His love is just great!

And is strong and for sure,

And it lasts longer than red bricks.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT

It is a privilege and a real joy to make my sixth report for the 61 dedicated ministers, the 71 churches and the 15,078 Christian laypersons of the Goldsboro District. The year 1979 was a very good year for us.

New Ministers

Many good things have happened in our district but one thing warms our heart in a special way — the many fine youth who have heard God's call and plan to enter the ministry of the United Methodist Church. We have seven young men who are candidates for the Ordained Ministry and are now in school preparing themselves for this high calling. We also have three additional young men who are entering the conference this year as Probationary Members and two who will come into Full Membership. God is calling choice young people as ministers and the ministerial leadership of our conference for the future is bright.

Membership

Our district showed a net gain in membership in 1979. We received in Confession of Faith or Restored 191, from other United Methodist Churches 142, and from other denominations 118. Our gain was not what we would have hoped it to be, but we feel that the future will show great gains.

Building Programs

Trinity Church built a beautiful spacious fellowship hall and kitchen at a cost of about $80,000.

Indian Springs built a fellowship hall and kitchen.

Brogden did some renovation and added class rooms.

Saulston is completely renovating the sanctuary at a cost of about $100,000.

New Hope and Bethel churches dedicated their parsonages.

Finances

The district raised 1,910,925 for all causes in 1979. We paid 97.6% of our askings on Outreach Ministries and accepted 98.7% of the askings for 1980. In addition we accepted 80% of the askings for Ministerial Education, 42% for Interdenominational Cooperation, 55% for Black Colleges, 94% for Missional Priorities and $15,070 for Advance Specials.

Appreciation

There are many people who give great leadership in our district, but I do want to thank Betty Wallace who gives outstanding leadership in her role as president of United Methodist Women, to Jimmy Davis our able and untiring District Lay Leader, and to Joy Wilkins, president of our United Methodist Youth. This is my sixth and last year as superintendent of the Goldsboro District and I thank God for the privilege of working with the great ministers and laypersons of this district who strive to make His Kingdom come on earth even as it is in heaven.

NEW BERN DISTRICT REPORT

I am happy to make this report on behalf of the ministers and laypersons of the New Bern District. They are a faithful and dedicated group of Christian servants.

New Congregation Organized

The highlight of our year's work has been the organization of the Pine Valley United Methodist Church in Jacksonville. The Reverend Charles E. Sparks has given astute and capable leadership as Pastor. The Church was officially constituted on January 22, 1980 (Church Extension Sunday). The Charter Membership is seventy-one persons, many of whom were received by Profession of Faith.

Proclaim The Word

The most meaningful program in the District this year was the Proclaim The Word evangelism program. Almost every church/charge in the district participated and an enthusiastic response was reported from all concerned.

Mission Saturation Event

The third highlight of our year was the District Mission Saturation Event, April 11-13, 1980, under the strong leadership of the Reverend J. B. Parvin. During this weekend, twenty-six mission interpreters led sixty-two events throughout the District. Most of the churches/charges were visited by at least one mission interpreter. A Banquet was held on Saturday night for the participants. Great enthusiasm for the mission program of the church was the response for this program.

Church Membership

The year 1979 was another successful year in membership growth in the New Bern District. This marked the fourth consecutive year of growth for the District. The 1979 gain of 280 souls was the second highest number in the entire conference. With the new Pine Valley Church, the 1980 gain should be even larger.

Stewardship

The pastoral charges of the New Bern District continued to improve their stewardship in 1979. Several charges faced financial crises and lowered their acceptance of the Outreach Ministries Apportionments for 1980. Hopefully the other charges will take up the slack.

A special Stewardship Workshop for Pastors with less than 10 years experience was held in April of 1980. This workshop should pay rich dividends in the future.

Lay Life and Work

The laity of the New Bern District are very responsive to the program of the United Methodist Church. The attendance at the January Training Workshop and the District Laity Rally was good. There are four special phases of Lay Life and Work within the District.

Lay Speaking

Rafe Williams, the District Director of Lay Speaking, is doing an excellent job in placing Lay Speakers across the District. During the 1979-1980 conference year, there has been a Basic Course and an Advanced Course offered in the District for the Lay Speakers.

United Methodist Youth

The New Bern District Youth under the dynamic leadership of Kate Cooper, Brinkly Sugg and Woody Wells have had another banner year. They are one of the leading districts in support of the Youth Service Fund and have active district and sub-district programs to supplement local programs.

United Methodist Men

The United Methodist Men had a District organizational meeting in the fall of 1979 and Ralph Freeman of the Midway Church was elected as District President succeeding Tom Pace. Ralph has been very active in trying to organize new UMM clubs.

United Methodist Women

1979 was the year to change leaders in the New Bern District, and Mrs. Harry (Georgia) Wertman of Broad Creek Church was elected to succeed Mrs. Charles (Peggy) Hill of Newport as UMW President. Mrs. Hill had given outstanding leadership to the District. The women continue to do everything well and have increased their pledge to missions again in 1980.

District Council on Ministries

The District COM has functioned exceptionally well this year under the capable leadership of the Reverend Douglas L. Byrd. Many significant plans and programs have been initiated and implemented during 1979-1980.

Building Programs

The Atlantic Church completely remodeled its parsonage at a cost of more than $34,000. The Asbury Church has completed a beautiful new Fellowship Hall. Trinity Church in Jacksonville completed an Educational Addition valued at $250,000.

Trinity Church in New Bern, Broad Creek Church, and Northwoods Church in Jacksonville have had note burning and dedication services during the year.

Northwoods Church has begun a new educational building during the spring of 1980.

Garber Church in New Bern purchased a new parsonage in May of 1980.

Franklin Memorial Church in Morehead City has had plans for an Education-Fellowship Hall addition approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.

A site has been approved for the new Pine Valley Church in Jacksonville and plans for their first unit are now being developed.

ROCKINGHAM DISTRICT

The work of the Rockingham District in 1979 was the work of 16,495 United Methodists in 78 churches with 52 pastors in Richmond, Robeson and Scotland Counties. One church in Columbus County, one in Bladen County and two in South Carolina are included in this fellowship. The District is tri-racial: 46 predominantly White churches, 22 predominantly Black churches, and 10 predominantly Native American churches. It is a unique privilege to share God's work with these committed Christians and I am happy to make this report on their behalf.

Membership Changes

Received on Confession of Faith or Restored	268
Received from other United Methodist Churches	204
Received from other denominations	74
Removed by Charge Conference or withdrawn	103
Transferred to other United Methodist Churches	121
Transferred to other denominations	94
Removed by death	175

In 1978, we had a net membership decrease of 75. We rejoice that at the end of 1979, we had experienced a small increase in net membership; and we reaffirm our intention that a larger number of persons will hear and respond to the Gospel in 1980.

Total church school membership increased and average attendance remained constant. Again Prospect Church led our District in total church school membership and average attendance.

Lay Life and Work

The District Committee on Lay Life and Work continues to function under the leadership of Robert E. Hutchinson, District Lay Leader and his Associates. The January Workshops, the District Lay Rally, the Training Session for Lay and Clergy Members of Annual Conference, the Interpretation Rally, the Proclaim the Word Workshop and Evangelism Rally, and the Richmond Sub-District Christian Workers' School were all well attended and appreciated.

United Methodist Women

In 1979, there were sixty-seven active units of United Methodist Women in the Rockingham District. Membership was 2,536. The district mission goal to conference was $17,000.00, plus extra givings through Candle Burning, love offerings and special memberships. The amount paid for local church and community work was $34,818.00. Mrs. J. A. Garner and her district and sub-district leaders have led the United Methodist Women well as they have seen and known, served and grown.

United Methodist Youth

Under the leadership of Mrs. Elaine Shelton, Coordinator, a District Youth Conference was held in September, 1979. The Council was organized and Cara Pearson was elected President. A District Youth Christmas program was held and goals for 1980 were projected.

United Methodist Men

Charles Sauls has been asked to coordinate the effort to pull our United Methodist Men together in a district organization. Plans are already underway to implement this goal.

Special Programs

After several months of preparation, the Pastor as Leader Project (PAL) was formalized and the orientation session was held. Twenty of our Rockingham District pastors are engaged in this "opportunity to increase their knowledge, skills and attitudes through participation in several leader development training events." The project is sponsored and supported by the General Board of Discipleship, the Conference Council on Ministries, the Conference Committee on Continuing Education and the Rockingham District.

The Black Church Development Program for the Rockingham District and the North Carolina Conference was established with the appointment of a Black Church and Community Worker/Christian Educator. This effort to strengthen the life and work of our black churches is sponsored and supported by the Conference Council on Ministries, the Division of Missions, the Duke Endowment and the Rockingham District.

The churches of the Rockingham District responded, with enthusiasm, to the Pension Funding Crusade. Our Fair Share Goal was $300,115. Our churches accepted $301,480 and, at the end of 1979, had paid $78,720. We anticipate a successful continuation and conclusion of this very important crusade.

Building and Improvements

In the fall, East Rockingham Church was damaged considerably by fire. The congregation rose to the occasion and immediately made plans to renovate the sanctuary and to build new facilities. The first unit of St. Luke Church in Laurinburg was dedicated and plans were underway to build a sanctuary. Buildings and improvements were completed at Barkers, Bethesda, Hamlet: St. Peter, Maxton: St. Paul, and Philadelphus.

Appreciation

The report cannot be concluded without a word of appreciation to the pastors and lay members of the Rockingham District who love their Lord and serve His Church. With every good wish, I pray Gods blessings upon them for ever and ever. AMEN

REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT FOR 1979

1979 was a year of meaningful activity for the 18,409 United Methodist of the Rocky Mount District.

Membership and Evangelism

New members added by Confession of Faith were 171; from other United Methodist Churches, 268; from other denominations, 122; for total additions of 561. The bottom line for church membership statistics was a net loss of 21 members. Attendance at the major service of worship on Sunday averaged 6,122 per Sunday.

The year 1979 was spent in enthusiastic and prayerful preparation for the Proclaim the Word Event that culminated in 1980 with every charge in the Rocky Mount District having a week of evangelistic preaching and planning. The first major item of preparation for this evangelistic emphasis was a Spiritual Life Retreat for the ministers and their spouses at Camp Willow Run on September 21 and 22.

Finances

Total money paid out by the churches of the Rocky Mount District during 1979 was $2,313,278. Paid to Outreach Ministries was $386,566 or 95.3% of the amount apportioned to the District.

Education

There was an average of 4,343 in the Sunday Church School each Sunday for the year. In addition special Christian Workers Schools were held at Roanoke Rapids where there were 5 classes and 63 persons in attendance and in Wilson where there were 6 classes and 160 persons in attendance.

United Methodist Women

There are 60 local units of the United Methodist Women in the Rocky Mount District. The Executive Committee, under the excellent leadership of President Mrs. Roy Barrow, is a diversified group. Three officers are under 39. Several work outside the home as part-time or full-time workers. Two are retired.

The District sent $29,468.89 to the Conference Treasurer for missions, thus overpaying the pledge for 1979 of $24,500.

Sub-district meetings featured Mrs. Wendy White, director of Walnut Terrace Child Development Center, who showed slides and made an interesting informative presentation of work with the children.

Spiritual Day Apart was held at First Church, Roanoke Rapids, with Ted and Jack Miles as guest speakers.

The District Meeting was held at Pinetops United Methodist Church. Mrs. Ruth Cade, retiring president of the Conference United Methodist Women, was the speaker.

Lay Life and Work

Under the very able leadership of District Lay Leader, Dr. Robert Frazier, the Rocky Mount District has an effective program involving the laity. Three major events under the sponsorship of the Committee on Lay Life and Work are: (1) Training for members of the Annual Conference; (2) The District Lay Rally at which the speaker for the year 1979 was Rev. Lea Joyner; and (3) The January Workshops for Church Leaders at First Church, Rocky Mount where in 1979 there were 273 in attendance.

Missions

It was a year with a special event highlighting missions as on August 26, 1979 there was organized a Rocky Mount District Board of Missions and Church Extension. In subsequent Charge Conferences 15 churches pledged $3,842 for the work of this mission society. This District Board had a three-fold emphasis for the year 1979. (1) The organizing of a new church in North Rocky Mount; (2) Encouraging St. Paul in their move to relocate; and (3) Continuing support to smaller churches of the Rocky Mount District

Twenty-six churches of the Rocky Mount District gave Advance Specials totaling $25,569 for 1979.

Church Buildings and Parsonages

Roanoke Rapids: Rosemary has begun a renovation program for the sanctuary estimated to cost $15,000. Rocky Mount: First Church has bought property to expand the parking facilities costing $100,000. The new parsonage on the Calvary Charge was occupied during the year; this parsonage has an estimated value of $75,000.

Other Special Programs

The pastor of Wilson: Winstead, Rev. Jesse Bone, conducts each week one worship service and one teen-age club meeting at the N.C. School for the Deaf, making contact each week with 115 students.

Rocky Mount: First Church has organized and is continuing a program of Meals on Wheels for the aged and also a Big Brother Big Sister ministry for children from inadequate homes.

Rocky Mount: Englewood has made their property fronting Sunset Avenue available on Saturdays for a Farmers Market. This is a service project for the benefit of both farmers and customers. One of the farmers in making a report on gross sales added an unsolicited footnote in appreciation; she wrote, "God bless your church and its people for this service. This is what fellowship means."

And God has blessed the people of Englewood and all the people and churches of the Rocky Mount District. And to Him be the glory and the praise.

John M. Cline, District Superintendent

WILMINGTON DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The most exciting thing that happened in the Wilmington District this year was our planning, preparation, and participation in "Proclaim The Word" program. Our ministers' reception in the Elizabeth City District made them even more enthusiastic for the visit from Rockingham district ministers, along with a few from other districts. Every report has indicated a warm spirit, good preaching, and continued participation in the four-year plan. The follow-up plans of local churches are being carried out with good results.

Education

In recognition of the 200th anniversary of the Sunday School, a resource team from the District Council on Ministries held listening sessions for Sunday School leaders in five subdistricts. These involved present activities and plans for celebration. New Sunday School classes have been formed at Shallotte: Camp and Trinity, Wilmington, to serve the needs of Young Adults. The Wilmington area had a successful Christian Workers' School.

Evangelism

We had three delegates at the National Convocation on Evangelism in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and two delegates in the jurisdictional Evangelism Week at Lake Junaluska. To prepare our ministers for the proclamation, a Retreat was held in September at White Lake, with the Reverend Howard Allred, leader, and the Bladen County ministers in charge of hospitality and arrangements. We are planning a similar event for September, 1980. A few of our churches reported outstanding net gains in membership in 1979. They are: Carolina Beach, net gain of 38; Wesley Memorial, Wilmington, net gain of 33; Southport, net gain of 19; and Wrightsville Beach, net gain of 10. Worthy of note is the fact that Grace and Trinity, Wilmington churches that have been in changing neighborhoods for years, received 20 and 14 new members respectively.

Membership and Other Statistics

I am happy to report an increase in persons received on Confession of Faith from 207 in 1978, to 245 in 1979. However, I am sorry to report that net loss in membership was 88. This came because of "roll cleaning", when 209 persons were removed by action of the charge conferences. General and Conference Advance Specials met with improved response. General Advance was up from $13,239 to $24,387, and Conference Advance was up from $1,688 to $2,407. Youth Service Fund contributions amounted to a new high of $572, as compared with $45 the previous year. Total money raised in 1979 was $1,869,049, exceeding by $175,867 total money raised in the previous year.

Building and Improvements

A new parsonage was completed at Ocean View in December; Marion has plans ready for a parsonage; and Wrightsboro will soon be purchasing a home to replace the present parsonage. Extensive renovation was done on the Shallotte Ct. parsonage. Major improvements have been made in the parking lots at Hempstead and Grace, Wilmington.

Social Services

Dedication services have been held at Clarkton, Dixon Chapel on the Shallotte Ct., and Old Dock. Carver's Creek has completed payment on their building. Singletary Church, Dublin Charge, observed their 175th anniversary.

Unity

Our Annual Lay Rally at Wesley's Chapel, Elizabethtown, featured an address by Dr. Ross Freeman, Executive Secretary, Southeastern Jurisdictional Council, Atlanta, Ga. Lay Speaker Certification was presented to three persons who attended Leadership School, Methodist College. This makes a total of 31 certified lay speakers in the district. United Methodist Women, under the leadership of Mrs. Leroy Mintz, have had five subdistrict meetings, emphasizing the importance of program planning, as well as an annual district meeting. 24 were registered delegates to the Annual Meeting in Raleigh. In all areas, the laity has been cooperative and supportive of the program of the general church and district endeavors.

Outreach

Since the University of North Carolina at Wilmington is in our District, we participate in the Campus Ministry program, with three representatives on the Board of Directors; Bob Redmond served on the search committee for the new Campus Minister, Bob Haywood, who arrived this spring. We are represented on the Seamen's Center Board by three lay people, and are especially grateful for the time which Mrs. Charles Sneed, Trinity Church, gives to editing the newsletter, and Bill Pearson, Wrightsville Beach Church, gives in assisting the Chaplain with ship visitation and the scheduling of volunteers. This is a great ministry to the thousands of seamen who come to the Wilmington port from all over the world.

Five NC Wesleyan College students assisted with the Federal Point Resort Ministry at Carolina Beach during the summer months. The program at Long Beach continues to be supported by the Ocean View Church, with a Duke Divinity School student assigned to work in this summer ministry. We are grateful for financial support which various churches in the conference give to these important projects. We invite you to visit our beaches and see for yourself what we are doing to bring God's message of Love to our summer visitors.

Through regularly scheduled fellowship meetings in each sub-district, the Fall Retreat at White Lake, and times set aside for sharing the faith at district preachers' meetings, our ministers have developed a close team spirit. The feeling is contagious and has spread to the laity. We are grateful for this fine relationship which has contributed immensely to the year's accomplishments in all areas of the work.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

More than half a century ago, on December 11, 1924, Mr. James B. Duke established The Duke Endowment. Because of his concern for the Methodist Church, particularly the church in rural settings, Mr. Duke provided for funds to be made available to build rural churches to maintain and operate rural churches, and to provide assistance to retired pastors and widows and children of deceased pastors. Mr. Duke, a Methodist, was raised in a rural church, as were his father and his grandfather before him. Mr. Duke often remarked, "My old daddy always said that if he amounted to anything in life, it was due to the Methodist circuit riders." Out of his indebtedness to this background he provided in a marvelous way for the building and strengthening of rural churches.

The Rural Church Section of The Duke Endowment is the structure through which The Duke Endowment makes funds available for the causes outlined by Mr. Duke. The Duke Endowment continues to look for new and innovative ways of assisting rural churches, and in the course of the past year several significant changes have taken place. Perhaps the most significant is the method by which grants are made to churches involved in building programs.

For many years The Endowment has made grants in three stages - for architectural services, when a building is finished and one-half paid for, and when a final grant will pay the last dollar. Realizing in these days of inflationary costs and spiraling interest rates that much of The Duke Endowment grant money is eroded by interest, the trustees of The Duke Endowment have authorized a new procedure for making grants to churches entering the program after August 1, 1980. A church can make application for building grants by the trustees when its plans developed by a licensed architect have been approved by the Review Committee and when the Director of the Office of the Rural Church Section is able to certify that the projected building is within the financial capabilities of the congregation, adequate financing is available to pay the total cost, and the congregation has developed a sound financial plan to repay any indebtedness.

The initial grant on a particular project may be awarded to a church when the building is under construction. If additional grants are anticipated, a second grant can be made one year after the initial grant and a third grant the second year after the initial grant, etc. Each grant and final and additional grants are subject to the discretion of the trustees and the availability of funds. Applications may be processed during the construction period so that a grant can be made as soon as all conditions have been met.

The Trustees of The Duke Endowment continue to look for new ways to help churches develop new programs in the area of parish development under the Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches program of The Duke Endowment. A significant program has been developed this year by the Midway Charge in the Greensboro District to provide a ministry to migrant workers in that area. Grants have also been made in both Annual Conferences for Black parish development.

It is especially notable that the first Benjamin N. Duke Fellow will be attending the Duke University Divinity School in September under the Continuing Education Program. We anticipate a second Fellow in January 1981. We hope that more pastors will avail themselves of this opportunity for study and revitalization by returning to the Divinity School for a semester.

One final development needs to be reported. A recommendation is before the Trustees of The Duke Endowment that beginning with 1981 the stipend for summer Assistant Pastors (both ten-week placements and twelve-week placements) and for Student Interns be $200 per week instead of the current rate of $175. It is also being recommended that the stipend for Winter Assistant Pastors be increased from $1,400 to $1,600.

DIVISION OF LAY LIFE AND WORK

The Division of Lay Life and Work represents the 99.6% of the membership of the United Methodist Church who are lay men, women, youth and children. This is their report to this session of Annual Conference.

Lay Rallies

More than 3,500 persons attended the 1980 rallies. Speakers included the Reverends Lea Joyner, Ross Freeman, Howard Allred and Eddie Fox. The theme for most of the rallies was Evangelism. Lay speakers were recognized and an offering was taken for scholarships to our colleges. The district lay rallies continue to be a vital force in our Conference.

January Workshops

Each year in early January, training for local church leaders is offered at a two hour district workshop. 2,957 persons attended the 1980 workshops and 13,430 persons have attended in the past four years. In 1980, 120 volunteer leaders helped with the seventeen different classes. Other Annual Conferences are now following our example. We feel that this training event is essential to the life of our Conference.

Lay Speaker Training

Certified lay speakers represent an untapped potential for leadership at the local church, district and conference levels. While the lay speaker program came into being for the purpose of filling empty pulpits during Lent, that purpose has been greatly broadened. Lay speakers now assist in worship services, teach classes, visit nursing homes and prisons, lead Bible study, and are engaged in many other supportive ministries. Training has been offered in most of our districts and both basic and advanced training is offered each year at Conference Leadership School.

Conference Leadership School

We urge the lay and clerical membership of our Conference to support Conference Leadership School by seeing that each local church is well represented at this time of enrichment and training.

United Methodist Men

A strong Conference organization is being developed. An Annual Rally has been held, officers have been elected for the Conference and seven Districts have elected Presidents. The Annual Conference United Methodist Mens' Rally will be held Saturday, October 25 at St. Paul UMC, Goldsboro. Put this on your calendar now.

1981 Programs

Our highly successful programs of Lay Rallies and January Workshops will continue and the Division will again emphasize United Methodist Men and the role of the Lay Speaker. It is our hope that many Districts will have a Spiritual Life Retreat for both laity and clergy.

Lay Person of the Year

Each Annual Conference the Division recognizes one outstanding lay person who symbolizes the other two hundred and twelve thousand, six hundred and fifty two (212,652) lay persons who make up the North Carolina Conference. The 1980 Lay Person of the Year is Mr. W. C. Chadwick.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

Local Churches Increase Christian Education Involvement

In 1979, local churches in our conference showed an increase in the number of persons involved in Christian education opportunities. Exciting new settings for learning experiences were reflected in a gain of almost ten percent in short-term class attendance and a plus of better than 6% in on-going class and group activities. This is the fourth straight year that the total number in study and learning experiences has improved.

Average attendance at the Sunday Church School declined to 54,494. Youth enrollment showed the greatest drop (four percent), but the number of members of the Church School received on Confession of Faith increased and the youth taking part in conference-wide events grew. The strong link between evangelism and Christian education was shown in the fact that seventy percent (70%) of those who made professions of faith came through the Church School.

All Ages Take Advantage of Four Conference Camps

Nearly 11,000 persons attended our four Conference camps last year. The most heavily used was Camp Chestnut Ridge which attracted 3,630 persons. Camp Don-Lee reached more than 3,000 for the first time in its history. Although Camp Rockfish was closed for several months prior to the employment of a full-time director-manager, attendance almost equalled the preceding year's, and indeed the summer usage doubled. The activities at Camp Kerr Lake reflected a three percent increase in attendance.

The Division of Education has adopted a timetable for the securing of a full-time director-manager for Camp Chestnut Ridge in 1982. The will give us similar positions at three of our camps.

Leadership Development Offers Help To The Local Church

2,185 persons were involved in leadership development events related to educational ministry in 1979. One highlight was the growing use of the Christian Workers School setting. The number of schools more than doubled and there was a ninety percent gain in enrollment. At Conference Leadership School, educational ministry classes were taken by 387 persons.

Vacation Church School workshops Summertime Learning Institutes gave help for workers with children. Youth Ministry Enrichment Teams and Young Adult Ministry Enrichment Teams worked in a number of churches. In the January Workshops, 991 persons took part in courses designed to strengthen educational ministries. Special schools were offered for Native American and for Black educational leaders.

DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

"Proclaim the Word"

"A great experience" . . . "Best attended services we have ever had" . . . "A new spirit in our church" . . . "A new comradeship among ministers of the Conference" . . . "Lay participation was great" . . . "More enthusiasm among Methodist people than I have ever known" . . . Such positive comments about the "Proclaim The Word" event reflect the intense preparation and timing of this Jurisdiction-wide venture. We thank God for the many ways that He blessed — in the Training Events for Clergy and Laity, in the 12,000 plus visits, in the decisions of 461 persons to commit themselves to Christ in the fellowship of His church. The Proclamation of God's Word for response, the average nightly attendance of 83, the intensive and well-receive publicity efforts, the development of a 4-year plan of Evangelism at the local church level, the massive involvement in prayer — all are reminders of an event that should reach far into the future. And more importantly, they are reminders of a God willing to bless and wanting to do a new thing in our day.

To be sure, there were some scattered criticisms of this event, particularly where the host church or the visiting minister had not prepared well. But the overwhelming response was positive and enthusiastic. The important thing now is that we build on and seize the opportunity of this new momentum in Evangelism as we strive for a net gain of 19,000 new members in our Conference by 1984. Specific recommendations of where to go from here will soon be set forth.

Six Major Evangelism Thrusts

It is important that we view the "Proclaim The Word" event in the context of our jurisdiction's six major Evangelism thrusts planned by 1984. Besides "Proclaim The Word", the other five dimensions include: (1) Establishment of Membership Growth Goals at the Conference and local church levels. (2) Incorporation of the principles of the Church Growth movement in our understanding of and planning for Evangelism. (3) Widespread use by local churches of relevant Board of Discipleship programs and approaches, including the Comprehensive Plan of Evangelism and Guidebook for Evangelism in the Local Church. (4) Involvement of large numbers of laypersons in ongoing Evangelism, especially through "Spread the Word", Visitation Evangelism, and a Lenten Prayer and Visitation Program. (5) Establishment of new congregations. This is not a time for timidity, but for wise and determined efforts to hold forth faith in Jesus Christ and commitment to Him in the fellowship of His church as a live option for every person.

To assist our Conference in these major Evangelism thrusts, during the next four years, we have seven persons in our Conference who have become certified Church Growth Consultants. This certification process included a five-day school in Atlanta, Georgia, extensive background reading, and completion of a Church Growth Study in a local church. These consultants are prepared to work with individual churches, clusters of churches, or in seminars on a district level. You may schedule one of these persons by contacting the office of the Director of the Council on Ministries.

The Church School

Another means of strengthening the local church in the area of Evangelism is through the Church School. Your Division of Evangelism is preparing a packet of creative evangelism materials for Church School teachers. These packets will be available in early fall and we would hope that every pastor will study these materials carefully, and that assistance will be given to the Church School teachers in the use of these fresh and innovative tools.

Coastal Ministries

The division is pleased to report that our five Coastal Ministries (Seaman's Center, Agape House, Circus Tent, Federal Point, and Bogue Banks) continue to be effective. They give vibrant and helpful ministry to these varied and unique coastal areas.

Membership Growth

It should be pointed out that the North Carolina Conference, in the last four years, has had a net gain in membership in spite of the continued decline in church membership in other conferences across the church. We are once again seeing the importance of establishing new churches in carefully selected communities.

Evangelism is . . . not a special activity for special people at a special time; it is the normal activity for all church people, all the time. Your Division of Evangelism calls upon every pastor, every lay person, and every church to continue in the following:

- a) PROCLAMATION — Getting the Word out.
- b) ENLISTING persons in the Fellowship.
- c) INFLUENCING those who are enlisted to faith in Christ and discipleship commitments.
- d) NURTURING these disciples in growth toward maturity.
- e) INVOLVING all the disciples in ministry.

To do the above will assist us in our evangelistic tasks, enabling every local church to be a center for growing discipleship.

DIVISION OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

Health and Welfare is the "Helping and Healing" ministry of the Church. Love and care and concern for the broken, the sick, the troubled, the forsaken of God's people. . .that is the vital mission of Health and Welfare Ministries.

Vassar W. Jones, Chairperson

Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

In Durham and Lumberton you made possible for us to care for more than 445 people in our facilities. We were able to provide $272,000 in benevolent care for our Methodist members who were unable to pay their way in full. Chaplain Kelly Wilson, III was added to our staff to fill the spiritual needs of our residents and patients. Mr. Frank D. Bullock has filled and completed the staff of the Coble Health Care Center as Administrator. Renovations to the dining room and kitchen are almost complete and a delight to the residents of the home. 1980 promises to be a good year as we hope to start planning to build some apartments at Wesley Pines and to continue long-range planning for our facilities.

W. Don Penley, Executive Director

Methodist Home for Children

At the Methodist Home for Children, 1979 has been a year of change and transition with the retirement of Dr. T. Marvin Vick and with Rev. Edward C. Elliott beginning as the new Executive Director in August, 1979. In January, 1980, the Board of Trustees approved a new five year plan of expansion which calls for a more sophisticated program of residential care as well as programs of group home care, foster family care, emergency care, and family counseling. Through this plan, the home will become a multi-service child care agency with a family focus. It will provide better child care services to all 56 counties of the Conference through the establishment of five family support centers in five cities of the Conference. Through these new decentralized programs, we will be able to serve many more children, youths, and families than the 50 youth on our present campus.

Edward C. Elliott, Executive Director

The Good Shepherd Home

We had some seventy-five men that completed our program in 1979; thirty of these men have maintained sobriety. We are setting our goal for at least one hundred men in 1980. For 1980, we must complete renovations to meet state and federal requirements. To do this, our budget for the coming year will have to reach a goal of $120,000. This will include our outreach and follow-up program which is greatly needed.

David W. Jay, Director

SEMAR

SEMAR, Across the Southeastern Jurisdiction has promoted: the Steps-Up Early Childhood Screening Program at Meharry Medical Center, Nashville, Tennessee and at Fort Lauderdale, Florida; the Bad-dour Memorial Center, Inc. in Senatobia, Miss., a home and village for older mentally retarded people; has been involved in the National Task Force on the Church and Persons with Handicapping Conditions; and many other activities for the mentally retarded people. Here in our Conference, the Yolanda Jones Developmental Center at Louisburg, for pre-school mentally retarded children, now has permanent federal funding; many churches are involved in providing camping scholarships for mentally retarded children in our church camps; and the Chapels for the North Carolina Centers for the Retarded, Inc. is still an opportunity for churches. The Methodist Home for Children has in its long-range plans service to the mentally retarded.

Vassar W. Jones, Chairperson

Golden Cross

Golden Cross is a fund of our Conference which gives financial assistance to United Methodists who are in extreme financial need because of hospital or medical bills which are beyond their ability to pay. In 1979, we received 34 applications for help coming from 11 of our districts. $13,845.15 was paid out for applications for help. The Good Shepherd Home received $3,000, and the Duke Chaplain's Service received $5,500 from Golden Cross Funds. The local United Methodist minister initiates the application along with the local church Health and Welfare representative. It is then sent to the district Health and Welfare representative.

Robert Wallace, Director

Duke Hospital Chaplaincy Program

It is my responsibility to see that adequate pastoral care and counsel is provided for our patients, family members, and staff. It is estimated that the Chaplains Service saves Duke Hospital approximately $50,000 per year by using chaplains in training to provide a sizeable portion of the pastoral care. I must maintain a staff of fifteen to twenty chaplains at any given time in order to meet the pastoral care and counseling demands. All clergy who want their parishoners visited by the chaplain staff of Duke Hospital need to notify us at the time of admission. I average seeing ten patients, family members or staff each day. In 1979, my staff and I visited approximately 4,980 patients and families, an average of three visits each. Of those patients and families, 10% to 15% were known to be United Methodists. It is my goal over the next three years to add to my senior staff a black, clinically trained hospital chaplain. It is our intention that our staff have a proportionate representation of blacks and women.

P. Wesley Aitken, Director

GOLDEN CROSS REPORT

Golden Cross is a concrete way we fulfill Christ's directive to extend assistance to the sick and needy in His name. This is done in three ways:

1. Individual grants (up to $600) to fellow United Methodists for medical related expenses in extreme hardship situations.
2. Support of Duke Medical Center Chaplains Ministry ($5500)
3. Support of Good Shepherd Home for Alcoholics ($3000).

In 1979, we helped 34 persons with individual grants averaging $407 each. Already in 1980, we have assisted 12 persons with an average of $435 each.

I'd like to share with you two brief excerpts of thanks we have received for Golden Cross help.

First from a recipient:

I am writing to let you know how very much I and my family appreciated the help we got from the Golden Cross. It came at a time when we desperately needed it. I have been a member of (name) United Methodist Church for 54 of my 63 years of life. I had heard of Golden Cross and the good work it does; now I know from personal experience. Please convey my thanks to your committee.

Then from a physician:

I do wish to express my deepest appreciation for the help that you provided (name). We had hoped that he was permanently free from Hodgkin's Disease, but we discovered — much to our regret — evidence of recurrence which required additional treatment.

Aside from whatever financial assistance you provided to (name) and his family, there is the loving concern which your assistance carries with it. We wish to join the family in thanking you for both of these aspects of your help. (Dr. Campbell McMillan, Prof. of Pediatrics, N.C. Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill, N.C.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert L. Wallace, Conf. Dir.

INSURANCE COMMITTEE

Recent information provided the Insurance Committee by Blue Cross & Blue Shield of North Carolina indicates that there has been a significant increase in claims paid under our group health insurance plan in recent months. For the three month period from January 1, 1980 to April 1, 1980, claims paid under the plan, plus the cost of plan administration, exceeded premiums by $15,625. Our Consultants, Hutchison and Associates, Inc., informs us that there has been a general increase in health insurance losses as a result of fairly substantial increases in hospital and physician charges during the past year. Based on their analysis of our situation, it is their opinion that if claims continue to increase at the present level, it is possible that we will be facing a premium rate increase on January 1, 1981 with the amount of the increase ranging from 18% to 25% depending on the extent to which claim charges continue to increase. Of course, if claim charges level out or decrease, the effect of the rate increase would not be as great.

Blue Cross & Blue Shield of North Carolina provides the Insurance Committee with a formal renewal report in September of each year and the Committee holds a formal meeting to discuss the results of the analysis of this report by Hutchison and Associates, Inc. and decides on the renewal action to be taken. You will be informed of this decision as soon as possible following the meeting.

Losses under our group life insurance program are running at a favorable level and at this point we do not anticipate any increase in costs for group life insurance coverages.

THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

How we appreciate the many expressions of interest and concern for the Retirement Homes of eastern North Carolina! Without the understanding of each church of our Conference and the concern displayed by the many individuals within the churches, your Homes would be far less able to engage in the pursuit of growing service to our older and predominately Methodist citizens of our Conference. This year has brought even more requests and inquiries from Methodists all over our Conference. We rejoice that this important extension ministry of your division of Health and Welfare Ministries has provided cooperative retirement in a happy Home and a quality health care environment for more than 445 people during the 1979 calendar year. It is proper that your three facilities for retirement and health care should remain full, yet we find ourselves faced with a waiting list that leaves us always hoping that we can find room for one more! We hope the waiting list does not cause you to fail to make early application for Membership in The Home and that those now waiting will not grow discouraged for we will see that all who seek and are qualified will be served in a manner that befits not only the nature of The Home but also your expectations of this particular ministry that you help provide. Loving and caring and providing for the highest possible quality of life is what your Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. is all about! Currently at the Durham Retirement Home, the Joseph F. Coble Health Care Center and the Wesley Pines Home and Health Care Center in Lumberton, we are serving more than 380 Residents and Patients in your name. Through your gifts and prayerful concern, we are enabled to be an arm of your Christian concern providing a 24 hour day, 366 day ministry in 1980!

With the growing need for more facilities to serve this spectrum of a longer living, healthier and happier latter third of life, we urge you to join with the recommendation of the Long Range Planning Committee of our Board of Trustees in a consistent vision to look toward the mandate of the future and to think about the need and the possibilities for a wider ministry to the aging within our Conference.

By no means can we adequately express our appreciation for the funds that your Homes receive through the outreach ministries fair-share apportionment of our Church. Our Board of Trustees, staff and Members want you to know that every dollar provides direct benevolent assistance to the Methodist Members of our Conference. These funds are used for this purpose alone and along with these and some additional gifts and thoughtful remembrances in wills and through bequests, we have found it possible to achieve the real benevolent mission that you have rightly expected of us. During 1979 we provided more than $272,000.00 in direct aid to our Methodist Members, who because of the frightful inflationary spiral, have found themselves without sufficient funds to cover the expenses of providing essential quality services. In accordance with your expressed interests as to how these funds are spent, we are providing a breakdown of the utilization on a case by case basis — no names of course — as follows:

4 - REPORT TO: The 1980 Annual Conference

We hope that this will demonstrate our actual needs and you will realize that as the cost of living goes up, these figures will of necessity go up as well. In addition we have many "inflation trapped" applicants we want to serve. Thus, we prayerfully seek your understanding of the growing need for benevolent funds, unashamedly request your direct gifts and participation in our investment plans just as much as we solicit your daily prayerful concern for this ministry. Never hesitate to contact the Executive Director or one of the Administrators for materials about The Homes and the Health Care facilities available and applications for Membership. Above all, remember that the latch string is always out and we invite you to come and see for yourself what your Homes in eastern North Carolina are doing. Visit us and talk with us about the role you can play in this ministry.

Highlights of the year's work include:

- award of full Certification to all three facilities with special emphasis on excellence by the Certification Council of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries of The United Methodist Church.
- eighty-five per cent completion of the renovation of the kitchen, dining rooms, craft and activity areas, assembly room, and mail facility on the ground floor of the Durham Retirement Home as well as modifications in the second floor section for the Infirmary and special needs for the aging which have required some renovation.
- the continuation of the renovation and re-decoration of other public areas of the Durham Home and Wesley Pines.
- the successful implementation of a Chaplaincy program under the leadership of Chaplain Kelly J. Wilson, III
- the use of good stewardship in the centralization of as many departments as possible within the Corporation.
- the employment of an additional professionally licensed Nursing Home Administrator who acts as Administrator of the Joseph F Coble Health Care Center.
- the establishment of employee incentive programs and annual awards including especially designed pins for long and faithful service to the Corporation.
- began a training program for our Patient Care Assistants with Durham Technical Institute providing the instruction to enhance the professionalism of patient care.
- the activation of our Long Range Planning Committee to look for potential resourceful and strategic areas which might constitute

- location for an additional Retirement Home in the eastern portion of our Conference in line with the approval given by previous sessions of The North Carolina Annual Conference.
- the beginning of a feasibility study to examine potential computer assistance in lowering the cost of routine administrative and book-keeping tasks.
- the establishment of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated Pooled Income Fund to provide a life-time income combined with a charitable investment in the future for everyone interested in The Homes. This fund is recognized by the IRS. Write for a brochure and prospectus.
- continuing to encourage each church and organization within the church to set aside Mother's Day as a special time during which the needs of our work may be explained to every Methodist of our Conference.

We want you to continue to be proud of the quality of the ministries that you are offering through this sector of the Church. Again, we reassure you that despite some negative publicity concerning non-profit communities in other areas of the country that your Retirement Homes are not and will not find themselves in that unfortunate situation. To provide you with a visual concept of this we will be glad to send you a copy of our annual report and a full copy of our annual audit as in the office of the Conference Treasurer, in the office of the Executive Director, and in the office of each of the Administrators. You are invited to come and review it when you visit or at your convenience.

We believe that you would like to join with the Members and staff in expressing deep appreciation for the numerous hours contributed to the ministry of our Home by a dedicated Board of Trustees and by the local Committees for the Durham and Lumberton facilities. Together we join with you in expressing gratitude for their tireless concern and most needed help.

If you have any questions, or if we can be of any service to you, please do not hesitate to get in touch with the Executive Director or the Administrators of the Durham Retirement Home, the Coble Health Care Center, and the Wesley Pines Home in Lumberton.

Thank you for your continued interest and growing support of this ministry which is an aspect of present and future concern in the name of our aging Christian brothers and sisters and thus in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour.

Our Conference Colleges

Louisburg College, Methodist College, and North Carolina Wesleyan College receive all their support from our Conference College Sustaining and College Capital Improvement Funds. We commend the President, faculty, and staff of each of these fine institutions for their outstanding work; and we urge our Methodist youth to give serious consideration to attending one of these fine institutions.

College Monitoring Committee

The Conference College Monitoring Committee was to have made a report to the 1980 session of the North Carolina Conference, but it is our understanding that no report is to be made. The College Presidents meet with the division and keep us posted on the work of each college; and they submit written reports so that the division may keep abreast of enrollment, indebtedness, and other matters related to college life. We are grateful for these standardized reports and feel that each of our colleges is making progress.

Blackburn Scholarship

The Blackburn Scholarship was established in 1976, and is the only scholarship administered by the division. We will continue to award the scholarship a year to a freshman entering Louisburg College, Methodist College, or NC Wesleyan College. If the student maintains "B" average, the scholarship will be worth $2,000 over a four-year period.

Ministers in Residence

Ministers from our Conference provide a "Ministers-in-Residence" program for one week at Louisburg College, Methodist College, and NC Wesleyan College. Pastors interested in participating in this ministry are invited to make arrangements through their District superintendent.

Campus Ministries

The Regional Commission on Campus Ministry made up of representatives from the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conference has supervised the Campus Ministries at 13 state related institutions of higher education. Work has been under way to improve and restructure our Campus Ministries; and by-laws for a proposed "North Carolina State Commission on Campus Ministry" will be submitted to the 1980 sessions of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences.

DIVISION OF ECUMENICAL AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Our Apportionment to the North Carolina Council of Churches is $10,000 for 1981:

This Division continues its advocacy on behalf of our involvement in the North Carolina Council of Churches. Our 1981 contribution to the Council's Budget represents a $400 increase over 1980.

Our Conference's principal ecumenical commitment is through our membership in the North Carolina Council. In 1981, the Western North Carolina Conference will contribute $14,800 to the Council's Budget, thus making United Methodists the leading contributors.

Our Division has distributed copies of the new special issue of the Church Council Bulletin throughout our Conference, interpreting the history of the work of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

We welcome to this Conference session the new Executive Director of the North Carolina Council of Churches, Reverend Collins Kilburn. He served formerly as the Director of Christian Social Ministries of the N. C. Council; is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ and was formerly a United Methodist Minister.

Copies of the New Filmstrip "Unity A Visible Gift"

Now in Media Center:

The Media Center in Raleigh has been given 2 copies of this helpful, informative filmstrip interpreting the program and status of the Consultation on church union, by this Division. Also, 3 copies of the excellent filmstrip describing the whys and wherefores of the ecumenical movement are available for local church use at the Media Center at the Conference building in Raleigh, N. C., entitled, Weaving The Fabric of Unity.

About the National Council of Churches and the World Council of Churches:

This Division has devoted some of its leadership and finances to interpreting the much publicized and misunderstood World Council of Churches Humanitarian grants to the Program to Combat Racism to the Patriotic Front in Zimbabwe-Rhodesia. Information packets, prepared by the Methodist Division of Ecumenical Concerns, detailing the facts about this program have been sent throughout our Conference. Further information has been sent to all Conference pastors through Coordinated Mailings. Materials interpreting the program and policies of both The National Council of Churches and the World Council of Churches have been sent to local pastors. The 1980 Pentecost message from the 6 Presidents of the World Council of Churches was distributed throughout the Conference in the May Coordinated Mailing.

Roman Catholic-Methodist Pilot Dialogue Planned for 1981:

This Division is planning for the first N. C. Conference Methodist-Catholic Dialogue session to be held in 1981. Funds have been budgeted for this event which parallels similar sessions being held at the National level and by the Western N. C. Conference. D. Claude Broach, Director of the Ecumenical Institute at Wake Forest - Belmont Abbey has met with this Division for preliminary planning and discussion of this event. He will be available for future planning and leadership.

An Ecumenical Ideabook:

This booklet outlining ecumenical activities and projects in which Methodists of our N. C. Conference are participating has been compiled and published by this Division and distributed among local churches. It will hopefully be stimulating and helpful for ministers and local church leaders as they plan local ecumenical experiences and activities.

N. C. Conference Supports Refugee Resettlement:

We are proud that our Conference under the leadership of Bishop Robert Blackburn, has granted a special apportionment of $900 as our share in the N. C. Refugee Resettlement Program sponsored by the N. C. Council of Churches. A grant from Church World Service and matching amounts raised by other N. C. Christian Churches and Denominations has made it possible for this exciting and new ministry of the ecumenical movement to get underway.

Interdenominational Cooperation Fund — Interpretation and Promotion Underway:

A new basic informational leaflet entitled "United Is Not Our Middle Name," suitable as a church bulletin insert has been sent to all pastors. This excellent piece provides helpful facts about our traditional Methodist involvement and commitment to the program and activities of the National and World Council of Churches as well as the Consultation on Church Union, Religions in American Life and the General Commission of Chaplaincy, all which are supported by the one million dollars Interdenominational Cooperation Fund. This should be widely distributed in all our churches and especially to key Stewardship and Finance Leadership.

Christian Unity "Imperatives and New Commitments":

1000 copies of this important statement expressing Biblical and theological Methodist basis for ecumenical involvements were distributed to the 1979 sessions of our N. C. Conference. Additional copies may be obtained from the Division Chairman and Reverend Jim McCallum at the Methodist Building.

Our New Name:

We are happy to announce that as a result of recent General Conference legislation this Division becomes the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. This new name also applies to this agency at the National level removing it from the Board of Global Ministries and the local church work area will carry the new name also.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER'S REPORT

Bishop Blackburn, Members and Delegates.— During the past year, I met all meetings that I was expected to attend with four exceptions, which occurred as the result of conflicts or an appointment out of date at the time.

I have enjoyed several of the Lay Rallies, getting to know you, finding answers to questions some of you have, representing you at conferences and agency meetings and, generally, trying to support lay involvement throughout the conference. It is my hope that the answers, the support and the representation have aided in making lay activities more effective in the conference. I have had excellent cooperation from the Bishop, the cabinet and the program staff. Questions to them are answered quickly, problems suggested to the staff have been dealt with promptly.

The North Carolina Conference has an active division of Lay Life and Work. January Workshops, Leadership Conference and Lay Speaker Training all are functioning well. United Methodist Women, United Methodist Youth are well organized in most instances. They have clearly defined roles in the church, are well respected and supportive. They both have good leaders, support and planning.

Our United Methodist Men are beginning to show good progress. They are now organized at conference and district levels, and are beginning to build program, projects and leadership potential for the church.

Our Lay Rallies were successful again this year, though we still need to do a little more advance planning and better communication within the districts. Early this Fall, all district lay leaders will meet to plan for next year's activities.

There is one area in which the lay leaders of this conference are having some difficulty. With few exceptions, lay persons are well represented on all conference boards and agencies. I realize that oftentimes these boards, agencies or divisions call their meetings at a time that is extremely difficult for lay persons to attend. Even with an emphasis upon a time more convenient for laity, the attendance by lay persons has been weak at many conference boards and agencies. I again urge all conference boards, agencies and divisions to plan their meetings at a time that is considerate of the lay persons' ability to be present.

In this coming quadrennium, there will be more lay persons elected to the conference boards and agencies. This is in keeping with the provisions of the discipline, and has been honored by the Nominating Committee of the districts and the conference. This will give the laity more input into conference decisions. However, There will be no more input unless we lay people make every effort to attend or take an active role in those elected positions.

Several years ago, the Bishop appointed a committee to study the nominations process in the conference. That committee met and submitted a report at the last Annual Conference. That report created an Annual Conference Nominating Committee and District Nominating Committees. This structure gives the lay people input at the district level to make sure that competent and active lay people would receive nominations to the Annual Conference Nominating Committee. The lay people had input to all these committees. Now, it is up to us to see to it that the persons so nominated will represent us on the conference boards and agencies.

Now, I have two suggestions for the laity. —

First, we must do far better than we are now doing in the Ten Dollar Club. There was a time when the Ten Dollar Club was twice as large as it now is. The Ten Dollar Club makes a dramatic difference in the ability of the conference to establish new churches. I urge every minister and every lay leader throughout the conference to go back to his/her church, and actively promote membership in the Ten Dollar Club.

Second, the laity of the N. C. Annual Conference need to prayerfully consider the results of Proclamation Evangelism. Then, they must prayerfully consider their personal role in Proclamation Evangelism.

Many of our lay persons have felt that Proclamation Evangelism was a substitute for a one-week summer-revival. Nothing could be further from the fact. Proclamation Evangelism was to call each one of us - to personal evangelism. For laity this reinforces the growing concept across Methodism that lay people are in ministry, and that lay ministry is, to a large extent, lay evangelism.

Each church must look to its structure; to make certain that there are Visitation Committees or Visitation Teams, or methods by which lay are involved in lay evangelism in that church. We must make the process of lay Evangelism more personal. Christ's great command "Go ye into all the world" was not directed to the conference evangelist, the Bishops, district superintendents and ministers — it was directed to all Christians. It did not mean that you had to go somewhere to be an evangelist, it meant that ALL THE WORLD AROUND YOU - your community, where you work, where you play, where you worship, your home — was a place for your Christian witness and lay evangelism.

All too often, lay persons are passive church goers — not active, concerned, lay evangelists. We lose sight of the fact that the most effective evangelism for the average Methodist is to be aware of the needs of his friends and invite those in search or need of a church home to come visit in your church. It's as simple as inviting a friend or an unchurched person to come to visit your Sunday School class, your Men's Club, a youth meeting, or to worship with you in church. When we bring that unchurched person into our Methodist churches, we no longer stand alone in the task of evangelism — for then, we have the support of the minister, the choir, and the program of the church. Your minister will be happy to have you bring visitors to the church to seek out the unchurched and invite them to come to the church. An initial contact by a lay person, expressing genuine concern, and then bringing someone to church makes the pastor's job much easier.

Let us think for a moment — yes, let us even dream for a moment. Suppose every church member in the N.C. Conference simply invited one person or one family to accompany them to their Sunday School class and church, and told them of the strength of the church and the nurch's program. If we have 212,000 Methodist in the N.C. Conference, I wonder what the results would be if 212,000 visitors came to our church...Mind you, I am saying that all you do is ask ONE person, just ONE person each year.

What we discuss is church growth — we are not discussing the role of the ministry. We are discussing the role of the laity as led by the ministers. If our laity took it upon themselves, simply to invite one person a year and each church follows up that visit, the statistical evidence of the Methodist church indicates we would have a tremendous growth in the N. C. Conference.

Let us not, as lay persons, criticize any decline in the Methodist church until we have done our part by inviting someone to come with us to our church or, until we have spoken to someone outside the church of the program and the outreach of our church. This is Proclamation Evangelism. This is our lay role to proclaim the word or to bring the people into the church where they can hear the word proclaimed by our ministers.

Let us go back to our churches and dedicate ourselves and the leaders of our church to effectively promote Proclamation Evangelism as individual Christians in our community. When we realize it is as easy as to invite someone to share with us the strengths and the faiths of our church then we shall begin to realize how easy proclamation Evangelism can be. Now let's practice what we laypersons talk about — Evangelism.

Let us go home from this conference as lay people committed to the fact that Proclamation Evangelism is OUR PROCLAMATION AND OUR EVANGELISM IN STRENGTHENING OUR LORD'S CHURCH.

This has been a good year for us. There have been successes and some problems. We are especially proud of the start we have had in proclamation Evangelism. The laity expect, and they have, leadership, spiritual guidance and love from our ministers. The clergy must expect and receive from the laity support and encouragement to make our churches an inspiration in our communities. This has been a good year, but remember, the best is yet to come.

Thank you.
Dr. Richard Pearce

METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The past year, our 25th, again reflects a very favorable performance for the Methodist Foundation, Inc. For the year ending December 31, 1979, net dividends paid to unit holders was $565,894.00 — representing by far the largest amount paid since our beginning. Our net growth in assets for the year was $1,200,450.00 — representing $804,439.00 from the sale of new units; $447,725.00 from reinvestment of dividends; less $51,714.00 net realized loss from security transactions. Our total net assets had a year-end market value of $7,799,866.00 — compared to $6,599,416.00 at the beginning of 1979.

The Foundation is ever aware of our total responsibility for investment of funds of the Conference, and especially are we aware of the fact that over 83% of the assets of the Foundation are investments of the Board of Pensions and the Ministers Retirement Fund. Accordingly, member representation on the Board of Trustees and the Investment Committee was increased this year to reflect this trend. We are pleased to report that during the past year, earnings of the Foundation have again exceeded the actuarial criteria set as a minimum by the Board of Pensions.

On April 1, 1979, the Trust Department of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company was engaged to manage the total investment portfolio (exclusive of mortgage loans) with discretionary investment authority within policy guidelines provided by the Investment Committee. The new arrangement, so far, has proven to be most satisfactory.

On January 1, 1979, the Foundation assumed responsibility for operating and directing the office of Deferred Giving. A three year funding request was prepared and presented to the Annual Conference in June of 1979. This request was narrowly defeated, necessitating further study and evaluation.

It was then concluded that the activities of this office would be limited, at this time, until a conference-wide effort could be better justified. In the meantime, your Foundation is giving further study to this important area of stewardship.

There is reason to believe that the current year will reflect continued progress in the overall performance of the Methodist Foundation, Inc.

Sincerely,

S. L. Gullledge, Jr.
President

METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN

A Five Year Plan is Developed

The eighties will be exciting times in the life of the Methodist Home for Children as we begin our expanded program of services to children, youths, and families in your name and in the name of Christ. As you know, this expanded program had its beginnings back in 1976 when a Study Commission on Child Care was appointed by the North Carolina Conference. This Commission studied the needs of children living within the bounds of the Conference and how the Home could best help to meet these needs. Last August, I became your new Executive Director. My main task has been the implementation of the recommendations of this Study Commission. Last fall, in cooperation with the Program Steering Committee and the Executive Committee, we developed a five year plan. In January, this plan was presented to and approved unanimously by the full Board of Trustees.

By 1985, we hope to have in place five Family Support Centers in five Districts of our Conference in addition to the central offices in Wake County. Each Family Support Center will be staffed by at least three professional persons. One person will be a Family Life Specialist who will be responsible for family counseling while the children are still with their natural parents. This person will also provide family life education opportunities for church and community groups. A Foster Family Services Social Worker will work with foster families. A Community-Based Group Home Specialist will develop group homes in the District.

New Approach Will Meet Goals

This new approach means that we will be moving from a centralized to a decentralized program of child care. We will be changing from an institutional one-service approach to a multi-service community-based approach. This new approach will help us to achieve three important goals:

1. To provide better quality services to children, youths, and families in all Districts of the Conference.
2. To "mainstream" the young people as we serve them in their own communities. This means that we will help these youths to have their needs met in the public schools, churches, recreational facilities, and the work areas of their own communities.
3. To serve children in the "least restrictive environment". Through family counseling we will serve them first while they are still with their natural families. If they need substitute care, first we will attempt to find mature foster families who can meet their special needs. If this is not possible, we will meet their needs in residential or community-based group homes.

New Programs Begin

Already we are taking our first steps in this expanding program. Our Foster Family Services Program began on May 15, when Mike Hauser became our first Director of this new Department. He is a social worker with 13 years of experience. Initially, he will be working with foster families within a radius of 50 miles of Raleigh. However, as the program expands, Foster Family Services will be provided throughout the North Carolina Conference. Secondly, through the services of one of our social workers, Doris Wilkins, we have begun an outreach ministry of family counseling to those families while the children are still at home. Thirdly, on June 30, our new Program Director, David Smart, will begin developing our more sophisticated program of care which is called the Teaching Family Model. Our six cottages will be changed into six campus-based group homes. This Teaching Family Model will help us to provide better care and treatment to neglected, dependent, abused youths who are also, sometimes, undisciplined and have emotional and behavioral problems.

Concerning the sale of the present property, it has been put in the hands of realtors but no decision has been made at this time. Sometime in the future, the Trustees will present recommendations concerning this matter to the Cabinet and the Division of Health and Welfare for their consideration.

A Christian Ministry is Provided

There is a beautiful story in the Gospel of John concerning the hopelessly sick and crippled at the pool of Bethesda. A man had been waiting there for years to be lifted into the waters so that he could experience their healing powers. When Jesus approached, he said, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is troubled". The Methodist Home for Children ministers in your name and in the name of Christ to those who can honestly say, "I don't have anybody". Their need is a responsibility that you assist us in assuming.

It is a big task which will require much work and many difficult decisions. These decisions will include the sale of the present property, purchasing new sites for our decentralized approach, building new facilities, developing new programs, retraining our present staff, and employing new staff.

We are entering a new and challenging era of change and expansion. Our goals will provide us the maximum of flexibility and diversity to adequately meet child care needs in the present and to change to meet needs in the future. The need is great! There are hundreds of abused and troubled youths in eastern North Carolina who need our help.

Programs Need Your Help

We believe that we are moving in the right direction. Hopefully, our new programs will be models of the future for child care agencies. However, a lot of difficult hard work lies ahead. The Board, the Staff, and I cannot do it alone. We need your help! We need your prayers, cooperation, and financial support. With this support, the Lord will bless our efforts and we will be able to achieve these goals in the next five years.

Christ commanded his disciples in the first century and also in the twentieth century to "heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils, freely you have received, freely give".

METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION

Gloom is reported to so dominate the economic weather map that some are saying there is no sun. The last reporting period experienced the sharpest decline ever in the leading economic indicators. Whole industries are in trouble. Businesses are closing. Individual bankruptcies are soaring.

In the midst of all this there is a bright ray of light shining at MMCU. This is not to say we have not had our moments of gloom, but there have been breakthroughs all along the way to light our path.

A study of the balance sheets below will tell you of some of these rays of light. MMCU is out of the borrowed money market for the first time in many years. $150,500.00 was repaid between last conference and January, 1980. Deposit accounts are up by $127,134.82. Shares increased $12,587.61. The regular reserve is up by $611.08 after the write off of a few uncollectable loans. Fluid reserve is up by $62,987.77. A decrease of 3.9% in delinquent loans is not reflected in the balance sheets.

The moments of gloom that threatened through the years were these:

- Rising number of bankrupts,
- Restricting types of loans that could be made,
- Raising the interest charged on loans to members.

The Board of Directors was alert and responsive to the rapidly changing environment. The By-laws were amended to increase the par value of shares from $5.00 to $25.00. A penalty schedule was established for returned checks. New loan forms were approved and put into use to strengthen the position of the Credit Union. Credit history reported from an outside firm is now used in making loans. Financial counseling is being offered as an alternative to bankruptcy. The deposit program has been changed by adding "Silver Deposits" and making an automatic rate adjustment on the first of each calendar quarter. Written authorization is required to release credit history to individuals or other financial institutions.

The following is a list of interest rates being charged on loans of various classes:

1. 11% APR — Estate Loans (to purchase CU shares)
2. 13% APR
 - a. 100% Share-secured Loans
 - b. New Cars (36 months maximum maturity)
3. 14% APR
 - a. New Cars (37-48 months maturity)
 - b. Stocks (listed)
 - c. Bonds
 - d. Approved Co-maker(s)
 - e. Real Estate (first and second) Mortgage Loans - 36 months maximum maturity
 - f. Assignment of Cash Value of Life Insurance

4. 15%

- a. Signature Loans
- b. Used Cars
 - (1) One, two, or three years old — 36 months maximum maturity
 - (2) Four years old and over — 24 months maximum maturity
- c. Furniture, Appliances, Farm Equipment, etc.
- d. Mobile Homes
- e. Recreational Vehicles and Equipment (not available 6-1-80)

These seem sinfully high to us, but they are low by comparison. Last week we made a loan at 14% APR after the borrower had been quoted 22% APR by another lender. The other lender did not provide insurance against death, total and permanent disability as we do. These would have been added upon payment of two additional fees. Also attached is a description of some of our services.

The Board of Directors joins with me in thanking the conference for the privilege of making this report and to the members for their continued support and encouragement.

SERVICES OF METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION

Savings (The first $100,00.00 in shares and/or deposits in each person's account or accounts is protected by share guaranty insurance through NCSGC.)*

A. Personal Savings may be of three kinds:

1. Shares ($25.00 each) earn dividends and life insurance for eligible persons. The current dividend rate is 5.5% per annum compounded quarterly. Life insurance is provided without cost as a service of the Credit Union to each eligible member in relation to the first $3,000.00 invested in shares. The ratio is dollar for dollar on share investments made before age 55, and at a smaller ratio for funds invested between age 55 and 70. Double Indemnity is provided at age 65, as is accidental loss of sight and dismemberment of limb. Investments of less than $3,000.00 earn their pro rata part. This means that $3,000.00 invested before age 55 would yield $9,000.00 to your estate upon accidental death before age 65, plus all accumulated dividends. This insurance remains in force in the amount established at the time of investment so long as the shares remain in the Credit Union.
2. Golden Deposits and Silver Deposits are both preferred accounts. They may be bought by members after investment of the maximum shares earning life insurance—usually $3,000.00. All classes are compounded quarterly, making the annual yield higher than the nominal rate stated. All classes are limited issues, and may be issued or withdrawn from issue without notice as need of the Credit Union warrants.
 - a. Golden Deposit — Minimum of \$10,000.00 earns $\frac{1}{4}\%$ (25 basis points) less than the money market certificates on the first day of the quarter in which the investment is made.
 - b. Golden Deposit — Minimum of \$5,000.00 earns $\frac{1}{2}\%$ (50 basis points) less than the money market certificates on the first day of the quarter in which the investment is made.
 - c. Silver Deposit — Minimum of $1,000.00 earns 1% (100 basis points) less than the money market certificates on the first day of the quarter in which the investment is made.

Rates will be increased or decreased on the first day of each calendar quarter to conform with the appropriate rate ratio to money market certificates on that date. Written notice is required for withdrawal of these funds. They may be withdrawn on the first day of any quarter without penalty, provided written notice was received in the Credit Union office 30 days prior to the end of the previous dividend period. They may be withdrawn on the first day of any month with ten days written notice received in the Credit Union office prior to the end of the previous month, with a penalty of 2% below the established rate, but for the full time that the funds were on deposit.

3. Deposits. These are preferred accounts and may be opened by members only after the aggregate of the member's shares and/or Golden Deposits has reached $50,000.00. The minimum deposit to open the account is $100.00. These accounts may be added to in any amount at any time and may be withdrawn at any time as provided in the by-laws. They earn guaranteed interest. the current rate is 5.25% nominally, with an effective annual yield of 5.352%.

B. Churches

1. Golden Deposits and Silver Deposits are available under the same conditions as individuals, except for the required $3,000.00 share account. Churches cannot purchase shares.
2. Deposits are available under the same conditions as individuals, except for the requirement for share investment. The nominal rate is 6% compounded quarterly, for an effective annual yield of 6.1363%.
3. Promissory Notes for negotiated terms and negotiated rates guaranteed for the term of the note. These notes are not covered by guaranty insurance, but the total shares of the Credit Union are pledged as security.

Loans are of three kinds. Loan Protection insurance is provided without cost to the debtor on all insurable loans up to $10,000.00 for each borrower. The coverage is for death to age 70 and total and permanent disability to age 60.

- A. Estate Loans are for the purpose of buying Credit Union shares and are made at 11% APR. Dividends on $3,000.00, when compounded quarterly at 5.5% per annum, total $532.57 at the end of 36 months. The interest paid on the note in 36 months is $535.80. The net cost to the investor is $3.23! For this cost the investor has the following protection in force for his/her family for 36 months:

$3,000.00	in Shares
$3,000.00	Life Insurance
$3,000.00	Double Indemnity, accidental loss of sight or dismemberment of limbs
$1,500.00	Average Loan Protection insurance coverage against death to age 70 and total and permanent disability to age 60

- B. Personal Loans are made for any provident or productive purpose. There are two types of these:

1. Secured — These range in rate from 13% APR to 15% APR and may be for 36 months generally. New cars (current models) may be financed for up to 48 months, but at a higher interest rate than when financed for 36 months. Loans for used cars four or more model years old are limited to 24 months.

2. Unsecured - These are made without pledge of collateral equal in value to the amount of the note. These are made at 15% APR.

The rate charged on various loans is related to the risk assumed by the CU.

Real Estate Loans — These are for the purpose of buying or improving real estate. The interest rate is 14% APR. These notes are limited to 36 months. They are made only when surplus funds permit.

FINANCIAL COUNSELING (Money Management) This may be divided into two types:

1. For those with over-extended credit. (A staff member has completed three sessions at Florida State University in study of Consumer Credit Counseling and is now a graduate of that school.)
2. For those with surplus funds to invest. Your Credit Union will try to give unbiased counsel in either case, making suggestions based on what seems to be for your personal good. Referrals are made in both situations when more expertise is needed.

The services of Methodist Ministers Credit Union are always based on the credit union philosophy:

"Not for profit,
Not for charity,
But for service."

DIVISION OF MISSIONS

A Christian response to God's grace is Christian mission! With this criteria in mind, the Division of Missions responded in mission in the following manner during 1979:

Advance

Giving to the Advance increased as reported by Jerry Smith so that at one time North Carolina was singled out as an exceptional contributor.

Mission Studies

In the January Workshops, for the first time, the approach was to teach the upcoming mission studies. The evaluation was positive, and Kay Bundy is appreciative that this approach was attempted.

Operation Understanding

Arthur Winstead discovered the Operation Understanding to be as good or better than the Mission Saturation Event and recommends either to the districts.

Volunteers in Mission

Jamaica replaces Bolivia as the country for our Volunteers in Mission Work Team this summer.

Small Membership Church

Clay Smith led a significant Consultation on the Small Membership Church as many representatives of the local church met for several days at Nags Head.

Robeson County Church and Community Center

Ethnic Minority Local Church

The Ethnic Minority Local Church continues to expand program, improve church buildings and build parsonages. Joe Bethea has a district worker assigned to the Rockingham District to relate to this work.

Urban Ministry

Urban Ministry awareness is growing in Raleigh and Durham, as reported by David Harvin. Fayetteville Urban Ministry has elected to become totally ecumenical, ceasing to be an Advance Special of The United Methodist Church.

Church Extension

Church Extension is the area of interest causing an updating of the Ten Dollar Club (3 calls with a 4th optional call), with additional membership and a new policy for employment of the funds. We have four new churches organized during this year. Charles M. Smith expects great support from other United Methodist groups in this conference as church extension grows.

Appreciation

As retiring chairman of the Division of Missions, I must express appreciation to following individuals who have aided me and the Division of Missions in making this quadrennium an exciting and satisfying experience in ministry:

Albert F. Fisher, Vice-Chairman and Chairman of Finance

Milton Mann, Secretary

Clyde Dunn, Conference Missionary Secretary

Tom Faggart, Chairman of Church and Community

Linwood Blackburn, Chairman of Volunteers in Mission

DIVISION OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Division of Ordained Ministry has been called "the gatekeepers of the Church," for its responsibilities include the interpretation of needs and resources for ordained ministry in the North Carolina Conference as well as the guidance and examination of all candidates that seek to serve as ordained ministers.

Herman S. Winberry, Chairperson

Candidates and Ordinands

Although there have been a number of studies in recent years that would suggest an overabundance of ministers, the North Carolina Conference continues to have needs for more ministers than are available for appointment. Currently there are approximately 50 persons involved in the candidacy program, the initial stage of preparation for ordained ministry. The number involved in academic preparation is reflected in the number being recommended for ordination this year, 25 as Elders and 35 Deacons. As last year, both sexes and all three ethnic groups found within the Conference are represented amongst the ordinands. Our 35 new Probationary Members and two new Associate Members indicate a continuing need for trained and educated ministers for our local congregations.

Continuing Education

For the last quadrennium every United Methodist minister has been expected to be involved in some formal program of personal spiritual growth and stimulation that would enhance his/her ministry. The support of most local congregations in terms of financial aid and encouragement of participation has been a great aid to our ministers.

The quadrennium ahead will see continuing education become a necessity for each minister to qualify for continuing appointment, a factor that will require both the Conference and the local church to work together in strengthening the program of continuing education.

Pastoral Care

The need for help in bringing a stronger family relationship or to solve some of the problems brought on through the stress of the ministry have led an increasing number of our parsonage families to seek professional assistance through the referral program of pastoral care. Additional funds were needed during the past year to provide this service. An additional agency in the Wilmington area was added to the list, providing resources in a part of the Conference not offered a convenient counseling center before. An important area of trouble has been included in a new counseling service in the area of financial management and credit concerns.

Ministerial Education Fund Assistance

The local churches of the North Carolina Conference continue to provide one of the greatest resources for the training and development of ordained ministers through their Ministerial Education Fund apportionments. Over $185,000 was contributed in 1979, from which our Division was able to retain $46,462 to provide scholarship assistance to students preparing for ministry. During the 1979-1980 academic year, 69 students were given grants from the MEF, 8 on the college level and 61 on the seminary level, representing 14 different institutions. Through recovery of funds previously granted to students who have not completed their preparation for ministry, it was possible to make grants during this period of $54,975. Our seminary at Duke as well as the other United Methodist seminaries across the nation were aided directly by the other portion of the Ministerial Education Fund sent on to the General Church.

COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE

You will find the recommended policy of the Pastoral Care Committee on page 38 of the Book of Reports. Please be aware of the following changes: the availability of help to diaconal ministers and their families (as well as ordained clergy); the addition of the Presbyterian Personal and Family Life Center in Wilmington; and the opportunity for free help with financial problems at the Consumer Credit Counseling Services of Raleigh and Wilmington.

Every one of you here today needs to be thanked for making these services possible. For those anonymous ministers and their families who have been helped through difficult experiences, and for the couples whose marriages have been strengthened through marriage enrichment, thank you for the money that you and the congregation you represent have given through Outreach Ministries. (I must add here that increasing numbers of persons are being helped: the Committee disbursed $1,475.00 for counseling in 1978, and $4,032.00 for counseling in 1979. We also anticipate a substantial increase in marriage enrichment retreats following today's address.)

Seated here on the stage are the members of the Pastoral Care Committee. These persons deserve the gratitude of this entire Conference for serving diligently and creatively. Because of their caring and Bishop Blackburn's response, the spouses of our newest elders stood with them as they were ordained Monday night. Because they wanted to say something positive about parsonage life, they voted in May 1979 to ask the bishop for time at this Conference to present the very best speaker to be found on affirming clergy marriage. The bishop agreed, and that speaker said yes. Ed Gunter will introduce him to you.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

The North Carolina Pastors' School and Duke Divinity School Convocation was held at Duke University, October 22-24, 1979. The James A. Gray Lectures were given by The Reverend Leander E. Keck, Dean of Yale University Divinity School. Dean Keck's lectures were entitled "The Freedom of God: Reflections on Romans."

The Franklin S. Hickman lectures on "Principalities and Powers" were given by The Reverend David G. Buttrick, Professor of Homiletics, St. Meinrad School of Theology, Indiana.

The Keynote Speaker for the Convocation was Senator Mark O. Hatfield (R-Oregon) who spoke on "Christian Responsibility in Public Affairs."

In addition to these lectures, Bishop Robert M. Blackburn and Bishop L. Scott Allen led the Convocation in the Bishops' Forum on "Social Issues Facing General Conference." Distinguished workshop leaders included: Bruce C. Birch, Professor of Old Testament at Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C., Bishop F. Joseph Gossman, Raleigh Diocese, Roman Catholic Church, Lois C. Miller, Associate General Secretary, Board of Global Ministries, The United Methodist Church, Mernie King and Perry Perkins of the Sojourners Fellowship in Washington, D.C., and H. Shelton Smith, James B. Duke Professor, Emeritus, Duke Divinity School.

The program also featured reunion class dinners and the general Alumni Association Luncheon. The Distinguished Alumnus Award was given to Dean Thomas A. Langford (B.D. '54, Ph.D. '58). Dr. Dennis M. Campbell was introduced as Director of Continuing Education for the Divinity School. After twenty years of directing the Convocation, Dr. McMurry Richey returns to full-time teaching. The Board of Managers recognized Dr. Richey for his distinguished service.

Beginning in 1980, Dr. Campbell will direct the Pastors' School and Convocation. The 1980 sessions will be October 27, 28, and 29. The Gray Lectures will be given by The Reverend Jose Miguez Bonino of Buenos Aires, Argentina. The Hickman Lectures will be given by The Reverend Maurice Boyd, London, Ontario, Canada. The new dean of the Divinity School will be installed; and the new resident bishop of the Raleigh Episcopal Area of the United Methodist Church will preach.

Respectfully Submitted,
James H. Bailey
Chairman of Board of Managers of N.C. Pastors' School and Duke Divinity School Convocation

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Commission on Religion and Race has continued to work to ensure that ethnic and racial minority group members of The United Methodist Church will have equal opportunities for service, representation, and voice on every level of the Annual Conference's life and ministry.

Programs and Policies of Racial Inclusiveness

We have reviewed, evaluated, and assisted Annual Conference agencies as they have sought to develop programs and policies for racial inclusiveness, having been particularly concerned with our Retirement Homes and the matter of open itinerancy. We can report that the former has a satisfactory affirmative action program for the implementation of which they need the assistance of all of us. The Cabinet has been made aware of our concern for open itinerancy, but little progress has been made in the provision of ministries across racial lines, so far as local churches are concerned. While we are not satisfied with the actual impact of our racial minorities on conference decision-making processes because there continue to be minorities on boards and agencies, at least their voice is being heard.

Affirmative Action

Our conference was represented in the Conference on Affirmative Action conducted by the Board of Global Ministries, and we can report that comparatively speaking we are above the average in the progress that has been made toward racial inclusiveness. However, the absence of formal, systematic commitment to affirmative action on the part of the various conference agencies has prompted our Commission to make certain recommendations at this session.

Tri-Racial Dialogue

A successful workshop on Assertiveness Training for Communication across Racial Lines was held at Camp Chestnut Ridge last September.

Report on Ethnic Representation

The Commission on Religion and Race will again provide the Conference with a report on the racial inclusiveness of our boards and agencies in terms of employment, services, governing bodies, and administrative staffs. Where possible, we shall have a report on the progress toward racial inclusiveness in our educational institutions.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

Women In The Pulpit Services Held

Many local churches across the North Carolina Conference held Women in the Pulpit services on Sunday mornings during 1979. Both clergy-women and lay women were called upon to preach. In many services, women served as lectors, ushers, and musicians and the work and concerns of United Methodist Women were emphasized. Many local churches which had never heard a clergywoman preach were given this opportunity. Each local church is being asked to consider having such a service during 1980 as well. Worship resources for such services are available in a booklet entitled "We Are One In The Spirit." This may be obtained by writing: Coordinator of Leadership Development, P.O. Box 10955, Raleigh, N.C. 27605.

Clergywomen Meet

The clergywomen of the North Carolina Conference had a breakfast meeting during the 1979 Annual Conference Session. A retreat for clergywomen is being planned for the spring of 1980, as well as another breakfast during the 1980 Annual Conference. It is hoped that the clergywomen will be meeting throughout the year in geographical cluster groups to share their experiences and to develop ideas for nurturing and preparing the way for women who come into the North Carolina Conference in the future.

Study Materials Being Prepared

A Study Packet on Women in Nontraditional Jobs is being prepared jointly by the Commission on Status and Role of Women and the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling. These materials may be used with youth and young adult groups as well as United Methodist Women. The packet will be available from: Coordinator of Leadership Development, P.O. Box 10955, Raleigh, N.C. 27605.

United Methodist Women/Clergywomen Dialogue Planned

The clergywomen and the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women are planning a dialogue session sometime during 1980 or 1981. It is hoped that through this session relationships and mutual support will be strengthened. The importance of lay women and clergywomen supporting one another would be the major focus of this dialogue session.

Brochure Prepared

A brochure interpreting the history and the purposes of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women has been prepared during 1979. Copies of this brochure were mailed to all Pastors in the Coordinated Mailing. Additional copies are available from: Coordinator of Leadership Development, P.O. Box 10955, Raleigh, N.C. 27605.

DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

"Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house upon the rock" — Matthew 7:24

We are all His stewards on Earth, charged with the care of His people and His mission. Our rock is His word. The house that we build on that rock will be only as sound as our commitment makes it. The Division of Stewardship offers you and your congregation the following programs to help you become more committed Christian stewards.

Stewardship Education

Stewardship education is a crucial concern since it touches learning groups, the administrative style of the church and the basis for decisions in the life of a congregation. A conscious effort to understand the many ways we educate persons in the practice of Christian stewardship enables us to help persons reach their highest potential as stewards of God's grace.

Proportionate Giving/Tithing

One of the most misunderstood ideas within the world of religion is tithing. Many have the idea that tithing is only the giving of ten percent of our income to the church, when actually the more important aspect is to learn that tithing is one of the relationships with God. The amount is not paramount, but the relationship is.

Funding

In the plan of God, temporal resources are usually the vehicles of Divine purpose. Money both transmits value and enables action. When the faith of an individual or a congregation is activated, money can be used to produce the desired results. Dollars are not an end in themselves but can be used by persons of faith to actualize commitment.

Planning Giving

That which we receive through thoughtful management of the resources entrusted to us in a lifetime should help us provide for the care of loved ones and the continued support of those institutions and causes we value. Such care and support becomes a reality only when we are intentional about our planned sharing with others. Estate planning involves us in developing an overall plan for management with some very specific objectives in mind. The preparation of a will is generally an integral part of that plan. Establishing trusts, designating special gifts, securing insurance and other related actions may also be a part of the plan. To abdicate our responsibility in this matter is to endanger the possibility of our hopes and dreams being realized in our lifetime and beyond.

Time and Abilities

Involving persons in the fulfilling of the ministries and functioning of the congregation is necessary if persons are to find fulfillment and while they use their God-given gifts through the work of the body of Christ, the Church. Abilities that persons possess must be matched with the opportunities of service in the life and ministry of the church. Abilities need to be discovered, affirmed and enhanced through the sharing and nurture of the congregation. Time that is given must be used in creative and disciplined ways so as to enhance the fulfillment that is experienced. Time is likewise considered in the scheduling of activities so that it fits the rhythm of the persons and community served. Both time and abilities are resources we manage to fulfill the opportunities for service that God places before us.

Christians Doing Financial Planning

Jesus taught, "You cannot serve God and mammon." (Luke 4:13) We recognize, however, that bread is important and has instrumental value. Bread was important to Jesus also. So were houses, boats, sandals, robes and donkeys. He knew that possessions could be used for God's purpose. The danger comes when a person starts thinking that money and possessions have intrinsic or inherent value. This threat is present whenever a person starts placing trust in material possessions instead of using them to fulfill God's intention for creation, or when one starts deriving a sense of courage and confidence from what is owned rather than from the one who is served. Therefore, it is important that persons of the household of faith understand prudent management of money in the light of Christian values.

Economics and Management

In our present day society, economics is at the very basis for activating what happens to the program of the local church. Dollars are needed to promote mission. All programs take management which constitutes direction.

Life Style

The Christian steward is always involved in producing good deeds out of faith and turning intensions into actions. It is inevitable that a pattern or style of life should flow from this experience. The steward is concerned not only with the quality of each individual action but also with the pattern which emerges. At its best, that pattern will show a growth in Christian faith and in ones' ability to relate it helpfully to the changing circumstances and time in which he lives.

Bruce Taylor, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held at 1:00 p.m. June 4, 1980, at Methodist College during Annual Conference Session.

The financial statements for the calendar year 1979 were presented and reviewed by Charles McAdams, Conference Treasurer. The Trustees Fund, Methodist Building Account, Staff Parsonages and Episcopal Residence Accounts are printed in the Conference Journal, 1980.

The Trustees, through the Treasurer-Business Administrator, have endeavored to properly maintain the staff parsonages and the Methodist Building. The Methodist Building is fully leased. One of the tenants (Westinghouse Sales) has just moved from the building due to need for additional space. The area vacated has already been leased by another one of our tenants, College Foundation, Inc. All of the staff parsonages are now debt free. The debt on the Episcopal Residence has been reduced to $16,572.64. This is financed from Board of Trustees funds at 7.5% interest.

THE UNITED METHODIST MEN

We are pleased to report that the United Methodist Men of the North Carolina Conference are continuing to strengthen in organization and in service to the Church. There were more local church groups chartered in 1979 than in 1978, and so far in 1980 more have been chartered than in the corresponding period last year. Within these local church fellowships, more men are participating than ever before, and there appears to be a real interest in developing a Conference identity that will be quite meaningful in the months ahead.

At the 1979 Fall Rally, Conference officers were elected, and these men, along with District Lay Leaders and District Presidents of United Methodist Men, have proposed a Constitution and ByLaws to guide the Conference organization, to be discussed and hopefully approved by the 1980 Fall Rally. The new structure will serve us well as we seek to improve the fellowship and outreach of our Conference men.

The Fall Rally will be held on October 25 at Saint Paul United Methodist Church in Goldsboro, and we want to have each District well represented. All men are urged to make the date on their calendars and to be on the alert for further information. We are also looking ahead to July of 1981, when the Third National Congress of United Methodist Men will be held at Purdue University. Tentative plans will see at least one chartered bus with men from our Conference.

There remains much yet to be accomplished, but the men are clearly on the move, and that has to be a very good sign for the strengthening of this vital element within our local churches.

I am pleased to introduce my fellow officers on the Conference level:

Charles Sauls (Rockingham), Vice President

Jim Watkins (Rocky Mount), Secretary

Bruce Hargrove (Raleigh), Treasurer

And now it is our special privilege to recognize the commitment and leadership of one who has contributed significantly to the United Methodist Men of the North Carolina Conference. Bishop Blackburn, we would like to have Grier L. Garrick come forward at this time for appropriate recognition:

Grier Garrick, you are an inspiration to many, and certainly to the men of the North Carolina Conference. Without your conscientious leadership it is doubtful that the organization of the United Methodist Men could be at the point it has reached today. We are grateful for your commitment to Christ and to the Church, and we appreciate your personal influence — in the past as you also single-handedly nurtured the Conference United Methodist Men, and in the present as you continue to promote the ideals for which our fellowship exists. The Executive Board of the United Methodist Men of the North Carolina Conference is proud to honor you by presenting you with Life Membership in the United Methodist Men.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Bishop Blackburn, delegates and visitors to the North Carolina Annual Conference:

We have a daughter who has a plaque in her kitchen which reads, "The Word for the Day Is," and each day she puts on it the word that will symbolize that day. From the 29,000 United Methodist Women in 700 local units in the North Carolina Conference the word for the day is MISSION.

The United Methodist Women in this conference have been in Mission the past year in a variety of ways. They have been in Mission as they seek to develop their own personhood through local Days Apart and District Retreats. At a Conference Personhood Retreat led by the Rev. Juanita Wright women wrestled with the theme, "The Righteous Shall Live by Faith." They have studied the Parables in order to relate the message of the gospel to the living of these days.

They have been in Mission as they have been supportive of women. Three local women attended an Intergenerational Workshop sponsored by the Southeastern Jurisdiction; they studied and pledged support to the implementation of the Charter for Racial Justice; in the spring 90 young women attended an Under 39 event with the theme "A New Beginning in Mission"; undergraduate and graduate scholarships were provided for young women in the conference; one young woman attended the Youth in Mission Conference at Lake Junaluska last summer; concern for women in prison and migrants was expressed through involvement in Church Women United.

United Methodist Women have learned about Mission as they have come together for inspiration and training. Over 100 women attended the Southeastern Jurisdiction Quadrennial Meeting in Nashville, Tenn. The banner you see on the stage was carried by the conference president in a procession of banners from the conferences of the jurisdiction. It was designed and made by local women in the Burlington District, as was the tabard I am wearing. Over 900 women attended the Annual Meeting held in Raleigh last October. Mai Gray, president of the Women's Division challenged us with some areas of the world that need our help. Bishop Blackburn was presented a certificate of appreciation stating that a gift to missions had been made in his name. Conference officers were trained at Regional School in Jackson, Tenn., district officers at DOIT Day, local presidents in the January Workshops and other local officers in the districts.

Communications continue to be an important part of our program as we interpret Mission to local United Methodist Women through the conference newsletter KEDE, the Women's Page in the Advocate and quarterly letters from the conference and district leaders to the locals. An emphasis has been placed this year on United Methodist Women and Clergy relationships. Our conference participated in a workshop held in the polity class at Duke Divinity School on United Methodist Women. A similar introduction was given to the ministers receiving appointments in this conference for the first time and to ministers entering the conference.

The concept of Mission has been expanded as we have participated in the support of Mission projects in the conference at Walnut Terrace Child Development Center, Robeson County Church and Community Center, Harnett County Rural Work and the Student Center at East Carolina University. Outside the conference support has been given through the saving of used postage stamps for World Hunger, Campbell soup labels for the Navajo Mission School in Farmington, New Mexico, Green stamps for Brooks Howell Home in Asheville, N.C., health and school kits for migrants and missionary salary support.

The concept of Mission has been expanded as we have been concerned about social issues. A workshop on prisons was held in one district, we have had representation on the N.C. Coalition on Teenage Pregnancies and on the Religious Committee for ERA. Three persons attended a jurisdiction Workshop on Legislative Affairs.

One positive way we have been involved in Mission is through our financial giving. $353,406 was sent to the conference treasurer from local units. $295,896 of this was sent to the Women's Division treasurer to be used in designated and undesignated projects.

A special emphasis has been placed on Membership. The Elizabeth City district is 100% organized. The Raleigh district was awarded a banner for the most units showing at least a 10% increase in membership. A number of groups of young women have been started.

United Methodist Women in the conference have had as their theme, See and Know-Serve and Grow. As we see and know needs, we have tried to serve and thus grow in becoming whole persons in Jesus Christ.

I would like the members of United Methodist Women, present today, who have made this report possible to stand.

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

The top five priorities for the U.M.Y.F. begin with the word Experience. These priorities are to help the young people to: Experience themselves, by getting in touch with, and celebrating their true selves; Experience others, by discovering the secrets of communication and loving listening; Experience the world, by deepening their awareness of the persons and things that daily touch the pulses of their lives (mainly their family, friends, community and selves); Experience the meaning of life, by evaluating and clarifying their life's values and goals; and most of all the U.M.Y.F. strives to help young people to Experience God, by exploring new pathways to a closer relationship with God.

The way the local U.M.Y.F. has experienced these things in past years has been through participating in local service projects, helping in their church services, serving on church boards and agencies, and just having fellowship among themselves. The U.M.Y.F. on a Conference level could not exist were it not for the local U.M.Y.F.'s.

The way the conference as a whole has experienced these things in the past has been by contributing to YSF. Last year was an especially fruitful year for YSF because we surpassed our goal by 1500 dollars. This was accomplished because of the great job our new treasurer, Sam Bridges, has done. This year a very high goal of 12,000 dollars, over double of last years goals, has been set. This goal represents an asking of 75 cents for each young person in the conference. It will take a lot to raise that much, but it can be done.

We have also had many other great experiences on the conference level through events like Rally Day, where we were inspired and entertained by Ira David Wood, a very talented speaker and actor and the U.N. Washington Study tour, where we viewed the work of our government through Christian eyes, and we learned through the business sessions to recognize God's greatest creation; people. But the main things we experienced at all these events were God's love and the beauty of true friendship.

Last year our conference also sent four people to the National Youth Ministry Organization's Convocation, (where people from other conferences all over the nation were there). I was lucky enough to be one of them. While there I really found out how great a conference we have. Overall we have 17 events we give for the youth in our conference, the next highest number that I heard was 11. While few were there we became very proud of Joy Wilkins, who was elected to the NYMO steering committee and she is to serve on this committee for two years.

I would like to thank the over 100 adult lay people and ministers who served as counselors on a voluntary basis and I would especially like to thank Ed Morrison, who is a terrific and hardworking man and a really great friend. I would also like to thank the other conference officers for the great work they have done this past year. And a special thanks to Bishop Blackburn, for all his support, we will miss him greatly. There is one more thanks I personally would like to give and that is to all of you who have given me the opportunity to hold this office. It has taught me a lot and given me a lot and I will never forget any of it.

To close I would like to read a part of the book of Joel that I think states well the importance of Youth in the Church. And the Lord said "After I have poured out my rains again, I will pour out my spirit among all of you! Your sons and daughters will prophesy; your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions.

DIVISION OF WORSHIP

An Act of Worship

Call To Worship

"Let the favor of the Lord our god be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us, yea, the work of our hands establish thou it." (Psalm 90:17 RSV)

In the spirit that all that is Christian is worshipful the Division of Worship submits this report for 1979.

The Prayer Of Confession

Let us Pray.

Leader: We confess, O merciful God, that we as a division have been slow to produce the requested booklet on effective liturgies carried out in local churches in our conference. Nor have we finished our list of those in our conference available to aid local churches as resource persons on Chrismons and other textile arts. We have not provided adequate helps on children's worship. Not all the services which we planned and carried out for Conference Leadership School were as creative and well done as they should have been.

People: As a conference few of us took advantage of attending the excellent regional Workshops on Holy Communion led by Hoyt Hickman during the week of March 12-15. We learned few new hymns from the Book of Hymns at conference events in 1979.

Leader: For slowness in doing our job, for failure to meet all our responsibilities, and for lack of continued quality in our work we ask Your forgiveness.

All: Have mercy upon us when we failed to be faithful servants of Yours. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The Words Of Pardon

"Who is in a position to condemn?"

"Only Christ, Christ who died for us, who rose for us, who reigns at God's right hand and prays for us. Thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." ("A Service of Death and Resurrection," Supplemental Worship Resources 7, p. vii)

The Act Of Celebration

Leader: For the insights gained at the twelve January Workshops in the course on the Worship Work Area, taught by John Harwood, Robert Pullman and Cameron West.

People: We praise You, O God!

Leader: For Carlton Young's informative, uplifting February 26 Seminar on Music and the Pastor, co-sponsored with the Fellowship of United Methodist Musicians, at Edenton Street Church in Raleigh,

People: We praise You, O God!

Leader: For the Bishop's Meeting with the Confirmation Classes on March 24 at Edenton Street Church in Raleigh with Gayla Estes, Stan Smith, and Roger Searles assisting and on March 31 at Jarvis Memorial Church in Greenville with David and Carol Goehring, Glen Holm and Roger Searles, assisting,

People: We praise You, O God!

Leader: For the inspiration of early morning Holy Communion in Hensdale Chapel, led by James Brown, Gayla Estes, Milton Hadley, and Carlton Hirschi on Tuesday and Wednesday of Annual Conference,

People: We praise You, O God!

Leader: For the spectacular worship and growth opportunities experienced by Robert Pullman and Roger Searles through financial assistance given them to attend the Convocation on Music, Worship, and the Other Arts (Design '79) July 15-20 at Albion, Michigan,

People: We praise You, O God!

Leader: For the production of the first in the series of three lectionary calendars, "Celebrating the Church Year", prepared by Cameron West, and for increased Biblical preaching and liturgy from the use of this lectionary,

People: We praise You, O God!

Leader: For efforts to use minorities and to reduce sexist language in those conference worship experiences for which this division was responsible,

People: We praise You, O God!

Leader: For our eager anticipation of the creative workshop on worship to be led by Avery and Marsh at Edenton Street Church on November 11-12, 1980,

People: We praise You, O God!

All: And magnify Your glorious name forever and ever!

The Doxology

The Commitment

Leader: To the Division of Worship elected for the new quadrennium, we commit our unfinished tasks.

People: All of us commit ourselves to worship which inspires us to responsible discipleship in our conference and in our local churches and to programs and the sharing of resources that will enable us to worship God "in spirit and truth".

The Prayer

Let us pray.

God of all peoples, we rejoice in Your life in the midst of our lives. You are the true light illumining everyone. You show us the way, the truth, and the life. You love us even when we are unfaithful. You sustain us with Your Holy Spirit. We praise You for Your presence with us, especially through the past year. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. The North Carolina Conference Brotherhood is a group of United Methodist ministers and lay people who express their sympathy to a bereaved widow of a Methodist minister in a way that will be of great assistance when it is needed most. Instead of sending flowers, telegrams, or other ways of expressing sympathy, a gift of money is sent to the widow or beneficiary.

Any minister of the North Carolina Conference, Probationary, Associate, or Full Connection, or any Local Pastor serving a charge in the Conference may become a beneficiary member of the Brotherhood by payment of an initiation fee of $2.00 and one mortuary assessment. Each mortuary assessment shall be one-tenth of one percent of the total salary received, including the apportionment for travel and utilities. The maximum payment shall be $10.00 per call. The beneficiary will receive $2,700.00. This is non-taxable and is available at the death of the minister.

All ministers under the age of 50 are invited to join the Brotherhood. Any lay person or church group is invited to join the Brotherhood as a non-beneficiary member. These persons pay from $1.00 up per call. They choose the amount they wish to pay.

The more members we have the more the benefits will be.

DIVISION OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Division of Church and Society continues to examine the social issues confronting our society and to make suggestions for Christian action in response to these issues. We are appreciative of the tremendous activities being done in all our churches in the areas of "social services", but we see a definite need for more citizen education and involvement in legislative and "social action". Therefore, as a part of our annual report, the Division of Church and Society has prepared four position papers and four resolutions which we want the conference to study and vote on. All positions taken by this Division are in agreement with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church (1976 Discipline, Par. 70-76).

Position Paper Number 1

ON CHRISTIAN RESPONSIBILITY IN AN AGE OF DIMINISHING RESOURCES

As Christians our ultimate loyalty is to none other than the one God whom we see revealed in Jesus Christ. Jesus, of course, was not an economist, but His example and His teaching can and should form the motivation for our economic life. His overriding concern was that His followers seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and, He assured us, all other things would be added. To us His righteousness embodies the highest values we as humans can know about and experience — love, justice, truth and beauty. The "other things" include food, clothing, shelter, and material blessings in general. But it is these other things that are most often sought first in our materialistic culture.

Indeed, they are sought with a vengeance, as though nothing else mattered. We gauge our standard of living on a quantitative basis rather than qualitative one. Quality is sacrificed at the altar of quantity. As producers we seek infinite growth and expansion, with profit being the only criterion by which we decide whether something should or should not be done. As consumers we come easily to believe that we need everything that is produced. Yesterday's luxuries become today's necessities. We tear down our barns, to use the Biblical metaphor, and build bigger and bigger barns. Bigger is better, we believe. Yet our bigger cars, our bigger houses, our bigger salaries, etc., have not brought us the happiness we crave. We continually look above us on the socioeconomic ladder, thinking if we could only climb a little higher we would be satisfied. But when we make the climb whatever satisfaction we obtain is very brief and we begin to look up again, and so on and on. We are, as David Myers and Thomas Ludwig have observed, like rats on a hedonic treadmill.

Our disordered priorities and voracious appetites have produced some highly disproportionate statistics. With slightly less than six per cent of the world's population, our country requires approximately forty per cent of the world's primary resources to keep its economy going. Unlimited growth naturally means a greater use of these nonrenewable resources in the future, much of which lie outside the bounds of our country. With the demand of other industrial countries also increasing, and with an envious Third World desiring its share of the pie, grave threats loom ahead for both the environment and international relations. Infinite growth in a finite environment is not only an absurd thesis, it is also a dangerous one. Avarice may turn out to be the deadliest of the seven deadly sins.

It is therefore imperative that we reorder our priorities. The Christian position on the production and consumption of goods have been expressed well in the Social Principles of our United Methodist Church: "They (the consumers) should exercise their power to encourage the manufacture of goods that are beneficial to mankind while avoiding the desecration of the environment in either production or consumption. Those who manufacture goods and offer services serve society best when they aid consumers in fulfilling these responsibilities. Consumers should evaluate their consumption of goods and services in the light of the need for enhanced quality of life rather than unlimited production of material goods."

We should stress at this point that we are not against economic growth; we are simply questioning the ethics and logic of blind, unlimited growth. We are not against profit; we are against unrestrained greed. We are not against business and technology; we simply insist on the reordering of our priorities. Furthermore, we lift up the Biblical theme that creation is good and that material blessings are conferred upon us by our loving Creator. Business and technology are the means of realizing these blessings. But the means, or instruments, of blessings are in themselves neutral; they can also be the instruments of meaninglessness and destruction. In order for them to be the instruments of divine blessing for human fulfillment, then the higher values of love and cooperation must restrict and supersede the natural greed and other forms of self-enteredness which our modern materialism encourage. As individuals and as a society we must come to realize the profound truth of Gandhi's statement: "Earth provides enough to satisfy every man's need, but not for every man's greed."

What does all of this mean on a personal level? It means that if we seek first the righteousness of God our inner motivation will be reflected in simpler life styles. "Simple life style" is an ambiguous phrase that can mean different things to different people. It can be used to describe anything from asceticism on the one hand to the fadish trifling with organic foods on the other. Asceticism we can condemn on the Biblical grounds already stated: the goodness of creation. Fads have neither spiritual nor intellectual substance. Between these two extremes lies the honest and sincere pursuit of the enhanced quality of life. It is far outside the scope of this paper to set forth a list of specific outward details of the simple life. Various books, periodicals, and pamphlets have been produced for this purpose — some of them good and some of them questionable. We must avoid the fatal legalism of setting forth any absolute set of rules. At the same time we must seek to disentangle our legitimate needs from our illegitimate desires. We can do this through our private devotion and study as well as through sharing ideas with other Christians in group study and prayer meetings.

The resources that were used in the writing of this paper would be excellent for private or group study. They are listed as follows:

Position Paper Number 2

ON INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENTAL AID

As Christian stewards, we acknowledge that "the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof"; the world is God's, not ours. Our resources are to be administered as He would have them, and not from our narrow, selfish, parochial, or national self-interest standpoint only.

Our goods and wealth are not ours to do with as we will, and our nation's wealth is not to be spent as we would; we are accountable to God.

At our best, we have sought to use our nation's resources well. After the Second World War, the U.S. gave developmental and reconstruction aid to help the nations of Europe get onto their feet again. Billions of dollars of "Point Four" and "Food for Peace" aid have been used for development. Of these, we can be justly proud. Our Church has supported and encouraged these policies.

As our nation restructures our aid programs for the years ahead, experience suggests that we avoid some pitfalls:

(1) The criteria for aid programs and aid recipients should be development towards a more abundant life for people of receiving nations; the use of merely political leverage and cold-war allies are criteria that must be rejected. Aid needs to be administered in such a way that it neither be, nor appear to be, merely an extension of the military aims of our government.

(2) Economic developmental aid budgets need to stand on their own and be entirely separated from military aid, thus avoiding the suspicion by aid recipients that they are being "used".

(3) The great bulk of our aid needs to be channelled through United Nations or other international agencies.

(4) Legislative and administrative hedges need to be erected to see that "Food for Peace" be administered in such a way as to enhance basic development, and to insure that exported commodities not be sold to finance military or personal projects of ruling elites. (e.g., in the latter days of the Vietnam War, the Thieu regime was found to be converting a very large percentage of our total "Food for Peace" to arms, while the nations designated by the United Nations as "most needy nations" received only a small percentage of this aid. An act of Congress rectified the situation.

(5) In addition to mechanized farming of the "Green Revolution" simple technologies need to be created which are more in keeping with the level of development and resources of peasants and small, family farmers.

The great need now is for multilateral, non-military aid that is more appropriate to the level of the recipients' technological development.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

(1) Let us appeal to our Senators and Representatives in Congress to support this type of developmental aid on a large-scale basis. In the U.N.'s "Decade for Development" (1970's), the goal was .7 percent of the Gross National Product of developed nations for international development aid; ours has been only about one-third of that goal in this decade, with 11 other developed countries devoting a larger percentage than we. Let us ask the Congress to approve the 1 percent of GNP recommended by the Interreligious Task Force on U.S. Food Policy.

(2) Join the IMPACT network of major Church denominations, to receive information and action alerts concerning food and aid. Write IMPACT, 110 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002.

(3) Obtain up-to-date world hunger information by telephoning (free) to: Interreligious Task Force on U.S. Food Policy, (800) 424-7292.

(4) Write Bread for the World, a citizens' advocacy group on world hunger problems, 207 E. 16th Street, New York, N.Y. 10003.

(5) Sign the WHEAT (World Hunger Education and Action Together) Covenant; obtain it from Board of Global Ministries Service Center, 7820 Reading Road, Cincinnati, Ohio, 45237.

Position Paper Number 3 ON THE PALESTINIAN QUESTION

When the nation of Israel was created in 1948 by action of the United Nations, more than 600,000 Palestinians were forced from or fled from their homes and into such adjoining Arab nations as Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, and Egypt. Hostility in the ensuing years has flared into open warfare between Israel and her Arab neighbors in 1956, 1967, and 1973. In the Six Days' War of 1967, some 300,000 more Palestinians became refugees, and much territory of Jordan, Egypt, and Syria came under Israeli occupation.

One and one-half generations of Palestinians have grown up in the helplessness and endless waiting of the refugee camps. Anger, bitterness, and violence born of desperation have been the daily fare of many of them. The Fedayeen ("Committed Ones") have carried out isolated commando-type acts of violence, and the Palestine Liberation Organization (P.L.O.) has looked towards being a government-in-exile for a Palestinian State.

According to the United Nations mandate setting up the State of Israel in 1948, a Palestinian State was also to be set up on the West bank of the Jordan (i.e., between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea). This territory has been steadily encroached upon during the various periods of war between Israel and the Arab nations, until, as of 1967, none of it remains outside the central of Israel.

PROPOSALS

In order to have lasting peace and amity and a modicum of justice for all parties in the Middle East, a settlement of hostilities must include:

(1) Secure and recognized borders for the State of Israel — a "Jewish homeland", wherein Jews will feel at home and secure.

All the Arab states must, as Egypt has done, recognize the face of Israel's existence. The Palestinian Liberation Organization must, in claiming the validity of the Palestinians' cause, recognize the validity of Israel's existence.

(2) The Palestinians must be guaranteed a homeland, with their own autonomy and sovereignty. A Palestinian State seems a necessity, and it is in keeping with all United Nations mandates and resolutions.

(There have been various proposals that Israeli and Palestinian States could co-exist as confederated states.)

(3) An international inspection and control force may be a necessity for several years to inspect and guarantee the borders of Israel and of the Palestinian States' territory.

(4) Little can be accomplished without meaningful dialogue among all parties, and particularly between the two main entities concerned, the Israelis and the Palestinians. The P.L.O. must have contact with, and negotiate with, Israel; Israel must have contact with, and negotiate with, the P.L.O. This can, and probably will, begin to take place gradually, and even informally; but it must happen.

(5) The U.S. Government position must cease to be the avoidance of all contact with the P.L.O., and we need to encourage Israel to take the much-needed course of joining in such contact.

SUGGESTED ACTIONS FOR CHRISTIAN CITIZENS

(1) Study the background of the Palestinian situation and become informed as to the needs and desires of the various parties. Avoid regarding the present-day Israeli State as the necessary and rightful recipient of the Biblical promises to Abraham and his descendants, of territories in Canaan. (The promises are not limited to real estate, and the recipients are the Community of the Faithful.)

(2) See that your local church plans and carries out this year's Church-Wide Study, "Middle East Mosaic".

(3) Write to your Congressman and to our Senators in Washington, and to the President and the Secretary of State, urging that U.S.

Position Paper Number 4 CONCERNING ABORTION

The 1976 General Conference of the United Methodist Church approved a statement which reads, in part: "We affirm the principle of responsible parenthood . . . The decision whether or not to give birth to children must include acceptance of the responsibility to provide for their mental, physical and spiritual growth, as well as consideration of the possible effect on the quality of life for family and society . . ."

The United Methodist Social Principles state, ". . . Our behalf in the sanctity of unborn human life makes us reluctant to approve abortion. But we are equally bound to respect the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother, for whom devastating damage may result from an unacceptable pregnancy. In continuity with past Christian teaching, we recognize tragic conflicts of life with life that may justify abortion . . . We support the legal option of abortion under proper medical procedures . . ."

The 1980 General Conference, moreover, amended the Social Principles by adding these words: "A decision concerning abortion should be made only after thoughtful and prayerful consideration by the parties involved, with medical, pastoral, and other appropriate counsel."

The Religious Coalition for Abortion Rights consists of 27 Protestant, Jewish, Catholic, and other religious organizations committed to maintaining the 1973 Supreme Court decision which made abortion a legal medical procedure during the first trimester of pregnancy. In 1977 the Hyde Amendment to an appropriations bill restricted federal funds for abortions to cases of rape or incest (promptly reported), danger to the mother's life, or severe and lasting damage to the mother's health. The 1979 Congress further restricted federal funding for abortions to cases of rape or incest and danger to the mother's life. The Supreme Court has agreed to hear test cases involving the Hyde Amendment.

The abortion issue currently in dispute in the United States is an issue. The effort to change the present law and to ban all abortions, sectarian as well as moral, (even though death of the mother would result) is prompted by a position which holds that full human life begins at the moment of conception. The destruction of an embryo, in this view, represents murder. A related position leads to the condemnation of any and all contraceptive devices or methods. The religious group advocating this view on abortion and others whose religious predisposition bears a surface resemblance to this position are working for a constitutional amendment to ban all abortion, for other religious groups as well as their own. To place the theology of one particular religion concerning when life begins in the Constitution would force every citizen to accept that doctrine and prevent individuals from exercising the freedom to make moral choices based on their own beliefs.

On the continuum between conception and birth, almost all Americans become anti-abortionist at some point. However, in December, 1977, the Gallup Poll found that 77 percent Americans believed that all laws limiting abortion in the first three months of pregnancy violated the constitutional rights of women. In 1979, 70 percent believed that Medicaid should pay for abortions at least under certain circumstances.¹

For those who think in monetary terms, the cost of the compulsory bearing of children is staggering. The total federal cost of abortions in 1976 before the Hyde Amendment was 61 million dollars. The cost per year for medical-social welfare for families and women denied abortions because of poverty is estimated at over 200 million dollars. Moreover, unwanted children subsidized in poverty are more likely to be abused than other children; they are more likely to be emotionally disabled, physically handicapped, or delinquent. One million teenagers become pregnant each year, and two thirds of these pregnancies are unwanted.²

The political consequences of the abortion issue are looming large in the 1980 elections. Those whose religious views lead them to oppose abortion are considered to be the most effective of the single issue political groups.⁴ They have targeted ten Congressional candidates whom they intend to defeat in 1980. A climate of potential violence, the threat to ecumenical dialogues and cooperation,⁷ and most of all the erosion of medical benefits to poor women are serious side effects of this attempt to legislate a religious position on abortion. A strange contradiction exists in the voting record of some of the most staunch anti-abortion Congressmen; they also vote against extension or increase in welfare benefits.

Many persons in our society play rolls which contribute to the abortion dilemma. We urge physicians to exercise responsible judgement in advising patients regarding abortion. We urge parents to commit themselves to responsible guidance of their children in matters of dating, marriage, parenthood, and the family. We recognize that the present law allows men and women to use abortion without reference to moral or spiritual values; nevertheless, we believe since abortion is at times the right moral choice that this freedom is the better legal option. The United Methodist position helps us to make a distinction between the right to make a moral decision and the approval of abortion itself.

Resolution Number 1

ON SUPPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Jesus said: "Blessed are the peacemakers . . ." (Matthew 5:9) Paul said: "And he made from one every nation of men to live on all the face of the earth . . ." (Acts 17:26)

WHEREAS The United Nations was born thirty-five years ago in the tragedy of the Second World War. At the San Francisco Conference on April 25, 1945, every delegation represented a nation that was at war.

Its purpose, according to the United Nations' charter, was to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, to establish and maintain justice and respect for international law, and to promote social progress and better standards of life.

World War II ended in 1945, but hardly a day has passed without fighting somewhere on earth. We have seen allies become hostile, enemies become friends, national governments fall and be replaced. Yet, these changes and conflicts have not resulted in a third world war.

Membership in the United Nations has grown from 50 in 1945 to 152 with the admission of the Caribbean country of Saint Lucia on September 18, 1979.

Considering its pluralistic nature we believe the United Nations has made a valiant effort to live up to its charter. It has created the necessary conditions for avoiding the catastrophies that threaten in an era dominated by weapons of mass destruction and has made progress in the areas of human dignity, world justice, and social conditions.

HOWEVER The history of the United Nations is full of frustrations because of the inability of governments to consistently support it and use it to its full potential.

Nations often have chosen to use the world organization as an instrument of convenience only and have taken unilateral actions predicated on the use of force instead of relying on the mechanism of conciliation within the United Nations.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED 1. We commend the United States for taking its grievances with Iran over the American Embassy hostages and with the Soviet Union over the invasion of Afghanistan to the United Nations for action.

2. We urge the United States to continue its leadership in the world by once again assuming its full financial assessment in support of the United Nations.

3. We plead with all other nations to use the United Nations as an instrument of reconciliation and to accept their financial responsibilities.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church reaffirm its support of the United Nations by renewing and strengthening its efforts to promote United Nations Seminars on national and international affairs and by encouraging its people to donate to United Nations agencies which depend on voluntary contributions to carry on their programs.

"Put them in fear, O Lord! Let the nations know that they are but men!"

Resolution Number 2

ON REPEAL OF THE FOOD TAX

WHEREAS the North Carolina General Assembly in 1961 enacted 3% sales tax on food as a way of providing added funds for grant improvement of the State's public schools, and

WHEREAS this was followed by permissive legislation permitting counties to add an additional 1% sales tax on all items for local needs thereby effectively increasing the sales tax on food to 4%, and

WHEREAS in 1961 the food tax affected only about 14% of the income of the average family, while today it may be imposed on as much as 40% of the financial resources of low-income families, persons on Social Security, retirement or other forms of minimum, fixed incomes, and

WHEREAS the food tax produces only about 3% of the State's revenue, while causing a disproportionate hardship on the large segment of our people on low or modest incomes, and

WHEREAS the persons most critically affected by the food tax are generally less skilled in money management, thereby compounding the damaging effect of the tax on them;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, in session in Fayetteville, North Carolina, this 5th day of June, 1980, urge the North Carolina General Assembly to repeal the sales tax on food at its current session, and increase the alcoholic beverage tax an equal amount.

Resolution Number 3

ON THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT

WHEREAS the 1980 General Conference of the United Methodist Church adopted a resolution on the Equal Rights of Men and Women which affirms support for the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment; and

WHEREAS the model which Jesus presented in His relationships with women in various times and various places in His ministry has become for us the basis whereby through the Holy Spirit we have realized equality of men and women — socially, intellectually, spiritually and therefore legally; and

WHEREAS the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church affirm that men and women have equal rights and are equal in every aspect of our common life; and

WHEREAS The General Conference has urged all United Methodists to work through appropriate structures and channels for ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment; and

WHEREAS The State of North Carolina has not yet ratified the amendment;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, THAT

1. local congregations be urged to study the Equal Rights Amendment;

Resolution on the Current International Crisis

We strongly oppose the seizing of hostages in the U.S. Embassy in Iran, and the compliance of the revolutionary government in the maintenance of that seizure. Both students and government are acting unlawfully therein, regardless of the provocation or grievances.

We strongly oppose the U.S.S.R. invasion of Afghanistan, and call upon that nation to withdraw all troops and pay reparations.

At the same time, we urge our government and our people not to overreact to frustrating international situations.

The Board of Church and Society

DIVISION OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

Lay persons who work full time, twenty-one hours or more per week, for the church, who have met educational and personal standards, can become Diaconal Ministers in The United Methodist Church. After four years of struggling to pronounce "Di-ac-on-al" correctly, I hope that everyone has it right now. Diaconal Ministry validates a person's call into the full-time work of the church. It indicates that a person is educated and qualified to do a particular job.

At the present time there are fourteen Diaconal Ministers in the North Carolina Conference with two others being recommended for consecration at this conference session. A couple of others have had to be placed on an inactive status because of changing employment.

The Division of Diaconal Ministry meets twice each year, usually October and February. All persons who are interested in becoming certified in Christian Education, Evangelism, or Music should have their credentials in to us by the first of February so that materials may be processed and they may be interviewed by the Interview Committee.

There are TWO steps toward becoming a Diaconal Minister. You must have worked in your field satisfactorily for a year prior to certification. Then, according to rules of the North Carolina Conference Division of Diaconal Ministry established at the February, 1980 meeting, there will be another year of satisfactory work in the conference as a certified person before you can become a Diaconal Minister. This is comparable to the probationary period of Ordained Ministry. You do not have to wait, however, to join the insurance plan nor the retirement plan.

David Anthony Argo from Haymount UMC in Fayetteville and Barbara Estes from First UMC in Rocky Mount are recommended for certification in Music. Harold Dean Jacobs from Prospect UMC in Maxton, who directed the choir at the General Conference, is recommended for certification in both Music and Christian Education. The complete list follows for those who are to be re-certified in their various fields.

There are two people who are certified and who desire to become Diaconal Ministers. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Maryne Pierce, a certified Director of Christian Education at University UMC in Chapel Hill and Lois Hardee Stocks, a certified Director of Music at Salem UMC in Simpson, for consecration as Diaconal Ministers.

The Division of Diaconal Ministry recommends to the Council on Ministries of the North Carolina Conference that the name of this Agency be changed to the Board of Diaconal Ministries in accordance with the terminology of the Book of Discipline, 1976.

Joint Committee on Disability

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate of those ministers in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each minister seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1980 Session of the North Carolina Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any minister to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the minister, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference Session.

2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require physiological and psychological examinations when deemed necessary by the committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the committee and in such a case the committee may share the expense of the examination in an amount not to exceed $100.00.

3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each application for Disability Leave submitted by ministers of the Conference to determine the recommendation of the minister's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the minister's disability. We recommend the payment of support funds for those ministers deemed temporarily disabled (or able to return to their appointment within the Conference year) from the Emergency Relief Fund and those who are deemed permanently disabled from the disability provisions of the Board of Pensions. Any minister receiving funds from the Emergency Relief Fund and recommended to be continued on Disability Leave for a second year will then receive support payments from the disability provisions of the Board of Pensions.

4. We recommend that appropriations from the Emergency Relief Fund, continuing with the 1980-1981 Conference year, be the same as those from the Board of Pensions, that is, based on one-third of the average salary of the North Carolina Conference. In addition to the basic support funds, the cost of the minister's coverage under the Conference insurance program, hospitalization and life insurance, will be paid in full, and an interim monthly grant of $250.00 will be made for the first five months a minister is granted Disability Leave, or until Social Security benefits become effective, whichever is first. Support payments from the Emergency Relief Fund will become effective on the date the minister is granted Disability Leave by the Bishop and are payable at the end of each month.

5. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each minister on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the minister's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the minister to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Emergency Relief Fund will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.

6. We recommend that the expenses of travel, telephone, postage and other materials for the committee be paid from the Emergency Relief Fund.

7. We recommend the following ministers to be placed on Disability Leave for the first time:

Robert Cleveland Mooney, Jr. — Board of Pensions support

Orville William Watson — Board of Pensions support

8. We recommend the following ministers to be continued on Disability Leave:

Paul Wesley Evans (AM) — Board of Pensions support
(Rocky Mount)

Willie James Evans — Board of Pensions support
(Cades, SC)

Fletcher W. Fraley — Board of Pensions support
(Mamers)

Rembert Charles Hamilton, Jr. — Board of Pensions support
(Wilmington)

Charles Graham Nickens — Board of Pensions support
(Goldsboro)

Robert Lee Nicks — Board of Pensions support
(Beaufort)

Evander Parnell (AM) — Board of Pensions support
(Lumberton)

George William Ports, Jr. — Board of Pensions support
(Mebane)

Frank Donald Salmon — Board of Pensions support
(Shallotte)

William Albright Seawell — Board of Pensions support
(Snow Camp)

Edgar Fraser Seymour (AM) — Board of Pensions support
(Atlantic)

Luther Vernon Wesley (AM) — Board of Pensions support
(Creedmoor)

Wilford Denny Wise — Board of Pensions support
(Hubert)

John Everett Wood — Board of Pensions support
(Aberdeen)

9. We recommend the following persons to be assisted by the emergency Relief Fund during their period of transition from the active ordained ministry to a retired relationship:

William P. McComas and Charles Irvin Umstead, Jr. (AM)

10. We recommend that ministers and congregations in the communities in which our disabled ministers reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities. It is further commended that housing needs and other special problems of our disabled ministers be considered by these congregations and communities in the light of the contribution made to our United Methodist Church by those on disability during their years of service. We can all become better stewards of the gift of life and skill as we share in this ministry of caring and concern.

Joseph K. Bostick, Secretary

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

I. Recommended schedule of Minimum Salaries for 1981

A. Salary Schedule

Conference Members under Full-Time Appointment:
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary)

Base Salary (per pastor) $9,300
Utility Allowance (per charge) 1,800
Dependent Allowance (per family)* 600

Local Pastors under Full-Time Appointment:

Base Salary (per pastor) $8,200
Utility Allowance (per charge) 1,800
Dependent Allowance (per family)* 600

Students (Local Pastors or Conference Members):

Base Salary (per pastor) $6,200
Utility Allowance (per charge) 1,800
Dependent Allowance (per family)* 600

* The IRS definition of "dependent" will be used.

B. Travel Allowance

A charge receiving equitable salary support may provide up to $1,200 for pastoral travel. A travel allowance in excess of the $1,200 limit will result in reduction of equitable salary support.

C. Part-Time Appointments

Ministers of any status who are serving part-time will receive support from equitable salary funds, if any, on a basis negotiated with the church, the pastor, the District Superintendent, and the Equitable Salary Commission.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary funds, its minister, and the District Superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward full financial support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the District Superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

A. The pastor's dependents at the time of assignment to the charge and as of January 1 shall govern the amount paid the pastor.

- B. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Salary Fund.
- C. Charges must be arranged so that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Salary Fund. Charges asking for more than one-third supplement must make an additional application, indicating the reasons for being given special consideration. Newly established congregations will be given special consideration.
- D. When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Salary Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, or the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the Cabinet.
- E. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station church, it is recommended that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of apportionments and askings.
 - 1. It is recommended that the remainder of the charge in such a division pay two-thirds of pastoral support and its proportionate share of apportionments and askings.
 - 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay two-thirds of the salary established by the division.

The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which has received, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Salary aid, shall reduce this aid by ten (10) percent each year until the charge has accepted full self-support. The Commission on Equitable Salaries wants to be clear at this point that this recommendation means that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made each year in the minimum salary for the pastor of that charge and receive ten (10) percent less in aid from Equitable Salary Funds than granted the previous year. The District Superintendents are to inform all charges receiving aid or expecting to receive aid in the future of this requirement.

- G. Any Equitable Salary supplement will be terminated immediately upon the pastor's taking full-time secular employment. Such a pastor may be reinstated at any time upon returning to full-time ministerial status. Exceptions to this rule may be permitted by approval of the Executive Committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries on the recommendation of the District Superintendent of the pastor who is seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.

Paul W. Boone, Secretary

1. The Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionments for 1981 shall be based on the formula adopted in 1979 which computes the apportionments from the total monies disbursed by each charge in 1977, 1978 and 1979 less the appropriate exclusions each year. The current exclusions are: Payments on Outreach Ministries; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements;

- local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $2400 travel paid by local church for each pastor; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Wide Communion; Human Relations; Methodist Student Day; Pension Funding Crusade.
2. Allocations to the charges shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration based on the current formula for the Fair Share Apportionments.  3. The Lake Junaluska Development Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1977-1980 inclusive. No request for adjustment will be considered after this date.*
 6. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the Council on Finance and Administration for all non-program budget items.
 7. Monies paid by the charges on apportionments and all other monies paid out by the local churches shall be reported to the Statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on Table II, Financial Report.

5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children, Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken into the local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership list of entire churches which might be provided, and that solicitation not be made through the North Carolina Christian Advocate.
6. The Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.

IV

The Council on Finance and Administration will continue to use A. M. Pullen & Company as auditors unless otherwise advised.

The president, vice-president and secretary of the Council on Finance and Administration and the Conference Treasurer shall serve as the executive committee of the Council on Finance and Administration.

Joint Advisory Committee on Higher Education

The 1979 sessions of both North Carolina Annual Conferences received a report on Ministry to the Campus, prepared under the auspices of the Joint Advisory Committee. The North Carolina Conference approved the report with minor changes and designated the members of the Advisory Committee from the North Carolina Conference to negotiate any differences between the actions of the two Conferences. The study was largely rejected by the Western North Carolina Conference and a new task force was selected to negotiate any possible new recommendations with representatives of the North Carolina Conference.

In October a series of meetings and study began leading to a new report which is submitted for the approval of both Annual Conferences. This new report enjoys the strong support of representatives of both Conferences.

This work constitutes the entire activity of the Joint Advisory Committee for 1979-1980.

We recommend the continuation of the Joint Advisory Committee on Higher Education for the 1980-84 Quadrennium as Channel for coordinating interest, concerns, and common responsibilities in the area of Higher Education between the two North Carolina Conferences.

The committee shall be made up of 10 members from each conference to be appointed by the respective bishops. A member of the North Carolina Conference representatives shall act as convener in October, 1980, with officers to assume responsibility January 1, 1981.

DIVISION OF MISSIONS - Church Extension

Guidelines for Establishing New Congregations North Carolina Conference

1. As a primary means of implementing the Evangelism Missional Priority, the North Carolina Conference commits itself to a goal of establishing at least ten new congregations during the decade of the 1980s.
2. A new congregation is a group of people who share a common geographical community and religious beliefs, the majority of whom have recently banded together for the first time to organize for the purpose of practicing their faith. New congregations in the North Carolina Conference may be established as entirely new institutions, as satellites of existing congregations, as the result of the merger of two or more existing congregations, or upon the relocation of an existing congregation to a new community. A new church formed as a satellite, or as the result of a relocation or merger, will be expected to follow the criteria and principles set forth in Chapter 13 of Strategies for New Churches.

3. While the Bishop and his Cabinet must consent to the establishment of all new congregations, the District Superintendent of the district in which a new church is to be established will have primary responsibility for initiating and guiding the development process of the new church. Specifically, the District Superintendent shall be responsible for the writing of a preliminary mission design for each new congregation within the bounds of his/her district prior to the appointment of a pastor to the new congregation (See Chapter 8, Strategies for New Churches).
4. When a geographical area within a district is believed to have possibilities for residential development, the feasibility of securing a site for a United Methodist congregation will be explored. Sites will be purchased as early as possible in areas found to be prospective new church locales. It shall be the responsibility of each District Superintendent to assess sites in his/her district every three to five years and to act appropriately on the findings of the assessment.
5. The funding of a new congregation will be a cooperative venture by the Division of Missions, the district, existing United Methodist congregations, the new congregation itself, and such other structures or groups which may be formed within the conference, district, or local areas for the purpose of promoting or supporting a new church. Except where special structures or groups have been formed for the purpose of buying or securing funds for the purchase of church extension sites, the following shall be the common expectation regarding the funding of new churches:
 - a. Purchase of the church site is not normally the responsibility of the new congregation. Current policy is to grant a maximum of $25,000 from the Division of Missions, Inc. to no more than two (2) new churches per year. Up to half the $50,000 grant available from the Ten Dollar Club may be applied toward the purchase of the site. The total maximum in grants from the Division of Missions for new congregations will be $75,000 ($25,000 from the Division of Missions, Inc., and $50,000 from the Ten Dollar Club.)
Any additional cost should be borne by the District, with possible participation by the new congregation.
 - b. The Annual Conference shall provide the organizing pastor's salary and fringe benefits for the first year of pastor's appointment, and when necessary on a decreasing scale for up to four additional years. Some new church pastors may receive more than minimum salary during this period.
 - c. When local churches agree to support the establishment of a new congregation, they may provide with the assistance of the Annual Conference a home for the organizing pastor of the new church for the first year, providing facilities for worship and church school activities for the first six months of the new church, and for costs related to feasibility studies, community surveys, and minimum office equipment and supplies during the first year of the new church's existence. In those rare cases where local congregational support for the new church cannot be secured, the expenses shall be the responsibility of the district in which the new church is located and the Annual Conference.

d. All conference and district subsidy to a new church will be paid within a normal time period of five years (7 year maximum) unless specifically stated in the preliminary mission design.

6. No new congregations will be started in the North Carolina Conference without a feasibility study, including community survey, following the criteria and suggestions of Chapter 7. Strategies for New Churches. Consideration shall also be given to starting the congregation in cooperation with other denominations.
7. Realizing that the selection of the right pastor is the single most important factor in starting a new congregation, the pastor appointed to organize a new church in the North Carolina Conference will in most cases be a minister with experience in at least one pastorate, preferably two. He/she will normally be a seminary graduate and will have, or will be provided with, as soon as possible, appropriate training for this specialized ministry. Except in rare cases, the pastor appointed to establish the new congregation will not be expected to begin services for a period of two or three months in order that he/she may have time to cultivate the community and the building blocks of the new congregation in small groups. An appointment of a new pastor will be with the expectation of the pastor and the Cabinet that the pastor will remain with the church through the first phase of the new church development process (that is, normally five to seven years or through the construction of the first building unit. New church pastors will be discouraged from remaining in a new church for more than eight to ten years. (See chapter 10, Strategies for New Churches).
8. Providing permanent church-owned buildings for new congregations prior to or during the first two years of a congregation's existence will be discouraged. While planning may begin in the second year of a new church, it will normally be expected that the first building unit will be completed during the third or fourth year of the new church. It is understood that while most new congregations will need buildings set aside for that church's purposes specifically, that will not be true in all cases. In each new church development process, the possibility of sharing facilities with another institution will be explored.
9. New churches created by the relocation of an existing congregation or by the merger of two or more existing congregations, shall be expected to pay the major cost of land, buildings, and other church expenses with a possible call upon the Conference/district for supplemental funds.

10. An aggressive policy of recruitment of new members of the Ten Dollar Club will be carried out in each local church and district with goals established annually for each district with a report to be made at District Conference and promotion given at District Lay Rallies. Phase III of the Ten Dollar Club will have two calls for new churches, one for an overseas congregation, and an optional fourth call for existing churches with special needs.

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Candidates and Ordinands

Although there have been a number of studies in recent years that would suggest an overabundance of ministers, the North Carolina Conference continues to have needs for more ministers than are available for appointment. Currently there are approximately fifty persons involved in the candidacy program, from the point of inquiry to the stage of certification. This is the initial stage of their preparation for membership in the Annual Conference and ordination as a Deacon and then Elder. The number of persons in preparation through academic training is reflected in the group being recommended for ordination, 26 as Elders and 34 as Deacons. The composition of our classes of ordinands reflects both sexes and all three ethnic populations found within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. The admission of 35 new Probationary Members and two new Associate Members reflects the continuing program of training and development through which our pastors are prepared for pastoral ministry.

Continuing Education

The concept of continuing education for ministry is a program that will enhance and further develop skills within the individual minister. For this reason continuing education has been defined as a learning experience in the classroom or in a structured seminar that is not related to specific programs of the local church. During 1979 approximately $10,000 was invested in the ministers of the North Carolina Conference in these kinds of classroom/seminar settings. In addition the Bishop's Seminar on Preaching brought the majority of our pastors together for an enrichment of our ideals of the Word proclaimed as well as the opportunity to cultivate moments of fellowship.

Activities specially noted by the Committee on Continuing Education and commended to the ministers of our Conference for their participation are the Spring Institutes at the Duke Divinity School, the Personal Growth Center at Lake Junaluska, and individual events within districts designed for the needs of those particular pastors.

Pastoral Care

Personal problems and family problems are as much a part of the parsonage family's life as in any other household. To deal with some requires professional assistance, and the Committee on Pastoral Care is providing opportunities for both the development of stronger homes and families through marriage enrichment workshops and the support of professional services through grants to individual counseling services/counselors on an anonymous basis for services rendered to our ministers and/or their families.

The growth of those taking advantage of the professional counseling opportunities is indicated in the fact that a supplementary appropriation was needed in 1979 to balance the budget for that service. Additional agencies are being added to the original list as they are found to be able to provide assistance to our parsonage families in all areas of the Conference.

The newest service available to our ministers and their families is a credit counseling agency, which provides information and assistance to families needing to get their financial house in order.

Total Grants	69	$54,975.00

These grants indicate a wide variety of colleges and seminaries through which our ministers are receiving an education that will enable their services to the churches of the North Carolina Conference to be suited to the needs of individual congregations. This variety of educational experiences has been a factor in the training of our ministers for a number of years.

Some progress has been made during the past year in the recovery of funds allocated to persons who did not complete their educational process for ministry or who transferred to another Conference. A total of $4,679.00 has been received in 1979, $2,024.00 from other Conferences for transfers and $2,625.00 from individuals repaying loan-grants made for their education. It is anticipated that a larger amount will be received in 1980 from those in the repayment process.

The appreciation of the Ministerial Education Fund Committee is extended to the many local churches across the North Carolina Conference for their acceptance of this apportioned item. One-fourth of the funds sent by local churches for the Ministerial Education Fund stays with our Conference for these scholarship loan-grants, and our report indicates the need to supply these funds to our students.

General Conference Action

Several actions of the General Conference in the area of ordained ministry are significant to report for future consideration.

First, the requirements for Probationary Membership and Deacon's Orders have been increased from one-fourth to one-half of the academic requirements for professional degree for ministry. The requirements for Full Connection and Elder's Orders have been increased to require two years of full time service under appointment after the completion of the professional degree for ministry.

Second, to be eligible for appointment every minister must have been evaluated by the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the District Superintendent by a process to be developed and presented by our Conference Division of Ordained Ministry. In addition, the minister must be involved in some form of continuing education according to standards adopted by the Division. These two requirements will necessitate a great deal of study by the Division and training for Pastor-Parish Relations Committees during the January Workshops.

Third, full time Local Pastors will have the same voting rights as Associate Members, beginning with the 1981 Session.

Recommendation

The Division of Ordained Ministry recommends to the Council on Ministries of the North Carolina Conference that the name of this agency be changed to the Board of Ordained Ministry in accordance with the terminology of the Book of Discipline (Par. 731, 1976 Dis.). The original plan of the Council which included a Board of Higher Education and Ministry to which this Division would be responsible has now been discontinued. To follow the Disciplinary language which designates the General Church agency as a Division and the Annual Conference agency as a Board seems now to be the proper method of designation for our group.

C. Pension Funding Crusade

There are not adequate words to express the joy and appreciation felt by the Board of Pensions for the overwhelming response of the people in the North Carolina Conference to the Pension Funding Crusade. The original goal of $3 million dollars seemed a formidable task, but the interest and concern of the laity of the Conference was evidenced in the overwhelming response and commitment of over $4.4 million dollars. The remittance of these commitments by our local churches has run ahead of what could be anticipated from the very beginning. This action permitted an increase in the per service year rate for 1980 of $5.50, or approximately 6%, above 1979. It would be our anticipation that a somewhat larger increase could be expected for 1981, based on a full twelve-month collection period.

The Steering Committee continues to watch the progress of the Crusade making available both materials and counsel to local churches in the progress of their individual campaigns. The expenses of the Crusade in terms of printed materials and professional assistance from the Office of Finance and Field Service, Board of Global Ministries, has been fully paid, a total of $136,370.000, or about 3% of the Accepted Goal in the Crusade. Several informational materials (including the recent bulletin insert) will be produced as the campaign continues.

D. Statement of earnings from Methodist Foundation, Inc.

Earnings credited to the Board of Pensions from funds invested in Methodist Foundation, Inc., in 1979: $360,637.21

The percent earnings as of December 31, 1979, was 8.52% on Market Value.

I. Special Allowances

The Board of Pensions recommends that a necessitous allowance equal to one-third of the Average Conference Salary be paid for one year to the following ministers who are being retired at this session of the Annual Conference under the provisions of Paragraph 434.1 of the 1976 Book of Discipline.

William P. McComas

Charles I. Umstead, Jr.

In addition to this allowance, insurance premiums for hospitalization and life insurance would be paid for the same period, unless the retired minister was to be employed by a firm that offered group hospitalization coverage at which time the hospitalization provided by the Board of Pensions would cease. The expense for these provisions will come from the Emergency Relief Fund.

REPORT II: HOUSING EXCLUSION ALLOWANCE

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE DOCUMENT NO. 5045 (10-67) DECLARES:

"Rental Value of Home furnished a Clergyman, and cost of utilities paid for him, as part of his compensation for carrying out his duties as clergyman, are not income to him, if he is duly ordained, licensed, or commissioned."

A Rental Allowance to Clergyman, paid as part of his compensation, is not income to the extent he used it, in the year received, to provide a home, or pay utilities for a home furnished to him. However, the church, or organization which employs him must have officially designated the payment as a rental allowance before the payment was made."

"The above rules are also applicable to retired clergymen where a rent-free home or rental allowance is furnished him in recognition of past services in carrying out his duties as a clergyman."

A REVISED RULING, 63, 156, 163-2CB 79 STATES:

". . . the rental value of the home furnished to a retired minister as part of his compensation for services is excludable from his gross income under Section 107 (1) of the Code. Also, the rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation for past services is excludable under Section 107 (2) of the Code, to the extent used by him for expenses directly related to providing a home." (See Code Sec. 107, Reg. 1.107. 1-113.01)

Therefore the following resolution is presented to the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has a tradition of providing housing (a parsonage) for its ministers, or in instances where no parsonage is owned by the charge giving the minister a housing allowance:

Whereas, Retired Ministers of the North Carolina Conference are entitled to the same privileges as those in the Effective Relationship: and

Whereas, the most practical method of providing housing for the Retired Ministers is by means of rental allowance:

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the amount of $3,500.00 per year be set as a fair and reasonable rental allowance for each Retired Minister of this annual conference; that of the first $3,500.00 paid to a Retired Minister each year by The Board of Pensions of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, $2,400.00 of this is designated as the payment of this Housing Allowance and $1,100.00 for Utility Allowance. The Housing Allowance is specifically designated as compensation to the minister for the cost of renting or providing housing for himself and his family and those costs related hereto, pursuant to the Code as stated in Document 5045 (10-67).

The Board of Pensions emphasized that the Retired Minister who uses this Housing Allowance must be able to furnish proof that he made expenditures in the amounts claimed. If the full $3,500.00 cannot be substantiated as expenditures, then claim should be made for only those amounts which can be verified.

We also remind the minister who uses this allowance, that the amount he claims as a Housing Allowance exclusion must be included as Income in reporting his Social Security. It is possible that reduced Social Security benefits would offset any claims for the Housing Allowance exclusion. Please consult your Social Security Advisor about this matter.

Further, the Board of Pensions absolves itself of any responsibility in the event the Internal Revenue Service disallows any housing allowance claimed.

REPORT III

MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND CONSTITUTION

The Constitution of the Ministers' Retirement Fund is herein restated to incorporate all of the modifications and revisions as contained in the reports of the Board of Pensions adopted by the 1975, 1976, and 1979 sessions of the North Carolina Conference.

The Principle of the Fund

The Minister's Retirement Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship to the retired relationship by paying a lump sum benefit at the time of retirement. The fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Single Figure Askings and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the fund. Since all churches contribute to this fund, it is the desire of the Annual Conference that all ministers participate in the fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers Retirement Fund as an additional benefit for their minister, but a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he/she contributed to the fund. We vigorously emphasize that this is for the minister's RETIREMENT, and NOT any kind of emergency fund to be made available for any other purpose.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the District Superintendents, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer shall obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each Annual Conference, who are eligible to receive the lump sum payment, and pay them promptly any benefits to which they are entitled. Retirement benefits are to be paid only to those ministers who are retiring either because they have reached 65; (or age 62 on reduced retirement benefits) because they have accrued 40 years of approved service; (or 37 years on reduced retirement benefits) or in special situations retired on Medical Disability.

Eligibility for Membership

Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Conference (Associate, Full, or Probationary) or lay supply minister who is serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work is contributing to the minister's pension credit shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member or lay supply minister must continue to serve full time in a charge or other work under episcopal appointment that contributes to the minister's pension credit. Membership in this fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. Members may not be received retroactively. The period of enrollment for all ministers is January 1 - 31 of each year.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total remuneration for the seven months between June 1 and December 31 computed to twelve months.

A lay supply minister may continue as a member of the Minister's Retirement Fund only during the time he/she is serving under episcopal appointment and earning pension credit.

Each new member to the fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his/her membership becomes effective.

Ministers' Retirement Fund Constitution

Assessments

For the benefit of this fund there shall be placed in the Conference budget annually an amount equal to one per cent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This amount will be apportioned to the charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items.

Each minister in a pastoral appointment shall pay into the fund one per cent (1%) of all money excluding travel he or she receives each year from the charge or charges he or she is serving and/or Conference sources (this includes salary, utility allowances, Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment funds, and missionary sources).

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to 1% of salary usually paid by the charge for District Superintendents and ministers employed by the Council on Ministries. District Superintendents and Council on Ministries ministerial employees shall pay 1% of their income designated as salary and utilities.

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall pay a sum equivalent of 2% of their annual salary and utility allowances, and if such minister has no such annual income shall pay 2% of the Average Conference Salary.

Deadline for Receipt of Payments

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Retirement Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. Each member of the fund shall submit the required payment no later than January 31 of each year. Not later than December 1 of each year, the Conference Treasurer shall notify all members that this payment is due. Payments made AFTER January 31 will be credited to the minister making the payment. However, if he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this delayed payment extends the period prior to dividend payments for one year. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will collect no dividends for the year of delayed payment.

Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$ 200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00
If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00

After ten years of membership, a member is eligible to receive dividends credited to his/her account and payable in addition to the Base benefit upon retirement.

Dividends

Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members retiring at the Annual Conference shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

Death Benefits

If a participating member of the fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his/her named beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, otherwise pay to his/her credit.

Each member shall provide the Conference Treasurer and the Board of Pensions a statement, naming the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death before retirement.

Payment of Retirement Benefits:

A minister who retires with less than ten (10) years credit in the fund will be paid immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which time he/she retires, the total amount as prescribed by the formula for retired members. A minister with ten (10) or more years credit in the fund shall be paid immediately following the Annual Conference session at which he/she retires, an amount equal to the total which he/she has personally contributed to the fund. The remainder of the amount accrued to the minister's credit shall be paid to him/her in a lump sum between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister retires. This amount will draw simple interest from June 1 to December 31 computed at the lowest current bank passbook interest rate paid by a bank located in the city of Raleigh (the "PASSBOOK RATE") in effect on December 15 prior to the January payment. The total January payment should be reported as ordinary income for income tax purposes.

Membership Transferring

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church will not make any further payment to the Fund. He/she may leave his/her holdings in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, they will earn interest at the "PASSBOOK RATE." If the funds are held, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he/she may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

Penalties

Upon the retirement or death of any member who has failed any year or years, but not for three consecutive years, to contribute his/her required contribution, there shall be deducted from any benefits an amount equal to twice the amount he/she should have paid during the year or years he/she did not contribute.

Ministers' Retirement Fund Constitution

If any member of the Fund fails to contribute his/her required contribution for three consecutive years, he/she shall have no claim on this Fund other than for the actual amount he/she has paid into the Fund, and this amount will be refunded to the member as soon after the three consecutive year period as possible.

Withdrawing from the Fund

If a member desires to withdraw from the fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference Treasurer and the Board of Pensions, he/she shall receive an amount equal to the amount he/she has paid into the fund, plus the simple interest computed at the "PASSBOOK RATE" which was in effect each year he/she was participating in the Fund, and terminate his/her membership in the Fund.

If a minister is approved for disability leave he/she may submit an application to the Board of Pensions requesting permission to withdraw funds held in the Ministers' Retirement Fund. If the application is approved, he/she will be paid on the same basis as if he/she were retiring at the current session of the Annual Conference. If a person on disability leave makes application to withdraw from the fund between sessions of the Annual Conference, and if the application is approved, he/she will be paid on the same basis as if he/she had retired at the previous session of the Annual conference.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the fund in any way will provide the Conference Treasurer with a statement indicating that he/she has received funds for which he/she is eligible, and that he/she is no longer a member of the Fund.

Reinstatement

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he/she were a new member.

New Rules and Constitutional Provisions

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this fund shall be null and void.

Constitution Printed

It is recommended that with the adoption of this constitution by the Annual Conference, that the constitution be printed in a booklet and copies given to each member of the Annual Conference.

1. That every conference agency be required to adopt an affirmative action program appropriate to its responsibilities and circumstances;
2. That every district be required to have on the DCOM a Coordinator for Religion and Race;
3. That every conference division, board, and agency be required to elect along with its other quadrennial officers a Coordinator for Religion and Race whose responsibility it shall be to lead the division, board or agency in the development and implementation of an affirmative action program;
4. That early in the new quadrennium there be a meeting of the Commission on Religion and Race with all Coordinators of Religion and Race for the purpose of training them in giving leadership in the development and implementation of programs of affirmative action;
5. That there shall be two programs in which people will have an opportunity to experience communication across racial lines;

6. That the Commission on Religion and Race meet with the Board of Trustees of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., to explore alternative ways of caring for ethnic minority elderly;
7. That the Commission on Religion and Race sponsor a meeting of the Bishop and Cabinet with selected laypersons for the purpose of studying ways in which the conference may move toward open itinerancy.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

We recommend that:

1. A North Carolina Christian Advocate subscription campaign be held annually in each local church. The dates of the campaign in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference are to be from October 15 through November 15, 1980. The dates of the campaign in the North Carolina Annual Conference are to be from January 15 through February 15, 1981. The purpose of the Advocate campaign will be to give each local church an opportunity to concentrate on Advocate subscriptions, both new and renewal. Sunday, November 2 1980, is suggested as Advocate Sunday for the Western North Carolina Conference. Sunday, January 25, 1981, is suggested as Advocate Sunday for the North Carolina Conference.
2. Each local church accept as its minimum goal of Advocate subscriptions 10% of its membership. For example, a church with 500 members would be expected to have a minimum of 50 subscribers to the Advocate.
3. The price of an individual Advocate subscription will be $5.75 a year in 1981.
4. There be an All-Administrative Board subscription plan available to local churches at $5.25 each per year in 1981.
5. All subscriptions in churches with the All-Administrative Board subscription plan be $5.25 each per year in 1981.
6. There be an All-Family subscription plan available to local churches at $4.50 each per year in 1981 when all resident families are subscribers
7. Each local church be prepared to report to the 1980 fall Charge Conference progress made to date in reaching the minimum 10%-of-its membership subscription goal.
8. Each local church nominate to the 1980 fall Charge Conference the name of a person to be its Advocate campaign chairperson and that this person be a member of the Administrative Board of that church.
9. The Advocate be continued as a weekly publication during 1981 with the exception of the first week in January and the second week in July; publishing 50 times a year.

GROUP C — RESOLUTIONS

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTION AND REFERENCE

On behalf of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting in 155th continuous session of our Methodist fellowship, your committee on Resolution and Reference expresses appreciation to all who have contributed to its success and advancement.

"Where the Centuries pass in the Night" was once the proud slogan of the New York Central Railroad, pictured by sleek, swift trains passing near Niagra Falls on the Canadian border. We have been conscious this year of the passing of an era an the uncertainty of a new one to begin this Fall.

We refer to the end of the administrative leadership of Bishop Robert M. Blackburn after eight years as we approach our Jurisdictional Conference. Many of us know how difficult it is to be an administrative officer and at the same time a concerned pastor, but we are grateful that Bishop Blackburn has invested himself in our conference with the express purpose of presiding with fairness, of serving each member of the conference as a concerned pastoral leader, and that he has maintained a sensitive awareness of local church and pastoral needs.

For this reason a highlight of our conference came on Tuesday night as the Committee on Episcopacy represented us all as it presented to Robert and Jewell Blackburn a book of remembrance and a generous gift from pastors and churches. A deeply moved Bishop Blackburn demonstrated appreciation for the gift and the spirit of love which motivated it.

We feel so much at home at Methodist College that it seems superfluous to say words of thanks to our hosts, but we are most appreciative of the careful preparation for our conference made by President Richard Pierce, Vice President Bill Lowdermilk, and each employee of this fine institution.

From the first words of greeting by Mayor Beth Finch and New Bern District Superintendent Reginald Ponder, we have been at home. We would be remiss if we did not say words of thanks to the ministers, churches, choirs, and friends of the New Bern District. The rich musical accompaniment for our work and worship is sufficient reason for expressions of gratitude to members of our Fellowship of Musicians.

Other highlights of our conference must include the stimulating services of ordination for a class of 27 Elders and 32 Deacons in The United Methodist Church. The future of Methodism in North Carolina is most promising.

The election of the first nominee for Bishop was a memorable event, and we extend congratulations and best wishes to our "favorite son", Dr. Wallace Kirby, presently pastor of Edenton Street United Methodist Church.

The sincere challenge of Bishop Robert M. Blackburn given in the ordination sermon to the class of Elders and the stirring challenge by Dr. Wallace Chappel given in the ordination sermon to the class of Deacons moved us all.

The Black Experience of Worship was enriched by the impassioned message of Dr. Frank Leviticus Williams and a capacity audience was touched with the simple beauty of worship in which we were led.

We thank these two fine preachers for giving their time and energy to enrich our work sessions with the fine and stimulating sermons. The Reverend Norwood L. Jones evoked many expressions of appreciation for his Memorial sermon.

We appreciate the good and fair coverage given our conference sessions by the media representatives from the North Carolina Christian Advocate, from WRAL-TV in Raleigh, reporters from the Fayetteville Times and the Fayetteville Observer, from the Raleigh News and Observer, and Parker Brothers Newspapers. Special words of thanks are due to Mrs. Barbara Wilkinson, her associates with the "Saddle Bag", and all members of the Committee on Communications.

We seldom note, nor long remember the time and energy given so freely by our Conference Secretary James Coile, and the six ministers and seven secretaries who comprise a hard working staff that assure us of accurate minutes, written resolutions for our adoption, and an efficient movement of details of conference business. Our hearty thanks to each one of these.

We give thanks to God for each minister and lay person who has been a part of our conference activities this year. Each has blessed and enriched our total fellowship in His service. The spouses blessed us with their presence and an overflow of their loving fellowship during Wednesday sessions. We thank our many visitors who brought expressions of greetings and information from other agencies.

To each of these, and to the many who could have been mentioned as easily, we offer thanks to Almighty God for your labor and love in His work. To Bishop and Mrs. Robert M. Blackburn we say one more time, not "good-bye" but "au revoir", "till we meet again", may the Lord bless you "real good".

Sincerely,
Thomas A. Collins, Chairperson
Emerson M. Thompson, Secretary

Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

That we recommend the Greenville community be selected as the site for the next Retirement Home, provided they meet the site requirements of land and money and provided the North Carolina Conference reaffirm its support for a new home.

We recommend that we seek to move forward with construction of a Retirement Home in the Greenville area within the next three years without cost or construction expenses to the Conference.

Crisis in Family Life

The Bishop and cabinet shall appoint a special task force to investigate and make recommendations as to how as an Annual Conference we can design and implement creative and effective ministries and resources in response to the crisis in Family Life in our nation.

Parsonage Standards

I move that the Parsonage Standards Committee adopt as their policy and standard the recommended insulation levels set forth by Carolina Power and Light — and that Parsonage Committees attempt to meet them within the quadrennium 1981-1985.

Moving Expenses

Due to the continual rise in moving expenses and the hardship this imposes on those who are moving, it is recommended that the Bishop appoint a committee to study moving expenses and if at all possible the N.C. Annual Conference consider paying a much higher percentage of moving expenses.

Open Itinerancy

(The following motion was approved and then referred to the Board of Ordained Ministry instead of the Division of Church and Society.)

I move that this 1980 Annual Conference instruct the Conference Board of Church and Society to prepare and bring to the 1981 Annual Conference for its action a resolution on open itinerancy for the North Carolina Annual Conference.

A Motion to Allow Our Membership to Express Themselves

Whereas, the 1980 Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church wishes to be representative of its members;

I move that the North Carolina Conference Division of Church and Society poll the local churches' members in a referendum as soon as possible on all positions and resolutions made by this committee and the statistical breakdown be made public.

Church and Society Reports to Annual Conference

I move that we respectfully request the Bishop and other persons responsible for planning the agenda of the 1981 Conference be asked to give serious consideration to scheduling the report of the Division of Church and Society on the second day of Conference.

Conference Secretary — Conference Statistician Offices

I move that we request the Council on Finance of our Conference to bring to us, as soon as possible, a plan whereby the office of Conference Secretary may be combined with the office of Conference Statistician and be made a full time position.

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

We the North Carolina Annual Conference recommend that the Division of Higher Education seek ways to recognize Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and its contribution to the United Methodist Church and the North Carolina Annual Conference and the Division invite representatives of the Seminary to speak at Annual Conference when other leaders of Colleges and Seminaries speak.

Resolution of Property Transfer

Whereas, the property of Mizpah Church, Richmond County, was abandoned as a preaching place several years ago and

Whereas, said property has been used since as a place for the burial of the dead, and

Whereas, said property has fallen into a poor state of upkeep, and
Whereas, no surviving trusteeship has been identified;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, successor to the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in annual session June 2-5, 1980, authorize the transfer of the Mizpah Church property in Richmond County to the Prayer Time Evangelistic Association of Richmond County.

The Prayer Time Evangelistic Association covenants to maintain the Mizpah Church property in Richmond County forever as a place for the burial of the dead. Any breach of said covenant shall cause ownership of said property to revert to the North Carolina Annual Conference or its successors.

Hearing Aids

Whereas some 15,000,000 persons in the United States have hearing impairments and some 4,000,000 persons in the United States wear hearing aids,

Whereas approximately 25 percent of the telephones in the United States are incompatible with the use of the telephone switch of any hearing aid,

Whereas the telephone industry in the United States has embarked upon a program of replacing existing telephone instruments with telephones incompatible with the use of the telephone switch on hearing aids,

Whereas, as a consequence, several millions of persons who utilize the telephone switch on hearing aids will no longer be able, in the future, to hear over any telephone in this country,

Whereas two companion bills in the Congress, H.R. 5022, now before the House Subcommittee on Communications, and S. 2642, now before the Senate Subcommittee on Communications, would require that all newly manufactured, imported, and installed telephones be compatible with the use of the telephone switch on hearing aids,

Therefore be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church meeting in June, 1980, Fayetteville, North Carolina, hereby requests that the U.S. Congress enact as soon as possible S. 2642 and H.R. 5022. In Testimony of this action, the Conference directs that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the chairman of the House Subcommittee, Hon. Lionel Van Deerlin, 2408 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515 and to the chairman of the Senate Subcommittee, Hon. Ernest F. Hollings, 115 Russell Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510.

A Resolution of Appreciation

Whereas the United Methodist Church charges the Conference Division of Church and Society "to develop and promote programs on Christian social concerns" and, to that end, The Division of Church and Society of the North Carolina Conference functions, and

Whereas the elected leadership of the Division is particularly crucial in its efforts to fulfill this directive, and

Whereas Mrs. J. O. Watson has served faithfully and positively as Chairperson of the Division for the past four years, and

Whereas the Reverend John H. Crum, has served faithfully and efficiently as Secretary of the Division for the past four years;

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Division of Church and Society of the North Carolina Conference, on this 4th day of June, 1980, do express our profound appreciation to and deep affection for these two faithful servants as they complete their tenure among us.

And we pledge to them our continued diligence in the task of Christian social concerns to which they have given themselves so creatively and unselfishly.

The Division of Church and Society,
The North Carolina Conference

Resolution of Appreciation for Herman S. Winberry

Whereas, Herman S. Winberry has been a member of the Division of Ordained Ministry of the North Carolina Conference for the past eight years; and

Whereas, he has been the chairperson of this Division for the past four years, giving generously of his abilities in leadership and direction in providing for the ministry of this Annual Conference; and

Whereas, there have been many young men and women whose call to ministry has been supported and strengthened through the careful and dedicated work of the Division under his leadership; and

Whereas, he has always lifted up the highest ideals of the ministry of the Church, both in his personal practice and more particularly in celebrating the gifts and graces of those who would serve God's people through the ordained ministry; and

Whereas, the vision of Herman S. Winberry has been a significant part of the strengthening and undergirding of all who seek to fulfill their calling in the service of this Annual Conference;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Division of Ordained Ministry of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church does hereby extend sincere and heartfelt appreciation for the contribution of leadership and service, so unselfishly given, by Herman S. Winberry, and calls upon this Annual Conference to join with the members in thanksgiving for what he means to us all.
